New England Mutual Life Ins.,

Of Boston, Mass., Chartered in 1843,

Capital and accumulation, $650,000.

THIS Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudently and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting its business has been to provide perfect security under all conceivable circumstances, for the payment of its losses under its policies, and to return to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and strict economy is observed.

Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessments beyond his premium.

The directors are required to be pecuniarily interested in the company, and they give it their personal attention; and bonds of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties.

Insurance may be effected for the benefit of the wife, which is secured to her by law beyond the reach of a husband's creditors; and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

Highly Important to Farmers.

THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST,

THE MADISON MUTUAL,

LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently you will have no losses only your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and such like property. In this company all such property is rejected POSITIVELY, by LETTING THEM ALONE.

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

The best of references given as to the responsibility of the company.

CHIP'S

CELEBRATED WORMWOOD CORDIAL.

THE subscriber in introducing this valuable temperance beverage, would respectfully call the attention of the public to the fact, that it is prepared from green Wormwood, an herb that grows luxuriantly in the New England States, the medicinal qualities of which, for the regulation of the stomach and blood, cannot be equalled by anything ever used. It is a sure cure and preventive of Fever, Ague, Dyspepsia, Diarrhea, and all diseases arising from impurities of the blood or inaction of the stomach. Try it.

RAILROAD STORE!

I WISH to call attention, as I have done before,
To the Goods I am receiving now at the Railroad Store,
Where all the newest Fashions, to suit the young and old,
The richest and the cheapest goods in Janesville, will be sold.

My large and splendid stock of Lawns to show I'm always willing,
The price, as all the Ladies know, is from sixpence to a shilling.
I've Fine Black Silks from Italy, and colored ones that's rare,
Plaid, Grodenaps and Marcellaines, and Florences to spare.

And such a lot of Hosiery, I know cannot be beat,
And Gloves a great variety, they are so very neat;
Just now, when Spring is coming, and every thing looks bright,
For a glove to suit the season, the color should be light.

There are other Goods for Ladies, of which they ought to know,
That I keep in those blue boxes, and am always pleased to show,
Such as Blonde and Linen Edging, Cotton and Cambric, too,
Muslin and Cambric Needlework, and Gimps of every hue.

Those Undersleeves and Chimisettes I almost had forgot,
And Ladies' Needlework Collars, so beautifully wrought,
With Bishop Lawns and Cambrics, and Muslins fine and neat,
And Lace to make old ladies' Caps and trim them off complete.

And to parry Sol's "directer rays," I've Parasols to sell,
Of every price and color—they please the Ladies well—
And Umbrellas cheap for Gents, or so at least they say,
For lots of them get carried off, on every rainy day.

Such lots of Combs for the million, of every sort and kind,
To puff, or curl, or plait the hair, no better can you find;
And every kind of Buttons for dresses, coats and vests,
To sell by the gross or dozen—they are the very best.

And for Gentlemen and little Boys I have Fashionable Hats,
Silk, Beaver, Leghorn, Panama, and cloth and leather Caps;
And for infants, Hats with feathers and ribbons gay and bright,
And little Caps with tassels drab, orange, blue and white.

I have stacks of Linen, of yellow, brown and white,
And every other kind, of Summer Goods that's right
To make up into coats and pantaloons and vests—
As large a stock as any, that ever was brought West.

They say long advertisements, are not the oftenest read,
And that most may be meant, as oft, when least is said,
In view of this, I'll close my bill, and here invite you all,
Whenever you come to Janesville, be sure and give me a call.

GOING WESTWARDLY.

A passenger train will leave Milwaukee at 7,30 A. M., arrive at Janesville at 11 A. M, at Madison, the capital of the State, at 12,40 P. M.

A passenger train will also leave Milwaukee at 5,15 P. M., on the arrival of the boat from Chicago, and reach Janesville and Madison the same evening.

GOING EASTWARDLY.

A passenger train will leave Madison for the present at 3 A. M., and Janesville at 5 A. M, and arrive at Milwaukee at 8, 30 A. M., in time to connect with the morning boat to Chic'go.

A passenger train will also leave Madison at 1.30 P. M., and Janesville at 3,30 P. M., and arrive at Milwaukee at 7 P. M., in time to connect with the evening boat for Chicago.

Freight trains run each way every day the entire length of the road.

Stages will run in connection with the cars to and from the Forest House and Whitewater, to Watertown, Fort Winnebago, Fond du Lac, Beaver Dam, Horicon, Waupun and Berlin, which will commence running on and after June 10th.

Also from Janesville and Madison, to Sauk, Baraboo, Dodgeville, Mineral Point, Florence, Galena, Dubuque and to various other portions of the state.

Passengers are ticketed to and from Madison to Chica at $5,00; and to and from Janesville to Chicago at $3,00.

N. B. The price from Milwaukee to all eastern points is the same as from Chicago, which makes the Milwaukee route the cheapest by several dollars.

New England Mutual Life Ins.,

Of Boston, Mass., Chartered in 1843,

Capital and accumulation, $650,000.

THIS Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudently and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting its business has been to provide perfect security under all conceivable circumstances, for the payment of its losses under its policies, and to return to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and strict economy is observed.

Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessments beyond his premium.

The directors are required to be pecuniarily interested in the company, and they give it their personal attention; and bonds of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties.

Insurance may be effected for the benefit of the wife, which is secured to her by law beyond the reach of a husband's creditors; and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

Highly Important to Farmers.

THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST,

THE MADISON MUTUAL,

LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently you will have no losses only your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and such like property. In this company all such property is rejected positively, by letting them alone.

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

The best of references given as to the responsibility of the company.

A STORE FOR SALE OR TO LET.

THE STORE and a Lot of ground known as Lot No 8, on Block No. 1, in the villave and township of FULTON, Rock County, on the Catfish, near its confluence with Rock river, 11 miles northwest of Janesville.

The building is well calculated for a country store, being 23 feet front by 52 feet deep, and finished off above into convenient apartments either for a family or for offices, all in good condition.

The whole has been occupied for three years past by Messrs. T. E. and F. G. Green, as a store and dwelling, and being situated immediately opposite the Gristmill, is considered the best location for business in the village. The lot is two rods front by about seven rods deep.

This property will be sold or let on reasonable terms, and possession given immediately. For particularr enquire of MILLS & SAYRE, Fulton, so LEVI ALDEN, Janesville.

RAILROAD STORE!

I WISH to call attention, as I have done before,
To the Goods I am receiving now at the Railroad Store,
Where all the newest Fashions, to suit the young and old,
The richest and the cheapest goods in Janesville, will be sold.

My large and splendid stock of Lawns to show I'm always willing,
The price, as all the Ladies know, is from sixpence to a shilling.
I've Fine Black Silks from Italy, and colored ones that's rare,
Plaid, Grodenaps and Marcellaines, and Florences to spare.

And such a lot of Hosiery, I know cannot be beat,
And Gloves a great variety, they are so very neat:
Just now, when Spring is coming, and every thing looks bright,
For a glove to suit the season, the color should be light.

There are other Goods for Ladies, of which they ought to know,
That I keep in those blue boxes, and am always pleased to show,
Such as Blonde and Linen Edging, Cotton and Cambric, too,
Muslin and Cambric Needlework, and Gimps of every hue.

Those Undersleeves and Chimisettes I almost had forgot,
And Ladies' Needlework Collars, so beautifully wrought,
With Bishop Lawns and Cambrics, and Muslins fine and neat,
And Lace to make old ladies' Caps and trim them off complete.

And to parry Sol's "directer rays," I've Parasols to sell,
Of every price and color—they please the Ladies well—
And Umbrellas cheap for Gents, or so at least they say,
For lots of them get carried off, on every rainy day.

Such lots of Combs for the million, of every sort and kind,
To puff, or curl, or plait the hair, no better can you find;
And every kind of Buttons for dresses, coats and vests,
To sell by the gross or dozen—they are the very best.

And for Gentlemen and little Boys I have Fashionable Hats,
Silk, Beaver, Leghorn, Panama, and cloth and leather Caps;
And for infants, Hats with feathers and ribbons gay and bright,
And little Caps with tassels drab, orange, blue and white.

I have stacks of Linen, of yellow, brown and white,
And every other kind, of Summer Goods that's right
To make up into coats and pantaloons and vests—
As large a stock as any, that ever was brought West.

They say long advertisements, are not the oftenest read,
And that most may be meant, as oft, when least is said,
In view of this, I'll close my bill, and here invite you all,
Whenever you come to Janesville, be sure and give me a call.

New England Mutual Life Ins.,

Of Boston, Mass., Chartered in 1843,

Capital and accumulation, $650,000.

THIS Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudently and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting its business has been to provide perfect security under all conceivable circumstances, for the payment of its losses under its policies, and to return to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and strict economy is observed.

Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessments beyond his premium.

The directors are required to be pecuniarly interested in the company, and they give it their personal attention; and bonds of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties.

Insurance may be effected for the benefit of the wife, which is secured to her by law beyond the reach of a husband's creditors; and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

Highly Important to Farmers.

THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST,

THE MADISON MUTUAL,

LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently you will have no losses only your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and such like property. In this company all such property is rejected positively, by letting them alone.

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

CHIP'S

CELEBRATED WORMWOOD CORDIAL.

THE subscriber in introducing this valuable temperance beverage, would respectfully call the attention of the public to the fact, that it is prepared from green Wormwood, an herb that grows luxuriantly in the New England States, the medicinal qualities of which, for the regulation of the stomach and blood, cannot be equalled by anything ever used. It is a sure cure and preventive of Fever, Ague, Dyspepsia, Diarrhea, and all diseases arising from impurities of the blood or inaction of the stomach. Try it.

RAILROAD STORE!

I WISH to call attention, as I have done before,
To the Goods I am receiving now at the Railroad Store,
Where all the newest Fashions, to suit the young and old,
The richest and the cheapest goods in Janesville, will be sold.

My large and splendid stock of Lawns to show I'm always willing,
The price, as all the Ladies know, is from sixpence to a shilling,
I've Fine Black Silks from Italy, and colored ones that's rare,
Plaid, Grodenaps and Marcellaines, and Florences to spare.

And such a lot of Hosiery, I know cannot be beat,
And Gloves a great variety, they are so very neat:
Just now, when Spring is coming, and every thing looks bright,
For a glove to suit the season, the color should be light.

There are other Goods for Ladies, of which they ought to know,
That I keep in those blue boxes, and am always pleased to show,
Such as Blonde and Linen Edging, Cotton and Cambric, too,
Muslin and Cambric Needlework, and Gimps of every hue.

Those Undersleeves and Chimisettes I almost had forgot,
And Ladies' Needlework Collars, so beautifully wrought,
With Bishop Lawns and Cambrics, and Muslins fine and neat,
And Lace to make old ladies' Caps and trim them off complete.

And to parry Sol's "directer rays," I've Parasols to sell,
Of every price and color—they please the Ladies well—
And Umbrellas cheap for Gents, or so at least they say,
For lots of them get carried off, on every rainy day.

Such lots of Combs for the million, of every sort and kind,
To puff, or curl, or plait the hair, no better can you find;
And every kind of Buttons for dresses, coats and vests,
To sell by the gross or dozen—they are the very best.

And for Gentlemen and little Boys I have Fashionable Hats,
Silk, Beaver, Leghorn, Panama, and cloth and leather Caps;
And for infants, Hats with feathers and ribbons gay and bright,
And little Caps with tassels drab, orange, blue and white.

I have stacks of Linen, of yellow, brown and white,
And every other kind, of Summer Goods that's right
To make up into coats and pantaloons and vests—
As large a stock as any, that ever was brought West.

They say long advertisements, are not the oftenest read,
And that most may be meant, as oft, when least is said,
In view of this, I'll close my bill, and here invite you all,
Whenever you come to Janesville, be sure and give me a call.

THE POWER OF LOVE.

[Concluded.]

As Jasper said this, he rose from his chair, and staggered towards the door. He paused a moment, as he held the nob in his hand—perhaps with the thought that his wife might speak a kind word to him, or show some alarm at the idea of his leaving her. Busy, terrible thoughts were running through his head. The room seemed to turn round and round. He opened the door and passed into the hall; but no voice came from Mary. She sat silent as stone, but with a heart bursting with grief. She dearly loved her husband, and longed to speak the kind word that would turn him back, but pride and stubbornness forbade. The sound of his unsteady steps, as he passed along the hall to the front door, fell forebodingly upon her ear, and when that door was closed behind him, and Jasper stood irresolute without the house, the fountains of her grief were opened, and she wept and sobbed most piteously.

It was a sad, sad sight, that young wife with all her hopes blighted, the chosen of her heart given up to the most debasing of all sins, her young child deprived of its protector, with immediate ruin and starvation staring her in the face, with no solitary hope in the future, and all the agony of the present. The memories of happier days rose before her—the innocent days of her girlhood, surrounded with gay companions, and blessed with a mother's love. All these she had sacrificed for the man she loved. How was she repaid? What had she done to deserve so bitter a fate? What dreadful sin had she committed to be thus punished? How unequal seems the reward and chastisements of life. Mary thus reflected and almost arraigned the justice and benificence of God. Jasper had left the house in anger. What might happen to him in his present condition? Where would he go? Such were the wife's fears, though she hoped that he might return as soon as his anger had a little subsided. She was sorry that she had spoken so harshly to him. That was no way to redeem him; but had she not tried kind words till her patience was exhausted? And what woman would not get angry with a drunken husband? Such were this poor ill-treated wife's emotions, and who could blame her?

All at once she thought that she would go to the door to see if Jasper had really gone. She rose from her chair for that purpose, and half way crossed the room. But pride rebelled again. She would not show him that she was at all worried about him. It was all he wanted, and he should not be gratified; so she returned once more to her chair, where she wept as though her heart was breaking, and like enough it was for all that, for she was indeed most miserable.

When Jasper had closed the door behind him, and stood out once more in the open night air he was undecided what to do, or where to go. Maddened as he was by the reproaches of his wife, self-condemned by an accusing conscience, sick and weary with liquor and excitement, it is no wonder that his first thought was suicide. No wonder that he felt unworthy to live; strange that he did not think himself unfit to die. Such is the direful effects of the intoxicating bowl—such the "deep damnation" with which it is drugged. Far more dangerous than the dicer's box, it kills both body and soul, and its train is made up of disease, imbecility, lunacy, poverty, crime, the prison and the gallows! There is no innocence in it; it blights wherever it falls; it stains all it touches. It makes desolate the family hearthstone. It pits man against his brother; it raises the hand of the child against the parent; even the innocent are made sufferers thereby; and the loud wail of its myriads of victims rises up from every quarter of the civilized world. It is one of the curses invented by civilization, and to that only does it owe its birth; for the African in his native state is uncontaminated with it; and the vilest animal that exists turns away from it with disgust.

Jasper, when he had closed the door, paused for some minutes, undetermined what to do.—We have said that his first thought was suicide.

"I am not fit to live!" he exclaimed. I know I am wrong, and yet I cannot help it—I cannot help it, and I might as well die at once, as live on in disgrace. Somebody will take care of Mary. She will go back to her mother; and she will be much happier and far better off without me than with me. I cannot stand her reproaches—I will not. As for any future, it cannot be worse for me than the present, at any rate. Yes, I may as well die!"

Though Jasper talked thus about suicide, we do not suppose he had any more distinct idea of it than of anything else that might happen to be rambling through his head. The fumes of the liquor were still upon him. He was not more than half sober and his legs were still so weak under him, that they carried him with a wavering gait, and his head buzzed, buzzed like a nest of bees. But he meant to punish his wife for talking so angrily with him. At one moment he had half a mind to turn back, and go to bed; but the devil had the better of him, and mustering up his resolution, he buttoned his coat about him, and proceeded to descend into the street. The first step he made, however, was a false one. His knees bent under him. He made a vain and desperate attempt to catch at the iron railing of the stoop, but missed his hold, and pitched forward into the street, striking head first upon the side walk, and cutting and bruising his face in a terrible manner, so as to render him completely insensible.

Now it so happened that at this moment Mary thought that she would go to the door and look out; not that she doubted but what Jasper had gone, still at the same time half inclined to believe that he might be still in sight, and within call.

So she opened the door, and peered forth into the cold night air. How still and silent everything around. She looked up the street, and down the street; but the object which her eyes sought met them not. She drew a heavy sigh, as her heart felt a pang greater than she had known before, and she was about to close the door, when her ears were startled by a low moan, and then, for the first time, casting her eyes down upon the side walk, they rested upon the form of her husband.

With a cry of terror, Mary was in an instant stooping by the side of Jasper, urging him with all the dearest language of her heart, to look up, to speak, to even rise; but alas! it was beyond his power. Vainly she tried to lift him, but her strength was not equal to the task. Oh, how bitterly she then repented all the unkind words she had said to him—how every reproach smote upon her heart. She forgot all his errors—she became blind to his numerous faults, and Jasper was once more her best beloved. Every word of endearment she could think of, she poured forth with a voluble tongue, but they all fell ineffectually upon his ear. What should she do? Jasper would die, and there were none to help her. She was ashamed to cry aloud for aid. To claim the assistance of the neighbors, would be to expose her husband's condition, and so she strove with all her little strength to raise him, and get him into the house, but all her efforts failed. In his present condition, Jasper would die—where, then, was her relief?—where should she receive assistance?

Fortunately, at this moment, one of the city watchmen came along. Mary at once appealed to him. He was a strong built, stalwart fellow, and at once took Jasper up in his arms, and carried him into the house, and up stairs to his bed. He then volunteered to call a physician, one fortunately living within a few doors of the house. In the meantime Mary applied all the restoratives she could think of. She wetted a towel with vinegar, and bathed his temples, and wiped the blood from a large wound in his forehead. His pulse was feeble, and his breathing indistinct and difficult. Ah, poor wife! this was about the crowning of all your misery!

The physician was soon in attendance. He examined the wound in Jasper's head, and pronounced it a slight fracture of the skull; but said that with proper treatment and careful attention he might recover, though it might be some weeks first. The wound was then dressed and restorative cordials administered, and the doctor left, saying that he would call again early in the morning.

For more than two hours did Jasper lie insensible, and when at last he opened his eyes and spoke, it became evident that his mind was wandering. And now came Mary's opportunity to show her devotion and attention. How she watched by her sick husband's side, administering with angelic patience to his every want—never for a moment tired of her duty. Notwithstanding the sorrow that she felt for Jasper's misfortune, she could but acknowledge to herself, that she had seldom enjoyed so much happiness before. He was now all her own. Each hour that she spent by his bedside, was a small life-time of bliss. She could read to him, talk to him, and sing to him. Even Jasper himself, when his reason was fully restored, acknowledged that he had never before known how great a treasure he possessed in his wife.

After the first week of his confinement, he began to mend rapidly. He had also ample time to reflect upon his errors, and upon his neglect of his wife; and what most particularly elicited his admiration, was her own silence upon the cause of his accident. He could not but appreciate such delicacy, and he inwardly determined that, when restored to health, he would refrain from his past habits of dissipation, and devote the remainder of his life in securing the happiness of his wife and child; and he was fully confirmed in this resolution when he learned from her lips, that during his illness, she had procured the means of subsistence by pawning a considerable portion of her jewelry, among which was a gold watch that was made a present of by her mother on her wedding day. In his expression of gratitude to her, he was extravagantly lavish, and protested again and again that nothing in future should ever make him remiss in his duties to his family. You can easily imagine with what boundless joy Mary received his assurances. It was like a new plighting of their faith—a second betrothal, as it were, in which all her earlier bliss was to be renewed. Heaven had at last smiled upon her. The clouds of despair and doubt were dispelled, and together they looked forward to many years of domestic enjoyment.

But did he keep the pledge thus given? As faithfully as ever pledge was kept. Woman's devotion had at last reclaimed him. What reproaches could not effect, was accomplished by love. The lesson was not lost upon either.—Jasper once more became the true and earnest man. He had absolved himself from a slavish and debasing habit. No more nights were spent at carousal among debauched inebriates; no more hard earned dollars went into the rum seller's till. He walked in peace and pleasantness and lived in prosperity; and to this day, there are no happier men and wives in the city than Jasper and Mary Hanley. Let all husbands thus appreciate their wives; and let all true women who have husbands to reform, commence the work in kindness, and follow it up in the true spirit of love, and "verily they shall have their reward."

VERMONT.—The division in this state among the friends of freedom have been happily removed by the forbearance, liberality and wisdom of the several parties. The state committee nominated by the mass convention, which met at Montpelier, have placed Judge Royce, the whig nominee for governor, upon their ticket, and he has accepted their nomination in a letter declaring the resolutions of the two conventions, so far as they properly go to constitute a political platform for the future, as substantially the same. So also the whigs have accepted as their own candidate Gen. Fletcher, the nominee of the Montpelier convention, for lieut. governor, and he has likewise signified his acceptance and his endorsement of the resolutions adopted at the whig state convention at Rutland. In his letter of acceptance he adds:

"The freemen of the north have too long been divided into hostile parties, expending that strength against each other which should have been unitedly employed in sustaining the cause of freedom, while at the south, where the interests of slavery are involved, all party lines are obliterated, and all are found in a solid column, with an unbroken front. Slavery forms a bond of union stronger than the ordinary ties of party; hence the power and success of the south. Divided we have fallen, divided we must ever fall, before the all-grasping and ever-encroaching slave power.

"The heart of the patriot is cheered in the present alarming condition of our country, by the prospect that those who love and value our free and happy institution will now ardently unite in their support."

In the recent conventions in Washington and Orange counties, the opponents of the Nebraska outrage have united in the nomination of county officers and of state senators. Similar unions have been made in Chittenden, Addison, Rutland, and other counties, and it is exceedingly doubtful whether a single advocate of the Nebraska bill or a friend of the administration will be chosen to the senate in the state.

Hon. James Meacham has been renominated to congress in the first congressional district; Hon. Justin S. Morril has been selected in the second, in the place of Mr. Tracy, who declines a re-election, and Mr. Sabine was re-nominated by the convention of the third district, which met at St. Albans on Tuesday.—New Hampshire Statesman,

GOVERNOR GRIMES.—The Galena Gazette has the following brief sketch of the life of the newly elected republican governor of Iowa.

Mr. Grimes is an old settler of Iowa, but is yet a young man. He is a native of New Hampshire and a graduate of Dartmouth College.—We believe he was at Burlington, Iowa, as early as 1836. In 1837 we recollect him as secretary to Gov. Dodge, in the negotiation of some Indian treaties. He is a lawyer but has retired from his profession with a competency, and gone largely into the business of stock raising and farming. His recent contest and its results has given him a national reputation, which he have nobly earned.

FOURTH OF JULY TOAST—

Here's to the man
That owned the land
That raised the corn,
That fed the goose,
That bore the quill,
That made the pen,
That wrote the Declaration of Independence.

The Daily Gazette.

JANESVILLE : : : : WISCONSIN.

MONDAY MORNING, AUG. 28, 1854.

SENATOR DOUGLAS.—This individual has at last ventured to show his infamous head in Chicago, and the Tribune devotes a column and a half of warm welcome to him, in which his treachery to northern interests is shown up in indignant but truthful phrase. Immediately after the passage of the Nebraska bill the very few friends he had left in Chicago proposed to have him visit that city, but so palpable were the indications that he would meet with insult and perhaps violence, should he then risk himself among his exasperated constituency, the advice of his friends and his own caution kept him away. Supposing the excitement had somewhat subsided, he now visits the city. The Tribune says:

He must have come by mail under one of his own franks, for the first place at which he was seen was the private room of our post-master, in solemn conclave with that dignitary and some dozen others of that clique. The result of their deliberations will doubtless be seen anon. His only public appearance was made in the saloon of "Young America"—the drinking hole—where his entrance of course created a marked sensation, and an increased demand for ponies and smashes.

His arrival here was distinguished by nothing save the supreme contempt and indifference manifested by the citizens of this place upon hearing of the fact. No attention whatever was paid him—he was met by no demonstration of honor or regard; he was harrassed by none of the annoying but yet eagerly sought honors of a public reception. He arrived in the city just as John Smith or William Brown would arrive here, and excited no more attention, excepting among a few office holders and expectants.—He has sunk very low—so low as to be beneath the gratuitous attentinns of a free and enlightened community.

"Stephen A. Douglas has no claim upon the courtesy or kindness of the people of Chicago, but he has the deepest reasons to fear their detestation, their abhorrence, their rebukes, and their vengeance. He has betrayed us; he has disregarded us; he has insulted us; he has disgraced us; he has injured us in our reputation, our fair fame, our honor, and our pecuniary interests. He has turned a deaf ear to the voice of our best and most worthy citizens, who remonstrated with him upon his iniquities, and he has reviled and insulted and blackguarded the united clergy of our city, as they petitioned congress to abstain from the violation of national honor and plighted good faith. He has stabbed us in our commercial prosperity, and has placed in jeopardy the lives of our mariners, by refusing to give his vote and influence for our River and Harbor bill, and in all his acts, has disregarded our interests, and studied how to oppress us. Indeed, had he been sent to congress by some other state, with the express and entire intention of injuring and oppressing Chicago and Illinois, he could not have done more to please his employers than he has done during the past winter and spring. It is no wonder that he feared to meet the reproachful faces of those whom he has betrayed!"

BEATEN, AFTER ALL.—The defeat of the Nebraska democracy of Iowa is one of the most significant as well as cheering signs of the times, and its value is enhanced by the character of the means adopted to avert it. Preceding the election a report was circulated that congress had passed the homestead bill, and extras and placards to that effect were sent all over the state, reminding every poor man and squatter that a democratic congress and president had conferred upon them the great boon of homes for little or nothing. This trick must have saved a good many votes, and yet the party was disastrously beaten. Nebraska was too odious to be saved even with the help of the homestead.

FEELING IN THE WEST.—The Grant County Herald has a call for a "mass convention of anti-Nebraska men," to be held in Lancaster, on the 6th of September. The call states the object to be "effectively organizing for the approaching elections, upon a basis of perfect union with the anti-Nebraska party in other parts of the state and United States." The Herald, which as our readers well know from the extracts we have republished from it, does its own thinking, and always has a reason, usually a good one, for its opinions, favors the movement, although it is not exactly what it would like. From peculiar causes we feared the action of the Madison convention of the 13th of July would not be very cordially received in the western counties of the state, but we find a heartier concurrence there than we expected, and this movement in Grant county is a good sign in the right quarter.

A SET-BACK.—A majority of the stockholders of the Jeffersonville railroad, which runs through Indiana, ordained a regulation for the road that no negro should ride over it without a passport certifying to his freedom—thus endeavoring to impose upon Indiana the discipline of the plantation. In this effort to "enlarge the area of freedom "and extend the "blessings" of their peculiar "institution," they have been very promptly checkmated by the courts of Indiana, which hold that the state is a free one, and every person is presumed to be free until he has been proved a slave.

☞ Mr. Densmore philosophises at some length over "reform," in order to get a chance to lecture the Janesville Gazette. When the weather cools off, we may look to our Kenosha neighbor a little. At present we can only say that many a good caurse has been injured by a "stationery" advocate.

If any young man wants to reach the "high top-gallant-mast of felicity," let him make a journey through Maine, seated on the back seat of a stage coach between two down east girls with only one piece of spruce gum for the three to chew. The editor of the Boston Herald has tried it.

BOOK ITEMS.

THE RUSSIAN OF THE BLACK SEA., &c. By LAURENCE OLIPHANT. Redfield, 110 and 112 Nassau street, New York.

In this pleasing little volume we have a book for the times, written by an observing man, well fitted for the post he assumes. Maps of different parts of the czar's dominions aid the reader and from Cronstadt around to Sebastopol you can travel in good company with our author. His book is very readable and cannot fail to be of use to those interested in European affairs. Mr. O. is a good humored companion, writes cleverly and philosophises about Russia, Turkey, Hungary and Europe generally, in a sensible manner. For sale at Sutherland's.

By the way, who has noticed the emblem on Redfield's title pages. A ring made of a serpent, the mythological symbol of eternity; and a lamp in the centre of the ring, the lamp of knowledge, shining forever. Happy symbol, say we.

A FINE GIFT.—The Messrs. Drake have our thanks for a very choice bouquet of flowers gathered from their nursery in this city. It contained some of the finest specimens of dahlias we have ever seen, and a most bountiful number. The Messrs. D. have a large variety of these flowers, and those who wish to see them in blossom, for the purpose of selecting hereafter, would do well to call at the nursery, where they may be seen.

TRACK RE-LAID.—The Madison Argus of the 24th says that the sink hole in the bed of the Milwaukee road, near that place, has been bridged and the track re-laid.

A NEW AMERICAN NOVEL.—The Buffalo Commercial says that G. P. R. James, the famous English writer of fiction, has written an American novel which the Harpers are to bring out. It is entitled "Ticonderoga," where the scene is laid. It is based on incidents occurring at the time of Gen. Abercrombie's expedition.

A NEW BANK.—The Madison Journal says that a new bank, to be called the Madison Bank, is talked about in that place. Mr. Lowe, the cashier, has deposited securities to the amount of $5,0000 with the comptroller, and gone last to procure the plates for the bills. It is expected the bank will open about the first of October next.

☞ Mr. Grimes, the recently elected governor of Iowa is a native of Deering, N. H.

EUGENIA.—A Paris letter to the New York Herald says:—"There is a scandal just now prevalent in England, that the same miserable tragedy is about to be acted in France which was played in Napoleon the Great's time, and which dishonored and broke the heart of the empress Josephine. Hereditary succession will be the cause of this cruel and unnatural act, if it be accomplished."

SINGULAR DISCLOSURE.—A surgeon in the United States army recently desired to know the most common cause of enlistment. By permission of the captain, in a company containing fifty five, the writer pledged never to disclose the name of officers or private, except as a physical or mataphysical fact; the true history was obtained of every man. On investigation, it appeared that nine tenths enlisted on account of some female difficulty, thirteen had changed their names, and forty-three were either drunk, or partially so, at the time of their enlistment.—Most of them were men of fine talents and had once been in elevated positions of life. Four had been lawyers, three doctors, and two ministers.

RIGHT.—The token of recognition has finally been discovered by a close observer. When a know nothing wishes to recognise another, he closes one eye, makes an 0 with his thumb and finger, and places his nose through it—which being interpreted reads:

"Eye——nose——0."
"I——knows—nothing."

A NORTH CAROLINA EDITOR.—The Milton Chronicle sums up the occupations of his neighbor of the Spectator as follows:

He is an officating minister of the gospel; a licensed attorney; a newspaper editor; agent for nearly all the insurance and assurance companies north of the Potomac; commissioner for thirty states, and an applicant for the same when Kansas and Nebraska shall have come in; bank director; chairman of the board of superintendents of common schools; temperance orator; agent and counsel for Wake Forest college; president and secretary of all the boards of the Baptist church, &c., and in addition, he owns more town property, has the neatest farm, the best fruits and the finest cattle of any man in the country.

We walked to church on Sunday morning, behind "the girl with the hole in her stocking." It was a very large one and we thought her heel must be cold. She probably knew of it Saturday, but remembered the Sabbath day to keep it hole-y.

Something New!!

MR. CHARLES AUSTIN, the celebrated Reed maker has just completed his new Organ Reed, upon which he has labored for the last five years and expended more than six thousand dollars. This reed is different from all others in its composition, being much larger and having more power. It is intended for Church and Parlor Organs as manufactured by Messrs. Austin & Co. These Organs have an upright (Organ) action and are of the shape of all Church Organs. The price will range from $175 to $300, depending upon the finish of the case. To churches in want of an instrument of that value we would say that they have more power than any common Organ costing, $500.

J. F. Pease & Co., Janesville Wis., are interested in the manufacture and sale of these instruments, and are the only persons through whom they can be had. They will have one or more for exhibition as early as Sept. 10, and after that a good assortment as soon as they can be manufactured.

New England Mutual Life Ins.,

Of Boston, Mass., Chartered in 1843,

Capital and accumulation, $650,000.

THIS Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudently and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting its business has been to provide perfect security under all conceivable circumstances, for the payment of its losses under its policies, and to return to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and strict economy is observed.

Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessments beyond his premium.

The directors are required to be pecuniarily interested in the company, and they give it their personal attention; and bonds of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties.

Insurance may be effected for the benefit of the wife, which is secured to her by law beyond the reach of a husband's creditors; and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

Highly Important to Farmers.

THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST,

THE MADISON MUTUAL,

LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently you will have no losses only your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and such like property. In this company all such property is rejected positively, by letting them alone.

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

The best of references given as to the responsibility of the company.

CHIP'S

CELEBRATED WORMWOOD CORDIAL.

THE subscriber in introducing this valuable temperance beverage, would respectfully call the attention of the public to the fact, that it is prepared from green Wormwood, an herb, that grows luxuriantly in the New England States, the medicinal qualities of which, for the regulation of the stomach and blood, cannot be equalled by anything ever used. It is a sure cure and preventive of Fever, Ague, Dyspepsia, Diarrhea, and all diseases arising from impurities of the blood or inaction of the stomach. Try it.

Where all the newest Fashions, to suit the young and old,
The richest and the cheapest goods in Janesville, will be sold.

My large and splendid stock of Lawns to show I'm always willing,
The price, as all the Ladies know, is from sixpence to a shilling.
I've Fine Black Silks from Italy, and colored ones that's rare,
Plaid, Grodenaps and Marcellaines, and Florences to spare.

And such a lot of Hosiery, I know cannot be beat,
And Gloves a great variety, they are so very neat:
Just now, when Spring is coming, and every thing looks bright,
For a glove to suit the season, the color should be light.

There are other Goods for Ladies, of which they ought to know,
That I keep in those blue boxes, and am always pleased to show,
Such as Blonde and Linen Edging, Cotten and Cambric, too,
Muslin and Cambric Needlework, and Gimps of every hue.

Those Undersleeves and Chimisettes I almost had forgot,
And Ladies' Needlework Collars, so beautifully wrought,
With Bishop Lawns and Cambrics, and Muslins fine and neat,
And Lace to make old ladies' Caps and trim them off complete.

And to parry Sol's "directer rays," I've Parasols to sell,
Of every price and color—they please the Ladies well—
And Umbrellas cheap for Gents, or so at least they say,
For lots of them get carried off, on every rainy day.

Such lots of Combs for the million, of every sort and kind,
To puff, or curl, or plait the hair, no better can you find;
And every kind of Buttons for dresses, coats and vests,
To sell by the gross or dozen—they are the very best.

And for Gentlemen and little Boys I have Fashionable Hats,
Silk, Beaver, Leghorn, Panama, and cloth and leather Caps;
And for infants, Hats with feathers and ribbons gay and bright,
And little Caps with tassels drab, orange, blue, and white.

I have stacks of Linen, of yellow, brown and white,
And every other kind, of Summer Goods that's right
To make up into coats and pantaloons and vests—
As large a stock as any, that ever was brought West.

They say long advertisements, are not the oftenest read,
And that most may be meant, as oft, when least is said,
In view of this, I'll close my bill, and here invite you all,
Whenever you come to Janesville, be sure and give me a call.

A PERIODICAL IN JANESVILLE!
"The Wisconsin Home,"

A Miscellaneous and Reformatory Journal, will be printed on the first and fifteenth of each month from and after the

by Messrs. BAKER & DOTY, publishers and proprietors of the Janesville Free Press; and edited by WM. M. DOTY, of the above named firm.

Each No. of "THE WISCONSIN HOME" will consist of EIGHT PAGES; making a sheet, in point of size, nearly the same as the "Scientific American." We shall reserve ONLY ONE COLUMN OF ADVERTISING for the purpose of publishing an occasional prospectus in addition to our own; leaving THIRTY-ONE COLUMNS OF READING MATTER.

One or two good stories will appear in each No. but none except those having a directly moral and beneficial tendency will be admitted into its columns. A short summary of passing events will be given; but no political grounds will be taken. As a better idea may be formed by seeing the article itself, the first No. will be furnished to all who may wish to examine it, FREE OF CHARGE.

The TERMS of "The Wisconsin Home" will be ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR, payable half yearly in advance. Subscription books now open.

☞ Orders solicited early, especially for sample numbers, in order that we may know how large an edition will supply the demand. Address post-paid,

"Sound the loud timbrel o'er land and o'er sea,"
WHEELOCK'S triumphant, and ever shall be.

THIS is the middle of the nineteenth century, the first half of which has produced more change and onward movement than any fifty years of our Christian Era.

The great controlling power of this age is its commerce—indeed, this may be truly called the commercial age.

It has been well said by an ancient writer that
"Man wants but little here below,"
and to supply those wants

WHEELOCK

Announces to every people and every tongue, to both sexes and all parties, to all factions of all gauges, that finding his old store entirely

TOO SMALL!

He has been compelled, in order to be able to supply the immense call for goods at his establishment, to

Double the capacity of his Store Rooms!

Having purchased this spring, for this market, to be sold this season,

$39,007 00 Worth of Goods

But who can expect to read in the brief space of one life all the articles that the

BOSTON STORE CONTAINS.

Indeed, history must fail to give the searcher of knowledge any accurate idea of his immense

STOCK OF SUMMER GOODS,
His inimitable selection of
Fancy Dress Goods!

He has over
10,000 Yards of Silk Bareges,

of every style and price, and it is with no great difficulty that the fair damsels of this fair valley can select,

FROM THE ONE THOUSAND PIECES,

Of all patterns and ranging in price from SIX CENTS Per Yard to Twenty-Eight Cents, such dresses as will add to their exquisite beauty, though it may as a general thing, be as difficult to add to that beauty as it is "to gild refined gold, paint the lily, or add perfume to the violet."

It must not be inferred that we offer only these and the many other articles for outer apparel, such as Chamelion and Foulard Silks, but all manner of

are on change, so that every one may be entirely accommodated with every article of female apparrel.—
Eved French red foxed Gaiters,
do do wolfed do
Ladies' Enameled Boots, Enameled sewed Congress Boots,
LADIES MOROCCO POLKAS,

And all the articles manufacutred of the best styles.—So that of this store, so far as articles which adorn La Belle sex are concerned, it may be truly said

"CUSTOM cannot stale the infinite variety."

While the Boston Store has made provision to protect the feet, it can also boast that it has all sorts of

GLOVES,

by which hands can be protected and retain
"The white wonder of fair Juliet's hand."

And in taking leave of those of whom it is no exaggeration to say they are
"Heaven's last, best gift to man,"
the Nonpareils of beauty, the Paragons of perfection, Mr. Wheelock assures his fair customers that his assistants and auxiliaries are those who unite great knowledge of the business, fine personal presence and affability of manner to a determination to discharge CONSCIENTIOUSLY their several and respective duties—that while they may have the proper desire to effect sales, they will never in imitation of many of our contemporaries attempt to accomplish that object by equivocation, misrepresentation, exaggeration, tergiversation, fabrication, or by direct lying.

And now to the wants of the

COARSE-HAND SEX.

Mr. Wheelock has every kind of material to make those articles of dress that give to man his individuality—

PANTALOONS,

PATENT LEATHER do., GIRAFFE do.,

HATS

That fit every head from the Websterian brow to the country politician's sconce, from the size of caput of him who is closely shorn after the Hibernian fashion to that of him who wears the well-pomatumed, ambrosialized, elongated Hyperion curls.

And to the speculator who buys to sell again,

The Boston Store

Can, at lower rates of usance than any other establishment west of the Alleghany mountains, furnish that class of exchanges so that riches will fill their pockets as water fills the sea. And to them we offer
DOMESTIC GLASSWARE. WORSTED,
Pocket Handkerchiefs, Inkstands, Cotton Yarn,
Ready-made Vests, Ground Pepper, Flannels,
Looking Glasses, Ready-Made Over Coats, Pants,
Raisins, Flat Irons and Cotton Batting, Lanterns,
Satchels, which the whining school-boy with shining morning face bears on his arm,
Chests, Norwegian Bandboxes and Hair Trunks,
Tea, Tobacco and Wicking.

In the
CROCKERY
Line may be found the BENNINGTON, the PARIAN and the LAVA Manufacture, Pitchers for milk or water, Tea Pots, Spittoons, Bowls for washing, for bread and milk, or sugar, Candlesticks, children's Toys and Flower Pots, MAINE LIQUOR LAW VOLUMES and Lager Beer Mugs.

And in fine, the proprietor of this establishment can with all confidence assure those who have been in the habit of trading at Janesville that, although they have
"Often seen corruption boil and bubble till
It o'errun the stew,"
they will find that the representations which shall be made to them by that proprietor or his clerks will not
"Stand like forfeits in a Barber shop,
More in mock than mark."

The ONE PRICE CASH SYSTEM, originally introduced into this community and strictly adhered to by this Establishment, has won for it a reputation far more valuable than the Stupendous Self-puffings, quarterly renewed, industriously circulated but universally discredited, which many modern shop keepers deem indispensable to success.

The system will of course be continued—admitting no variation or improvement—to the satisfaction undoubtedly of a large and most desirable class of customers, although at the sacrifice probably of the steady patronage of inveterate higglers and those who inherit the belief that all Salesmen will cheat them if possible.

Respectfully,
COOLEY & BABCOCK.

GREAT SALE OF
REAL ESTATE!
Rare Chance for Investment!
600 Village Lots!

THE undersigned offers at private sale SIX HUNDRED VILLAGE LOTS, situated in "Hickory Glen" and "Pixley & Shaw's" addition to Janesville, and located in the immediate vicinity of the Milwaukee and Mississippi railroad depot, in the city of Janesville.

The above property is but a short distance from the present business center of the thriving city of Janesville, and towards which, through the influence of the various railroads, in operation and projected, the business of the city is fast finding its way.

It is unnecessary to speak of the peculiar advantages of an investment in a property so centrally located in the largest inland city in the State of Wisconsin—a city so widely known for its thrift and business prosperity, possessing extensive water-power and surrounded by the best farming country in the world—as every one at all conversant with the progress of western cities will see at once these advantages.

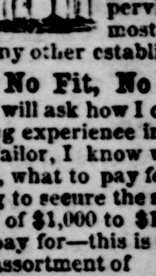

The above property is offered at very low rates, and on the most favorable terms, particularly to those who wish to make immediate improvements on purchases.

Also, 1,000 Acres of the Best Improved Farming Lands,

situated within a few miles of the city, which will be sold in lots to suit purchasers, from 40 to 320 acres.

For particulars enquire of the undersigned at "Pixley & Kimball's Hardware Store," or of THOMAS SHAW. B. F. PIXLEY.

WM. ADDY,
Merchant Tailor, & Dealer in Ready Made Clothing and Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods,

HAS received his Spring and Summer STOCK, consisting of the very Best and Fashionable CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, DOESKINS AND VESTINGS, of English, French and American manufacture.

This establishment is now, as usual, the favorite place of resort for the Fashionable, the Cutting Department still being under my own personal supervision, and warranted to suit the most difficult, twenty per cent lower than any other establishment in the State.

No Fit, No Sale. is my doctrine.

You will ask how I can do this; I will tell you: From my long experience in this business, and being a practical Tailor, I know when, where and how to buy my Goods, what to pay for them, and how to cut them, not having to secure the services of an eminent artist, at a salary of $1,000 to $1,500 a year, which the purchaser must pay for—this is the secret. I have got on hand a good assortment of

of my own manufacture, and warranted in every respect. Call and examine, before you buy elsewhere.

NEW GOODS!
$15,000 Worth of
BOOTS AND SHOES
JUST RECEIVED AT THE
Wisconsin Boot & Shoe Store.

I AM now receiving one of the largest and finest stocks of Boots and Shoes that I have ever before brought to Janesville, and what is finer than all the rest, I can sell them at lower prices than I have ever sold before, notwithstanding the great advance in the Eastern Market. My assortment of

Ladies Fine Shoes,

in particular, I have no hesitation in saying cannot be equaled in the State, both for style and durability, being all made to order, and in such a manner that I can warrant every article I sell, with the understanding at all times, that if they do not come up to the warrant, they shall be mended free of charge.

GENTLEMEN'S WEAR.

In this line I know beyond a doubt that I can show you a finer assortment and at better prices by twenty-five per cent. than can be found at any of the side shops or Dry Goods stores about town. I want it distinctly understood that I make the BOOT AND SHOE TRADE my WHOLE STUDY, and that I Buy More, Sell More and know more about the trade, than the whole pile of petty dealers put together. And I know also that I can make it an object for Every Farmer in Rock County, as well as every one that trades in Janesville to buy their Boots and Shoes of me for the more I sell the smaller profits I can sell at.

Manufacturing.

I want to say a few words to you in regard to my Manufacturing Department, to wit: That I am now engaged more extensively in the manufacturing business, and probably am selling more custom work than all the shops about town put together, simply for these reasons—that I use better Stock, being entirely of Eastern tannage, which every one knows is worth twenty-five per cent more than the common western tanned leather; and what is a better reason and of greater importance, I can

and at the same time sell you a better article than you can get at the shops, for this reason, which you must all see is a very palpable one, that in buying my stock east and in such large quantities, I of course save a very large per cent, and thereby can sell at lower prices and at the same time make my profits.

I want to state further that I have secured the services of MR. BUCKINGHAM, who has formerly been engaged in the manufacturing business on the west side of the River, and who is known by every one to be the best manufacturer in the city; and if we don't get you up a better article, both in regard to style and durability, we will forfeit our money and our reputation, and I pledge you my word that this is no small forfeit.

Leather and Findings.

I have just received over $3,000 worth of the very best brands of Eastern Sole & Upper Leather; also, a very large assortment of FRENCH and PHILADELPHIA KIP and FRENCH CALF SKINS, together with a full assortment of MOROCCOS of every kind, which I will sell at

Precisely Milwaukee and Chicago Prices.

I have constantly on hand, also, a large assortment of all kings of FINDINGS, LASTS, BOOT TREES, CRIMPS, etc., etc., all of which will be sold at the same rates.

I request the attention of manufacturers in town as well as in the country to my stock, as I think I can make it an object for you to buy of me. At least, I can sell you a much superior article to that which you get of the pedlers.

TO THE LADIES,

I would say that I am under very great obligation for the partiality you have shown me, in always procuring your understandings from me, and I now publicly promise and swear that I will make every one of you who may be entitled to the same a present of a handsome pair of CACKS, when I shall have closed up my shoe-selling career. I would say further, that I am prepared to get up to order any style of work you wish, at low rates. Yours respectfully,

J. B. DIMOCK, Proprietor,
T. H. BUCKINGHAM, Foreman.

THE POWER OF LOVE.

[Concluded.]

As Jasper said this, he rose from his chair, and staggered towards the door. He paused a moment, as he held the nob in his hand—perhaps with the thought that his wife might speak a kind word to him, or show some alarm at the idea of his leaving her. Busy, terrible thoughts were running through his head. The room seemed to turn round and round. He opened the door and passed into the hall; but no voice came from Mary. She sat silent as stone, but with a heart bursting with grief. She dearly loved her husband, and longed to speak the kind word that would turn him back, but pride and stubbornness forbade. The sound of his unsteady steps, as he passed along the hall to the front door, fell forebodingly upon her ear, and when that door was closed behind him, and Jasper stood irresolute without the house, the fountains of her grief were opened, and she wept and sobbed most piteously.

It was a sad, sad sight, that young wife with all her hopes blighted, the chosen of her heart given up to the most debasing of all sins, her young child deprived of its protector, with immediate ruin and starvation staring her in the face, with no solitary hope in the future, and all the agony of the present. The memories of happier days rose before her—the innocent days of her girlhood, surrounded with gay companions, and blessed with a mother's love. All these she had sacrificed for the man she loved. How was she repaid? What had she done to deserve so bitter a fate? What dreadful sin had she committed to be thus punished? How unequal seems the reward and chastisements of life. Mary thus reflected and almost arraigned the justice and benificence of God. Jasper had left the house in anger. What might happen to him in his present condition? Where would he go? Such were the wife's fears, though she hoped that he might return as soon as his anger had a little subsided. She was sorry that she had spoken so harshly to him. That was no way to redeem him; but had she not tried kind words till her patience was exhausted? And what woman would not get angry with a drunken husband? Such were this poor ill-treated wife's emotions, and who could blame her?

All at once she thought that she would go to the door to see if Jasper had really gone. She rose from her chair for that purpose, and half way crossed the room. But pride rebelled again. She would not show him that she was at all worried about him. It was all he wanted, and he should not be gratified; so she returned once more to her chair, where she wept as though her heart was breaking, and like enough it was for all that, for she was indeed most miserable.

When Jasper had closed the door behind him, and stood out once more in the open night air he was undecided what to do, or where to go. Maddened as he was by the reproaches of his wife, self-condemned by an accusing conscience, sick and weary with liquor and excitement, it is no wonder that his first thought was suicide. No wonder that he felt unworthy to live; strange that he did not think himself unfit to die. Such is the direful effects of the intoxicating bowl—such the "deep damnation" with which it is drugged. Far more dangerous than the dicer's box, it kills both body and soul, and its train is made up of disease, imbecility, lunacy, poverty, crime, the prison and the gallows! There is no innocence in it; it blights wherever it falls; it stains all it touches. It makes desolate the family hearthstone. It pits man against his brother; it raises the hand of the child against the parent; even the innocent are made sufferers thereby; and the loud wail of its myriads of victims rises up from every quarter of the civilized world. It is one of the curses invented by civilization, and to that only does it owe its birth; for the African in his native state is uncontaminated with it; and the vilest animal that exists turns away from it with disgust.

Jasper, when he had closed the door, paused for some minutes, undetermined what to do.—We have said that his first thought was suicide.

"I am not fit to live!" he exclaimed. I know I am wrong, and yet I cannot help it—I cannot help it, and I might as well die at once, as live on in disgrace. Somebody will take care of Mary. She will go back to her mother; and she will be much happier and far better off without me than with me. I cannot stand her reproaches—I will not. As for any future, it cannot be worse for me than the present, at any rate. Yes, I may as well die!"

Though Jasper talked thus about suicide, we do not suppose he had any more distinct idea of it than of anything else that might happen to be rambling through his head. The fumes of the liquor were still upon him. He was not more than half sober and his legs were still so weak under him, that they carried him with a wavering gait, and his head buzzed, buzzed like a nest of bees. But he meant to punish his wife for talking so angrily with him. At one moment he had half a mind to turn back, and go to bed; but the devil had the better of him, and mustering up his resolution, he buttoned his coat about him, and proceeded to descend into the street. The first step he made, however, was a false one. His knees bent under him. He made a vain and desperate attempt to catch at the iron railing of the stoop, but missed his hold, and pitched forward into the street, striking head first upon the side walk, and cutting and bruising his face in a terrible manner, so as to render him completely insensible.

Now it so happened that at this moment Mary thought that she would go to the door and look out; not that she doubted but what Jasper had gone, still at the same time half inclined to believe that he might be still in sight, and within call.

So she opened the door, and peered forth into the cold night air. How still and silent everything around. She looked up the street, and down the street; but the object which her eyes sought met them not. She drew a heavy sigh, as her heart felt a pang greater than she had known before, and she was about to close the door, when her ears were startled by a low moan, and then, for the first time, casting her eyes down upon the side walk, they rested upon the form of her husband.

With a cry of terror, Mary was in an instant stooping by the side of Jasper, urging him with all the dearest language of her heart, to look up, to speak, to even rise; but alas! it was beyond his power. Vainly she tried to lift him, but her strength was not equal to the task. Oh, how bitterly she then repented all the unkind words she had said to him—how every reproach smote upon her heart. She forgot all his errors—she became blind to his numerous faults, and Jasper was once more her best beloved. Every word of endearment she could think of, she poured forth with a voluble tongue, but they all fell ineffectually upon his ear. What should she do? Jasper would die, and there were none to help her. She was ashamed to cry aloud for aid. To claim the assistance of the neighbors, would be to expose her husband's condition, and so she strove with all her little strength to raise him, and get him into the house, but all her efforts failed. In his present condition, Jasper would die—where, then, was her relief?—where should she receive assistance?

Fortunately, at this moment, one of the city watchmen came along. Mary at once appealed to him. He was a strong built, stalwart fellow, and at once took Jasper up in his arms, and carried him into the house, and up stairs to his bed. He then volunteered to call a physician, one fortunately living within a few doors of the house. In the meantime Mary applied all the restoratives she could think of. She wetted a towel with vinegar, and bathed his temples, and wiped the blood from a large wound in his forehead. His pulse was feeble, and his breathing indistinct and difficult. Ah, poor wife! this was about the crowning of all your misery!

The physician was soon in attendance. He examined the wound in Jasper's head, and pronounced it a slight fracture of the skull; but said that with proper treatment and careful attention he might recover, though it might be some weeks first. The wound was then dressed and restorative cordials administered, and the doctor left, saying that he would call again early in the morning.

For more than two hours did Jasper lie insensible, and when at last he opened his eyes and spoke, it became evident that his mind was wandering. And now came Mary's opportunity to show her devotion and attention. How she watched by her sick husband's side, administering with angelic patience to his every want—never for a moment tired of her duty. Notwithstanding the sorrow that she felt for Jasper's misfortune, she could but acknowledge to herself, that she had seldom enjoyed so much happiness before. He was now all her own. Each hour that she spent by his bedside, was a small life-time of bliss. She could read to him, talk to him, and sing to him. Even Jasper himself, when his reason was fully restored, acknowledged that he had never before known how great a treasure he possessed in his wife.

After the first week of his confinement, he began to mend rapidly. He had also ample time to reflect upon his errors, and upon his neglect of his wife; and what most particularly elicited his admiration, was her own silence upon the cause of his accident. He could not but appreciate such delicacy, and he inwardly determined that, when restored to health, he would refrain from his past habits of dissipation, and devote the remainder of his life in securing the happiness of his wife and child; and he was fully confirmed in this resolution when he learned from her lips, that during his illness, she had procured the means of subsistence by pawning a considerable portion of her jewelry, among which was a gold watch that was made a present of by her mother on her wedding day. In his expression of gratitude to her, he was extravagantly lavish, and protested again and again that nothing in future should ever make him remiss in his duties to his family. You can easily imagine with what boundless joy Mary received his assurances. It was like a new plighting of their faith—a second betrothal, as it were, in which all her earlier bliss was to be renewed. Heaven had at last smiled upon her. The clouds of despair and doubt were dispelled, and together they looked forward to many years of domestic enjoyment.

But did he keep the pledge thus given? As faithfully as ever pledge was kept. Woman's devotion had at last reclaimed him. What reproaches could not effect, was accomplished by love. The lesson was not lost upon either.—Jasper once more became the true and earnest man. He had absolved himself from a slavish and debasing habit. No more nights were spent at carousal among debauched inebriates; no more hard earned dollars went into the rum seller's till. He walked in peace and pleasantness and lived in prosperity; and to this day, there are no happier men and wives in the city than Jasper and Mary Hanley. Let all husbands thus appreciate their wives; and let all true women who have husbands to reform, commence the work in kindness, and follow it up in the true spirit of love, and "verily they shall have their reward."

VERMONT.—The division in this state among the friends of freedom have been happily removed by the forbearance, liberality and wisdom of the several parties. The state committee nominated by the mass convention, which met at Montpelier, have placed Judge Royce, the whig nominee for governor, upon their ticket, and he has accepted their nomination in a letter declaring the resolutions of the two conventions, so far as they properly go to constitute a political platform for the future, as substantially the same. So also the whigs have accepted as their own candidate Gen. Fletcher, the nominee of the Montpelier convention, for lieut. governor, and he has likewise signified his acceptance and his endorsement of the resolutions adopted at the whig state convention at Rutland. In his letter of acceptance he adds:

"The freemen of the north have too long been divided into hostile parties, expending that strength against each other which should have been unitedly employed in sustaining the cause of freedom, while at the south, where the interests of slavery are involved, all party lines are obliterated, and all are found in a solid column, with an unbroken front. Slavery forms a bond of union stronger than the ordinary ties of party; hence the power and success of the south. Divided we have fallen, divided we must ever fall, before the all-grasping and ever-encroaching slave power.

"The heart of the patriot is cheered in the present alarming condition of our country, by the prospect that those who love and value our free and happy institution will now ardently unite in their support."

In the recent conventions in Washington and Orange counties, the opponents of the Nebraska outrage have united in the nomination of county officers and of state senators. Similar unions have been made in Chittenden, Addison, Rutland, and other counties, and it is exceedingly doubtful whether a single advocate of the Nebraska bill or a friend of the administration will be chosen to the senate in the state.

Hon. James Meacham has been renominated to congress in the first congressional district; Hon. Justin S. Morril has been selected in the second, in the place of Mr. Tracy, who declines a re-election, and Mr. Sabine was re-nominated by the convention of the third district, which met at St. Albans on Tuesday.—New Hampshire Statesman,

GOVERNOR GRIMES.—The Galena Gazette has the following brief sketch of the life of the newly elected republican governor of Iowa.

Mr. Grimes is an old settler of Iowa, but is yet a young man. He is a native of New Hampshire and a graduate of Dartmouth College.—We believe he was at Burlington, Iowa, as early as 1836. In 1837 we recollect him as secretary to Gov. Dodge, in the negotiation of some Indian treaties. He is a lawyer but has retired from his profession with a competency, and gone largely into the business of stock raising and farming. His recent contest and its results has given him a national reputation, which he have nobly earned..

FOURTH OF JULY TOAST—

That owned the land
That raised the corn,
That fed the goose,
That bore the quill,
That made the pen,
That wrote the Declaration of Independence.

The Daily Gazette.

JANESVILLE : : : : WISCONSIN.

MONDAY MORNING, AUG. 28, 1854.

SENATOR DOUGLAS.—This individual has at last ventured to show his infamous head in Chicago, and the Tribune devotes a column and a half of warm welcome to him, in which his treachery to northern interests is shown up in indignant but truthful phrase. Immediately after the passage of the Nebraska bill the very few friends he had left in Chicago proposed to have him visit that city, but so palpable were the indications that he would meet with insult and perhaps violence, should he then risk himself among his exasperated constituency, the advice of his friends and his own caution kept him away. Supposing the excitement had somewhat subsided, he now visits the city. The Tribune says:

He must have come by mail under one of his own franks, for the first place at which he was seen was the private room of our post-master, in solemn conclave with that dignitary and some dozen others of that clique. The result of their deliberations will doubtless be seen anon. His only public appearance was made in the saloon of "Young America"—the drinking hole—where his entrance of course created a marked sensation, and an increased demand for ponies and smashes.

His arrival here was distinguished by nothing save the supreme contempt and indifference manifested by the citizens of this place upon hearing of the fact. No attention whatever was paid him—he was met by no demonstration of honor or regard; he was harrassed by none of the annoying but yet eagerly sought honors of a public reception. He arrived in the city just as John Smith or William Brown would arrive here, and excited no more attention, excepting among a few office holders and expectants.—He has sunk very low—so low as to be beneath the gratuitous attentions of a free and enlightened community.

"Stephen A. Douglas has no claim upon the courtesy or kindness of the people of Chicago, but he has the deepest reasons to fear their detestation, their abhorrence, their rebukes, and their vengeance. He has betrayed us; he has disregarded us; he has insulted us; he has disgraced us; he has injured us in our reputation, our fair fame, our honor, and our pecuniary interests. He has turned a deaf ear to the voice of our best and most worthy citizens, who remonstrated with him upon his iniquities, and he has reviled and insulted and blackguarded the united clergy of our city, as they petitioned congress to abstain from the violation of national honor and plighted good faith. He has stabbed us in our commercial prosperity, and has placed in jeopardy the lives of our mariners, by refusing to give his vote and influence for our River and Harbor bill, and in all his acts, has disregarded our interests, and studied how to oppress us. Indeed, had he been sent to congress by some other state, with the express and entire intention of injuring and oppressing Chicago and Illinois, he could not have done more to please his employers than he has done during the past winter and spring. It is no wonder that he feared to meet the reproachful faces of those whom he has betrayed!"

BEATEN, AFTER ALL.—The defeat of the Nebraska democracy of Iowa is one of the most significant as well as cheering signs of the times, and its value is enhanced by the character of the means adopted to avert it. Preceding the election a report was circulated that congress had passed the homestead bill, and extras and placards to that effect were sent all over the state, reminding every poor man and squatter that a democratic congress and president had conferred upon them the great boon of homes for little or nothing. This trick must have saved a good many votes, and yet the party was disastrously beaten. Nebraska was too odious to be saved even with the help of the homestead.

FEELING IN THE WEST.—The Grant County Herald has a call for a "mass convention of anti-Nebraska men," to be held in Lancaster, on the 6th of September. The call states the object to be "effectively organizing for the approaching elections, upon a basis of perfect union with the anti-Nebraska party in other parts of the state and United States." The Herald, which as our readers well know from the extracts we have republished from it, does its own thinking, and always has a reason, usually a good one, for its opinions, favors the movement, although it is not exactly what it would like. From peculiar causes we feared the action of the Madison convention of the 13th of July would not be very cordially received in the western counties of the state, but we find a heartier concurrence there than we expected, and this movement in Grant county is a good sign in the right quarter.

A SET-BACK.—A majority of the stockholders of the Jeffersonville railroad, which runs through Indiana, ordained a regulation for the road that no negro should ride over it without a passport certifying to his freedom—thus endeavoring to impose upon Indiana the discipline of the plantation. In this effort to "enlarge the area of freedom" and extend the "blessings" of their peculiar "institution," they have been very promptly checkmated by the courts of Indiana, which hold that the state is a free one, and every person is presumed to be free until he has been proved a slave.

☞ Mr. Densmore philosophises at some length over "reform," in order to get a chance to lecture the Janesville Gazette. When the weather cools off, we may look to our Kenosha neighbor a little. At present we can only say that many a good course has been injured by a "stationery" advocate.

If any young man wants to reach the "high top-gallant-mast of felicity," let him make a journey through Maine, seated on the back seat of a stage coach between two down east girls with only one piece of spruce gum for the three to chew. The editor of the Boston Herald has tried it.

BOOK ITEMS.

THE RUSSIAN OF THE BLACK SEA., &c. By LAURENCE OLIPHANT. Redfield, 110 and 112 Nassau street, New York.

In this pleasing little volume we have a book for the times, written by an observing man, well fitted for the post he assumes. Maps of different parts of the czar's dominions aid the reader and from Cronstadt around to Sebastopol you can travel in good company with our author. His book is very readable and cannot fail to be of use to those interested in European affairs. Mr. O. is a good humored companion, writes cleverly and philosophises about Russia, Turkey, Hungary and Europe generally, in a sensible manner. For sale at Sutherland's.

By the way, who has noticed the emblem on Redfield's title pages. A ring made of a serpent, the mythological symbol of eternity; and a lamp in the centre of the ring, the lamp of knowledge, shining forever. Happy symbol, say we.

A FINE GIFT.—The Messrs. Drake have our thanks for a very choice bouquet of flowers gathered from their nursery in this city. It contained some of the finest specimens of dahlias we have ever seen, and a most bountiful number. The Messrs. D. have a large variety of these flowers, and those who wish to see them in blossom, for the purpose of selecting hereafter, would do well to call at the nursery, where they may be seen.

TRACK RE-LAID.—The Madison Argus of the 24th says that the sink hole in the bed of the Milwaukee road, near that place, has been bridged and the track re-laid.

A NEW AMERICAN NOVEL.—The Buffalo Commercial says that G. P. R. James, the famous English writer of fiction, has written an American novel which the Harpers are to bring out. It is entitled "Ticonderoga," where the scene is laid. It is based on incidents occurring at the time of Gen. Abercrombie's expedition.

A NEW BANK.—The Madison Journal says that a new bank, to be called the Madison Bank, is talked about in that place. Mr. Lowe, the cashier, has deposited securities to the amount of $5,0000 with the comptroller, and gone last to procure the plates for the bills. It is expected the bank will open about the first of October next.

☞ Mr. Grimes, the recently elected governor of Iowa is a native of Deering, N. H.

EUGENIA.—A Paris letter to the New York Herald says:—"There is a scandal just now prevalent in England, that the same miserable tragedy is about to be acted in France which was played in Napoleon the Great's time, and which dishonored and broke the heart of the empress Josephine. Hereditary succession will be the cause of this cruel and unnatural act, if it be accomplished."

SINGULAR DISCLOSURE.—A surgeon in the United States army recently desired to know the most common cause of enlistment. By permission of the captain, in a company containing fifty five, the writer pledged never to disclose the name of officers or private, except as a physical or mataphysical fact; the true history was obtained of every man. On investigation, it appeared that nine tenths enlisted on account of some female difficulty, thirteen had changed their names, and forty-three were either drunk, or partially so, at the time of their enlistment.—Most of them were men of fine talents and had once been in elevated positions of life. Four had been lawyers, three doctors, and two ministers.

RIGHT.—The token of recognition has finally been discovered by a close observer. When a know nothing wishes to recognise another, he closes one eye, makes an 0 with his thumb and finger, and places his nose through it—which being interpreted reads:

"Eye——nose——0."
"I——knows—nothing."

A NORTH CAROLINA EDITOR.—The Milton Chronicle sums up the occupations of his neighbor of the Spectator as follows:

He is an officating minister of the gospel; a licensed attorney; a newspaper editor; agent for nearly all the insurance and assurance companies north of the Potomac; commissioner for thirty states, and an applicant for the same when Kansas and Nebraska shall have come in; bank director; chairman of the board of superintendents of common schools; temperance orator; agent and counsel for Wake Forest college; president and secretary of all the boards of the Baptist church, &c., and in addition, he owns more town property, has the neatest farm, the best fruits and the finest cattle of any man in the country.

We walked to church on Sunday morning, behind "the girl with the hole in her stocking." It was a very large one and we thought her heel must be cold. She probably knew of it Saturday, but remembered the Sabbath day to keep it hole-y.

Something New!!

MR. CHARLES AUSTIN, the celebrated Reed maker has just completed his new Organ Reed, upon which he has labored for the last five years and expended more than six thousand dollars. This reed is different from all others in its composition, being much larger and having more power. It is intended for Church and Parlor Organs as manufactured by Messrs. Austin & Co. These Organs have an upright (Organ) action and are of the shape of all Church Organs. The price will range from $175 to $300, depending upon the finish of the case. To churches in want of an instrument of that value we would say that they have more power than any common Organ costing, $500.

J. F. Pease & Co., Janesville Wis., are interested in the manufacture and sale of these instruments, and are the only persons through whom they can be had. They will have one or more for exhibition as early as Sept. 10, and after that a good assortment as soon as they can be manufactured.

KIER'S ROCK OIL,

FROM a Well 400 feet deep, Near Pittsburgh, Pa., is offered to the public as a Natural Medicine of no common value. It is a different thing from the old Kentucky or American Oil, as this is used INTERNALLY as well as externally. As a local remedy in Paralysis, Piles, Rheumatism, Deafness, Loss of Sight, Burns, &c. —also, as a valuable Internal Remedy for Piles, Ague, Scrofula, Coughs, Diarrhœa, Erysipelas, old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Female Diseases, Worms, Bladder and Kidneys, Bronchitis, Pains &c. &c., it invites the investigating Physician, as well as the suffering patient, to become acquainted with its merits.

Discovered in 1849, it has within 2 or 3 years, made multitudes of cures, and multitudes of friends—and as soon as tried the Sales not only increase but hold out. Testimony to its great merit is constantly accumulating in the hands of the proprietor by certificates, letters, and in other ways.

IT DOCTORS THE WHOLE MAN—flesh and blood—skin and bones—from head to foot—how it acts upon the system—upon diseases of different manifestations, we cannot fully tell. While it is both cathartic and astringent, it is Alterative—and mind you, a REGULATOR. A leading principle in it is Naptha. When you once have it in the family you will not be without it.

Full as the world is of Patent Medicines—it is thought not best to suppress this, the work of NATURE—to make room for Human inventions. Price 50 cents per bottle. It can be had of wholesalers at the large cities and towns in the West at Proprietor's prices.

HAVE WE AGUE AMONG US?—A tea spoonful every three hours in the absence of the fever will cure you of Ague or Diarrhœa. ☞ Physicians, Druggists, and all friends of the afflicted, will do well to recommend this Oil for PROLAPSUS UTERI, and good will be done—take the usual dose 2 or 3 times a day, and bathe the lower part of the back with it. Have you SCROFULA? The Petroleum will eradicate it, root and branch, at little cost or inconvenience. Get circulars of directions for adults and children, gratis of the agents. A trial is all we ask. Mind and get the right kind—it is of a beautiful reddish color and clear. Try it for Piles.

MR. J. E. POWERS, lately from Troy, (N. Y.) respectfully informs the Ladies and Gentlemen of this place and vicinity that he hasmade a permanent location in Janesville, and has taken rooms over EHLE'S JEWELRY STORE, where he is prepared to take

Daguerreotype Likenesses,

Either single or in groups, not to be surpassed in Wisconsin. Miniatures taken in as good style as the Art can produce, having all the improved chemicals of the age, which, together with the advantages of a superior light, enable him to give a clear, bold and life-like picture.

Miniatures taken in all weathers equally well, and warranted not to fade in the least, from 75 cents to $1. Pictures taken over for 50 cents.

Lockets and fancy cases of all styles furnished to order, and also miniatures in Pin and Bracelets.

Miniatures of sick or diseased persons taken at their residences if required.

Pictures of Children of any age correctly taken at very low rates.

His Room will be open from 7 A. M. to 5. P. M., and he invites all those that wish to see GOOD Pictures, to whether they wish likenesses or not.

Call and Examine his Specimens,

Among these specimens are Miniatures of Henry Clay, John P. Hale, Jenny Lind and General Tom Thumb.

Instructions given in the art on reasonable terms.

1000 Dollars Reward,

WILL be given to any person—Physician or otherwise—who will perform a cure as quickly and permanently, by any means whatever, of any of the following diseases, as can be done by the use of

PULVERMACHER'S

Hydro-Electric Voltaic Chains.

Rheumatism,	Nervous Headache,
Painful and Swelled Joints,	Palpitation of the Heart,
Sciataca,	General Debility,
Paralysis,	Female Diseases,
Spinal Disease,	Neuralgia of the Face,
Deafness, Blindness,	Rheumatic Pains of the
Dyspepsia, Indigestion,	Chest

ALL NERVOUS DISEASES

Are almost instantly removed by the simple application of the Electric Chains, which are constructed so as to be worn next to the skin, producing a constant current of uninterrupted Electro-Magnetism, which within the last few years has been discovered to possess STRANGE and WONDERFUL POWER, in the INSTANT RELIEF and PERMANENT CURE of nervous diseases.

HISTORY.

Pulvermachers' Chain are presented to the public, as the most scientific and convenient mode of applying this powerful agent. They have been secured by patent in France, (where they were invented) England, Germany, Austria, Belgium, and one year since introduced into the United States, and also secured by patent. They are used in every Hospital in the State of New York, and highly recommended by professors Valentine Mott, Van Buren, Post, Carnochan, of that city, who daily make use of them in their practice.

THE WORLD IS CHALLENGED

to produce so many well authenticated certificates of cure, not only from intelligent patients, but from scientific Physicians. The sale now in New York is perfectly ASTONISHING, and thousands who visit the Crystal Palace where they are on exhibition, seldom fail to obtain a chain before they leave the city.

Thanks be to the common sense of the people who are beginning to become disgusted with the practice of making a Drug Shop of their stomach—swallowing bottle after bottle of sickening, disgusting trash, having no more effect in even relieving, much less curing, the disease for which they are recommended, than a Poor Man's Plaster applied to the top of the head would have in curing an infant of worms.

All these great and remarkable discoveries, by which every ill "which flesh is heir to" is eradicated from the earth—strange as it may seem—are made by men who are too ignorant to obtain a living by any other mode, and their knowledge of disease, its proper mode of cure, its cause, is just as extensive as an Arab's is of the mechanism of a steam engine. No intelligent person will deny the truth of this, and no Physician dare risk his reputation as an honest man, and declare that nervous diseases are not more frequently increased in severity than relieved, by the old antiquated way of giving medicine into the stomach. If people will only become sensible and think for themselves, and believe that physicians practice upon their credulity more than they have any idea of, pay strict attention to temperance in all things, (which means very much,) make free use of pure cold water, internally and externally, with an occasional dash of soap, sleep in freely ventilated rooms, retire early and rise early, be happy and cheerful, employ their physicians to tell them "they require no physic;"—by so doing health and happiness will increase, bottled molasses and water be at a discount, and its famous discoverers be consigned to their legitimate stations.

The Hydro-Electric chains are now for the first time offered to the people of Nashua, as being a better, quicker, and safer mode of curing all nervous diseases, than any other method or means hitherto discovered. They can be used by either a grown person or a child, are always ready for use, and with little care will last for years.

CAUTION.

Ladies who are enciente, are requested not to wear them, for by long use, miscarriage is apt to be produced.

Price of Chains, $3 to $5, and can be sent by mail to any part of the country, together with a pamphlet of 36 pages, containing the modes of use, certificates of cure, &c.

IMMENSE DAILY ARRIVALS!

Cash System Triumphant!

GOODS CHEAPER THAN EVER BEFORE KNOWN.

JACKMAN, PARKER & CO. Are now receiving at their Store, corner of Main and Milwaukee streets, the most extensive assortment of Merchandise ever before received at any establishment in the State, consisting in part of a very general assortment of

STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS, READY MADE CLOTHING, HATS AND CAPS, BONNETS, BOOTS AND SHOES, GROCERIES, CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE, DRIED FRUIT, SALT, WATER LIME, GRIND STONES, &c.,

and every thing in the shape of Merchandise that is wanted in any town or city. In the

DRY GOODS

Department our stock is at present the largest, richest and most magnificent ever before offered in Janesville. Among our DRESS GOODS may be found the most magnificent stock of Plain Black and Watered Gro de Rhine Silks, and Plain, Plaid and Striped Fancy Silks, ever offered for sale in Janesville.

The attention of the ladies is particularly directed to our very extensive assortment of

PLAIN BLACK SILKS.

We have some better Goods than can be found at any other store in the city, and our prices are as low as you will have to pay for an inferior article at other stores; also a very extensive assortment of All Wool and Silk and Wool, Plain and Figured Bareges, Barege Delaines, &c.

Among our stock of low priced Dress Goods may be found

3,000 yds. Fine French Lawns at 5½ c., sold at other stores at 1s. per yard.
4,000 do. 9c., sold at other stores 1s. 3d. per yard.
4,000 do. 1s. sold at other stores 1s. 6d. do.
2,000 do. Barege Delaines 1s, sold at other stores 2s. per yard.
10,000 do. Madder Prints, 6¼c, sold at other stores 10c per yard.

SHAWLS!

In this department we have a very extensive assortment of White Crape, Square and long, Plain and Figured Cashmere, Black and Colored Silk, Barege, and everything in the Shawl line, from the lowest price to the best article in the market.

EMBROIDERY GOODS.

We probably have a better assortment of these Goods than all the rest of the stores in Janesville put together, consisting of Flowing Sleeves, Habits, Chemisetts, Collars &c., of the most fashionable goods in market, which will be sold at LOWER PRICES than ever before sold in this State. The attention of the Ladies is particularly directed to these Goods.

PARASOLS.

We have now on sale 1600 Parasols Our immense stock in these goods compels us to say that we will undersell any establishment in this City, at least 25 per cent.

4000 Yards

Fine, Fast Colored French Ginghams this day received, that we are selling at 1s. per yard. They cannot be matched in town less than 1s. 6d. Call soon, if you want to save 50 per cent in Ginghams, as they are going fast

BONNET AND BONNET RIBBONS, Cheaper than the Cheapest.

READY-MADE CLOTHING.

Our Clothing Rooms are well stocked with the best made and most fashionable clothing in the market.—We have the most extensive assortment of all kinds of clothing in Rock county, and we shall keep up the reputation we have already gained, of underselling any of our neighbors. Among our stock may be found 1,000 Linen Coats, warranted linen, at 75 cents each.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

We have now in store over 20,000 pairs of BOOTS AND SHOES, of all descriptions, which the people are requested to take a look at. When they examine the goods and hear the prices, we know they will purchase.

CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE.

In these goods we have a very extensive stock of the best ware in the market. Persons wanting full sets of crockery, will do well to give us a call, as they will save at least 25 per cent, and get the very best of ware

GROCERIES.

As usual our stock of these goods is very large and complete, and the choicest kind of goods. We have a few more chests of that splendid YOUNG HYSON TEA, that we have been selling so much of. Good Sugar for 4½c.

In conclusion, we would say that we find the Cash System the only one that will win. We buy our goods wholly for cash, and shall sell them for the same, and no other way; and consequently those that buy and sell on a credit of a year, eighteen months or two years, as the case may be, cannot sell goods at our prices.—THAT'S SO! For the proof of our assertion, call and examine our goods and prices.

EMPIRE CASH STORE!

The Cheapest Store in the County.

THE LARGEST, Most General and Best Selected Stock of MERCHANDISE ever introduced to the people of Rock and the adjoining counties is now received at the EMPIRE CASH STORE. A Stock larger than any Two Stores in Janesville to be Sold for CASH, at prices that all can see are at least 25 per cent lower than the PRETNDED CASH STORES SELL FOR.

We mean what we say exactly: We can sell you

MORE GOODS

FOR THE

Least amount of Money

Than any other Store in the county. For this reason we sell more Goods than any two Stores in Janesville, and this year we intend to sell more than any three, consequently, we can sell just one-third cheaper, as our expenses are no more by selling so much than they would be did we not sell any more than our neighbors.

Reduce The Price and Increase the Speed

Is the order of the day; and in order to do so, we have purchased this spring larger than ever, and intend to sell at prices to astonish everybody.

We buy Goods to SELL, and intend everybody shall understand this by our prices. We have purchased every thing by the Cord in the way of Merchandise. Our Stock embraces every thing in the Goods line, kept in such a store as ours only, commencing with

DRY GOODS, GROCERIES,

CROCKERY, HARDWARE in connection with a general STOVE TRADE.

READY-MADE CLOTHING,

BOOTS and SHOES, HATS, BONNETS, RIBBONS and CAPS, &c. &c.,

To enumerate which would be impossible, (any one seeing our stock will be satisfied of that).

All we have to say is we have JUST WHAT YOU WANT, AT PRICES TO SUIT YOU, a fact which all can see by calling at the EMPIRE CASH STORE.

D. 1854, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, all that certain piece, parcel or tract of land situate, lying and being in the village (now city) of Janesville in the county of Rock, and state of Wisconsin, and known and distinguished as being lots number sixty (60) and one hundred and fifty-two, (152) in Smith, Bailey and Stones addition to the village of Janesville, according to the recorded plot of the same; also the following described land and premises, viz: the south east quarter of the north west quarter of section two, (2) in township number three, (3) north, of range twelve, (12) east, containing forty acres, situate as aforesaid in Rock county and state of Wisconsin. Dated July 24, 1854. (jy25td) WILLIAM H. HOWARD, Sheriff.

THE STATE OF WISCONSIN, ROCK COUNTY—ss.
In the matter of the estate of Ira Gibbs, deceased.

ON this 15th day of August, A. D. 1854, upon reading and filing the petition of Caroline Gibbs, stating that one Ira Gibbs of the county of Rock, died intestate on or about the 18th day of July 1854, and praying that she and Chancy Rosa be appointed administrators on the estate of said deceased: It is ordered, That said application be heard before me, at my office in the city of Janesville, on the 11th day of September A. D. 1854, at 10 o'clock, A. M. And it is further ordered, That notice of said application and hearing be given by publishing a copy of this order for three successive weeks, once in each week, in the Janesville Gazette, a newspaper printed in said city, prior to said hearing.

By the court,
au18w3 MOSES S. PRICHARD, County Judge.

IN PROBATE, COUNTY COURT OF ROCK COUNTY.
In matter of the Estate of Aaron Jerome, deceased.

ON reading and filing the petition of Louis D. Jerome, administrator of the above named estate, representing, among other things, that he has fully administered said estate, and praying that a time and place may be fixed for examining and allowing his account of his administration—It is ordered that said account be examined by the judge of this court on Monday, the 4th day of September next at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the office of said judge in the city of Janesville, in said county.

And it is further ordered that notice thereof be given to all persons interested, by publishing a copy of this order, for three successive weeks, prior to said day of examination, in the Janesville Gazette, a weekly newspaper printed and published in the city of Janesville aforesaid. Dated August 4th, 1854.

MOSES S. PRICHARD,
49w4 County Judge.

IN CIRCUIT COURT, ROCK COUNTY—IN EQUITY.
Absalom Williams, compl't, vs. Jonathan W. Snow, Hannah Snow, his wife, John Kimball, Charles O. Thompson and Erastus Thompson, def'ts.

THE subpœna issued in the above entitled cause having been returned by the sheriff of the county of Rock not served on the above named defendants Jonathan W. Snow, Hannah Snow his wife, Charles O. Thompson and Erastus Thompson, and that after diligent search and inquiry he could not find the said defendants in the county of Rock, and it having been made satisfactorily to appear that said defendants are not residents of the state of Wisconsin, and no appearance having been entered by or on behalf of either of said defendants, Therefore on motion of Joseph A. Sleeper solicitor for complainant ordered that said defendants appear and plead, answer or demur to the bill of complaint filed in this cause, on or before the 17th day of November next, or that in default thereof the said bill of complaint be taken as confessed against them. And it is further ordered that within twenty days from the date of this order the complainant cause a copy of this order to be personally served on the said defendants above named, or that he cause a copy of the same to be published in the Janesville Gazette, a public newspaper printed and published in the city of Janesville, at least once in each week for six weeks successively. Dated, August 16th 1854.

MOSES S. PRICHARD,
County Judge and ex-officio, au18w7 Court Commissioner.

IN CIRCUIT COURT, FOR ROCK COUNTY—IN EQUITY.
Ira Smith, Jr., William A. Smith, William Steele, Jno. and Robert P. Steele, vs. Asa W. White, Elizabeth White, James B. Wilson, John D. Wilson, Sanford Cobb, Jr., Calvin W. How, Benjamin W. How, William B. Whitaker, Devillo White, Lyman D. Burch and Elisha J. Pratt.

THE subpœna issued in the above entitled cause, directed to the sheriff of said county of Rock, having been returned by the said sheriff not served on the defendants, James B. Wilson, John D. Wilson, Sanford Cobb, Jr., Calvin W. How, Benjamin W. How, William B. Whitaker, Devillo White, Lyman D. Burch and Elisha J. Pratt, and it being made satisfactorily to appear that each and every of said last mentioned defendants, are absent from and are not residents of the state of Wisconsin, and cannot upon inquiry be found therein: On motion of G. W. Cumming, solicitor for complainants, ordered that the said defendants James B. Wilson, John D. Wilson, Sanford Cobb, Jr., Calvin W. How, Benjamin W. How, William B. Whitaker, Devillo White, Lyman D. Burch and Elisha J. Pratt, appear and plead, answer or demur to the bill of complaint filed in this cause, on or before the 26th day of October 1854, or that in default thereof, the said bill of complaint may be taken as confessed against each and every of said last mentioned defendants, and it is further ordered, that within twenty days from the date hereof, the above order be personally served on each of said last mentioned defendents, by delivering a copy therof to each and every of them, or that the same be published in the Janesville Gazette, a newspaper printed in the city of Janesville, in the county and state aforesaid, for six weeks successively, at least once in each week. Dated July 27th, 1854. MOSES S. PRICHARD, County Judge,

New England Mutual Life Ins.,

Of Boston, Mass., Chartered in 1843,

Capital and accumulation, $650,000.

THIS Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudently and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting its business has been to provide perfect security under all conceivable circumstances, for the payment of its losses under its policies, and to return to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and strict economy is observed.

Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessments beyond his premium.

The directors are required to be pecuniarily interested in the company, and they give it their personal attention; and bonds of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties.

Insurance may be effected for the benefit of the wife, which is secured to her by law beyond the reach of a husband's creditors; and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

Highly Important to Farmers.

THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST,

THE MADISON MUTUAL,

LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently you will have no losses only your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and such like property. In this company all such property is rejected POSITIVELY, by LETTING THEM ALONE.

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

A STORE FOR SALE OR TO LET.

THE STORE and a Lot of ground known as Lot No 8, on Block No. 1, in the village and township of FULTON, Rock County, on the Catfish, near its confluence with Rock river, 11 miles northwest of Janesville.

The building is well calculated for a country store, being 23 feet front by 52 feet deep, and finished off above into convenient apartments either for a family or for offices, all in good condition.

The whole has been occupied for three years past by Messrs. T. E. and F. G. Green, as a store and dwelling, and being situated immediately opposite the Gristmill, is considered the best location for business in the village. The lot is two rods front by about seven rods deep.

This property will be sold or let on reasonable terms, and possession given immediately. For particulars enquire of MILLS & SAYRE, Fulton, so

RAILROAD STORE!

I WISH to call attention, as I have done before,
To the Goods I am receiving now at the Railroad Store,
Where all the newest Fashions, to suit the young and old,
The richest and the cheapest goods in Janesville, will be sold.

My large and splendid stock of Lawns to show I'm always willing,
The price, as all the Ladies know, is from sixpence to a shilling,
I've Fine Black Silks from Italy, and colored ones that's rare,
Plaid, Grodenaps and Marcellaines, and Florences to spare.

And such a lot of Hosiery, I know cannot be beat,
And Gloves a great variety, they are so very neat:
Just now, when Spring is coming, and every thing looks bright,
For a glove to suit the season, the color should be light.

There are other Goods for Ladies, of which they ought to know,
That I keep in those blue boxes, and am always pleased to show,
Such as Blonde and Linen Edging, Cotton and Cambric, too,
Muslin and Cambric Needlework, and Gimps of every hue.

Those Undersleeves and Chimisettes I almost had forgot,
And Ladies' Needlework Collars, so beautifully wrought,
With Bishop Lawns and Cambrics, and Muslins fine and neat,
And Lace to make old ladies' Caps and trim them off complete.

And to parry Sol's "directer rays," I've Parasols to sell,
Of every price and color—they please the Ladies well—
And Umbrellas cheap for Gents, or so at least they say,
For lots of them get carried off, on every rainy day.

Such lots of Combs for the million, of every sort and kind,
To puff, or curl, or plait the hair, no better can you find;
And every kind of Buttons for dresses, coats and vests,
To sell by the gross or dozen—they are the very best.

And for Gentlemen and little Boys I have Fashionable Hats,
Silk, Beaver, Leghorn, Panama, and cloth and leather Caps;
And for infants, Hats with feathers and ribbons gay and bright,
And little Caps with tassels drab, orange, blue and white.

I have stacks of Linen, of yellow, brown and white,
And every other kind, of Summer Goods that's right
To make up into coats and pantaloons and vests—
As large a stock as any, that ever was brought West.

They say long advertisements, are not the oftenest read,
And that most may be meant, as oft, when least is said,
In view of this, I'll close my bill, and here invite you all,
Whenever you come to Janesville, be sure and give me a call.
IRA P. BALLOU.

A PERIODICAL IN JANESVILLE!

"The Wisconsin Home,"

A Miscellaneous and Reformatory Journal, will be printed on the first and fifteenth of each month from and after the

by Messrs. BAKER & DOTY, publishers and proprietors of the Janesville Free Press; and edited by WM. M. DOTY, of the above named firm.

Each No. of "THE WISCONSIN HOME" will consist of EIGHT PAGES; making a sheet, in point of size, nearly the same as the "Scientific American." We shall reserve ONLY ONE COLUMN OF ADVERTISING for the purpose of publishing an occasional prospectus in addition to our own; leaving THIRTY-ONE COLUMNS OF READING MATTER.

One or two good stories will appear in each No. but none except those having a directly moral and beneficial tendency will be admitted into its columns. A short summary of passing events will be given; but no political grounds will be taken. As a better idea may be formed by seeing the article itself, the first No. will be furnished to all who may wish to examine it, FREE OF CHARGE.

The TERMS of "The Wisconsin Home" will be ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR, payable half yearly in advance. Subscription books now open.

☞ Orders solicited early, especially for sample numbers, in order that we may know how large an edition will supply the demand. Address post-paid,

WM. M. DOTY, Janesville, Wis.

 Papers giving the above one insertion and calling attention thereto editorially, will not only be entitled to an exchange, but to the thanks of the proprietor.

AGAIN & AGAIN

THE BOSTON STORE.

Let the Horn be Blown!!

"Sound the loud timbrel o'er land and o'er sea,"
WHEELOCK'S triumphant, and ever shall be.

THIS is the middle of the nineteenth century, the first half of which has produced more change and onward movement than any fifty years of our Christian Era.

The great controlling power of this age is its commerce—indeed, this may be truly called the commercial age.

It has been well said by an ancient writer that

"Man wants but little here below,"

and to supply those wants

WHEELOCK

Announces to every people and every tongue, to both sexes and all parties, to all factions of all gauges, that finding his old store entirely

TOO SMALL!

He has been compelled, in order to be able to supply the immense call for goods at his establishment, to

Double the capacity of his Store Rooms!

Having purchased this spring, for this market, to be sold this season,

$39,007 00 Worth of Goods

But who can expect to read in the brief space of one life all the articles that the

BOSTON STORE CONTAINS.

Indeed, history must fail to give the searcher of knowledge any accurate idea of his immense

STOCK OF SUMMER GOODS,

His inimitable selection of

Fancy Dress Goods!

He has over

10,000 Yards of Silk Bareges,

of every style and price, and it is with no great difficulty that the fair damsels of this fair valley can select,

FROM THE ONE THOUSAND PIECES,

Of all patterns and ranging in price from SIX CENTS Per Yard to Twenty-Eight Cents, such dresses as will add to their exquisite beauty, though it may as a general thing, be as difficult to add to that beauty as it is "to gild refined gold, paint the lily, or add perfume to the violet."

It must not be inferred that we offer only these and the many other articles for outer apparel, such as Chamelion and Foulard Silks, but all manner of

are on change, so that every one may be entirely accommodated with every article of female apparel.—
Eved French red foxed Gaiters,
do do wolfed do
Ladies' Enamelled Boots, Enameled sewed Congress Boots,
LADIES MOROCCO POLKAS,

And all the articles manufacutred of the best styles.—So that of this store, so far as articles which adorn La Belle sex are concerned, it may be truly said

"CUSTOM cannot stale the infinite variety."

While the Boston Store has made provision to protect the feet, it can also boast that it has all sorts of

GLOVES,

by which hands can be protected and retain

"The white wonder of fair Juliet's hand."

And in taking leave of those of whom it is no exaggeration to say they are

"Heaven's last, best gift to man,"

the Nonpareils of beauty, the Paragons of perfection, Mr. Wheelock assures his fair customers that his assistants and auxiliaries are those who unite great knowledge of the business, fine personal presence and affability of manner to a determination to discharge CONSCIENTIOUSLY their several and respective duties—that while they may have the proper desire to effect sales, they will never in imitation of many of our contemporaries attempt to accomplish that object by equivocation, misrepresentation, exaggeration, tergiversation, fabrication, or by direct lying.

And now to the wants of the

COARSE-HAND SEX.

Mr. Wheelock has every kind of material to make those articles of dress that give to man his individuality—

PANTALOONS,

CALF "BEWTS," COW HIDE do., GAZELLE, do., PATENT LEATHER do., GIRAFFE do.,

HATS

That fit every head from the Websterian brow to the country politician's sconce, from the size of caput of him who is closely shorn after the Hibernian fashion to that of him who wears the well-pomatumed, ambrosialized, elongated Hyperion curls.

And to the speculator who buys to sell again,

The Boston Store

Can, at lower rates of usance than any other establishment west of the Alleghany mountains, furnish that class of exchanges so that riches will fill their pockets as water fills the sea. And to them we offer

DOMESTIC GLASSWARE, WORSTED,
Pocket Handkerchiefs, Inkstands, Cotton Yarn,
Ready-made Vests, Ground Pepper, Flannels,
Looking Glasses, Ready-Made Over Coats, Pants,
Raisins, Flat Irons and Cotton Batting, Lanterns,
Satchels, which the whining school-boy with shining morning face bears on his arm,
Chests, Norwegian Bandboxes and Hair Trunks,
Tea, Tobacco and Wicking.

In the

CROCKERY

Line may be found the BENNINGTON, the PARIAN and the LAVA Manufacture, Pitchers for milk or water, Tea Pots, Spittoons, Bowls for washing, for bread and milk, or sugar, Candlesticks, children's Toys and Flower Pots, MAINE LIQUOR LAW VOLUMES and Lager Beer Mugs.

And in fine, the proprietor of this establishment can with all confidence assure those who have been in the habit of trading at Janesville that, although they have

"Often seen corruption boil and bubble till
It o'errun the stew,"

they will find that the representations which shall be made to them by that proprietor or his clerks will not

"Stand like forfeits in a Barber shop,
More in mock than mark."

The ONE PRICE CASH SYSTEM, originally introduced into this community and strictly adhered to by this Establishment, has won for it a reputation far more valuable than the Stupendous Self-puffings, quarterly renewed, industriously circulated but universally discredited, which many modern shop keepers deem indispensable to success.

The system will of course be continued—admitting no variation or improvement—to the satisfaction undoubtedly of a large and most desirable class of customers, although at the sacrifice probably of the steady patronage of inveterate higglers and those who inherit the belief that all Salesmen will cheat them if possible.

Respectfully,

COOLEY & BABCOCK.

GREAT SALE OF REAL ESTATE!

600 Village Lots!

THE undersigned offers at private sale SIX HUNDRED VILLAGE LOTS, situated in "Hickory Glen" and "Pixley & Shaw's" addition to Janesville, and located in the immediate vicinity of the Milwaukee and Mississippi railroad depot, in the city of Janesville.

The above property is but a short distance from the present business center of the thriving city of Janesville, and towards which, through the influence of the various railroads, in operation and projected, the business of the city is fast finding its way.

It is unnecessary to speak of the peculiar advantages of an investment in a property so centrally located in the largest inland city in the State of Wisconsin—a city so widely known for its thrift and business prosperity, possessing extensive water-power and surrounded by the best farming country in the world—as every one at all conversant with the progress of western cities will see at once these advantages.

The above property is offered at very low rates, and on the most favorable terms, particularly to those who wish to make immediate improvements on purchases.

Also, 1,000 Acres of the

Best Improved Farming Lands,

situated within a few miles of the city, which will be sold in lots to suit purchasers, from 40 to 320 acres.

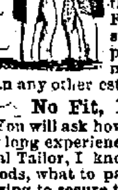

For particulars enquire of the undersigned at "Pixley & Kimball's Hardware Store," or of THOMAS SHAW. B. F. PIXLEY.

Janesville Clothing Emporium.

WM. ADDY,

Merchant Tailor, & Dealer in Ready Made Clothing and Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods,

HAS received his Spring and Summer STOCK, consisting of the very Best and Fashionable CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, DOESKINS AND VESTINGS, of English, French and American manufacture.

This establishment is now, as usual, the favorite place of resort for the Fashionable, the Cutting Department still being under my own personal supervision, and warranted to suit the most difficult, twenty per cent lower than any other establishment in the State.

No Fit, No Sale, is my doctrine.

You will ask how I can do this; I will tell you: From my long experience in this business, and being a practical Tailor, I know when, where and how to buy my Goods, what to pay for them, and how to cut them, not having to secure the services of an eminent artist, at a salary of $1,000 to $1,500 a year, which the purchaser must pay for—this is the secret. I have got on hand a good assortment of

of my own manufacture, and warranted in every respect. Call and examine, before you buy elsewhere.

NEW GOODS!

$15,000 Worth of BOOTS AND SHOES

JUST RECEIVED AT THE

Wisconsin Boot & Shoe Store.

I AM now receiving one of the largest and finest stocks of Boots and Shoes that I have ever before brought to Janesville, and what is finer than all the rest, I can sell them at lower prices than I have ever sold before, notwithstanding the great advance in the Eastern Market. My assortment of

Ladies Fine Shoes,

in particular, I have no hesitation in saying cannot be equaled in the State, both for style and durability, being all made to order, and in such a manner that I can warrant every article I sell, with the understanding at all times, that if they do not come up to the warrant, they shall be mended free of charge.

GENTLEMEN'S WEAR.

In this line I know beyond a doubt that I can show you a finer assortment and at better prices by twenty-five per cent. than can be found at any of the side shops or Dry Goods stores about town. I want it distinctly understood that I make the BOOT AND SHOE TRADE my WHOLE STUDY, and that I Buy More, Sell More and know more about the trade, than the whole pile of petty dealers put together. And I know also that I can make it an object for Every Farmer in Rock County, as well as every one that trades in Janesville to buy their Boots and Shoes of me for the more I sell the smaller profits I can sell at.

Manufacturing.

I want to say a few words to you in regard to my Manufacturing Department, to wit: That I am now engaged more extensively in the manufacturing business, and probably am selling more custom work than all the shops about town put together, simply for these reasons—that I use better Stock, being entirely of Eastern tannage, which every one knows is worth twenty-five per cent more than the common western tanned leather; and what is a better reason and of greater importance, I can

and at the same time sell you a better article than you can get at the shops, for this reason, which you must all see is a very palpable one, that in buying my stock east and in such large quantities, I of course save a very large per cent, and thereby can sell at lower prices and at the same time make my profits.

I want to state further that I have secured the services of MR. BUCKINGHAM, who has formerly been engaged in the manufacturing business on the west side of the River, and who is known by every one to be the best manufacturer in the city; and if we don't get you up a better article, both in regard to style and durability, we will forfeit our money and our reputation, and I pledge you my word that this is no small forfeit.

Leather and Findings.

I have just received over $3,000 worth of the very best brands of Eastern Sole & Upper Leather; also, a very large assortment of FRENCH and PHILADELPHIA KIP and FRENCH CALF SKINS, together with a full assortment of MOROCCOS of every kind, which I will sell at

Precisely Milwaukee and Chicago Prices.

I have constantly on hand, also, a large assortment of all kings of FINDINGS, LASTS, BOOT TREES, CRIMPS, etc., etc., all of which will be sold at the same rates.

I request the attention of manufacturers in town as well as in the country to my stock, as I think I can make it an object for you to buy of me. At least, I can sell you a much superior article to that which you get of the pedlers.

TO THE LADIES.

I would say that I am under very great obligation for the partiality you have shown me, in always procuring your understandings from me, and I here publicly promise and swear that I will make every one of you who may be entitled to the same a present of a handsome pair of CACKS, when I shall have closed up my shoe-selling career. I would say further, that I am prepared to get up to order any style of work you wish, at low rates. Yours respectfully,

J. B. DIMOCK, Proprietor,
T. H. BUCKINGHAM, Foreman.

THE POWER OF LOVE.

[Concluded.]

As Jasper said this, he rose from his chair, and staggered towards the door. He paused a moment, as he held the nob in his hand—perhaps with the thought that his wife might speak a kind word to him, or show some alarm at the idea of his leaving her. Busy, terrible thoughts were running through his head. The room seemed to turn round and round. He opened the door and passed into the hall; but no voice came from Mary. She sat silent as stone, but with a heart bursting with grief. She dearly loved her husband, and longed to speak the kind word that would turn him back, but pride and stubbornness forbade. The sound of his unsteady steps, as he passed along the hall to the front door, fell forebodingly upon her ear, and when that door was closed behind him, and Jasper stood irresolute without the house, the fountains of her grief were opened, and she wept and sobbed most piteously.

It was a sad, sad sight, that young wife with all her hopes blighted, the chosen of her heart given up to the most debasing of all sins, her young child deprived of its protector, with immediate ruin and starvation staring her in the face, with no solitary hope in the future, and all the agony of the present. The memories of happier days rose before her—the innocent days of her girlhood, surrounded with gay companions, and blessed with a mother's love. All these she had sacrificed for the man she loved. How was she repaid? What had she done to deserve so bitter a fate? What dreadful sin had she committed to be thus punished? How unequal seems the reward and chastisements of life. Mary thus reflected and almost arraigned the justice and benificence of God. Jasper had left the house in anger. What might happen to him in his present condition? Where would he go? Such were the wife's fears, though she hoped that he might return as soon as his anger had a little subsided. She was sorry that she had spoken so harshly to him. That was no way to redeem him; but had she not tried kind words till her patience was exhausted? And what woman would not get angry with a drunken husband? Such were this poor ill-treated wife's emotions, and who could blame her?

All at once she thought that she would go to the door to see if Jasper had really gone. She rose from her chair for that purpose, and half way crossed the room. But pride rebelled again. She would not show him that she was at all worried about him. It was all he wanted, and he should not be gratified; so she returned once more to her chair, where she wept as though her heart was breaking, and like enough it was for all that, for she was indeed most miserable.

When Jasper had closed the door behind him, and stood out once more in the open night air he was undecided what to do, or where to go. Maddened as he was by the reproaches of his wife, self-condemned by an accusing conscience, sick and weary with liquor and excitement, it is no wonder that his first thought was suicide. No wonder that he felt unworthy to live; strange that he did not think himself unfit to die. Such is the direful effects of the intoxicating bowl—such the "deep damnation" with which it is drugged. Far more dangerous than the dicer's box, it kills both body and soul, and its train is made up of disease, imbecility, lunacy, poverty, crime, the prison and the gallows! There is no innocence in it; it blights wherever it falls; it stains all it touches. It makes desolate the family hearthstone. It pits man against his brother; it raises the hand of the child against the parent; even the innocent are made sufferers thereby; and the loud wail of its myriads of victims rises up from every quarter of the civilized world. It is one of the curses invented by civilization, and to that only does it owe its birth; for the African in his native state is uncontaminated with it; and the vilest animal that exists turns away from it with disgust.

Jasper, when he had closed the door, paused for some minutes, undetermined what to do.—We have said that his first thought was suicide.

"I am not fit to live!" he exclaimed. I know I am wrong, and yet I cannot help it—I cannot help it, and I might as well die at once, as live on in disgrace. Somebody will take care of Mary. She will go back to her mother; and she will be much happier and far better off without me than with me. I cannot stand her reproaches—I will not. As for any future, it cannot be worse for me than the present, at any rate. Yes, I may as well die!"

Though Jasper talked thus about suicide, we do not suppose he had any more distinct idea of it than of anything else that might happen to be rambling through his head. The fumes of the liquor were still upon him. He was not more than half sober and his legs were still so weak under him, that they carried him with a wavering gait, and his head buzzed, buzzed like a nest of bees. But he meant to punish his wife for talking so angrily with him. At one moment he had half a mind to turn back, and go to bed; but the devil had the better of him, and mustering up his resolution, he buttoned his coat about him, and proceeded to descend into the street. The first step he made, however, was a false one. His knees bent under him. He made a vain and desperate attempt to catch at the iron railing of the stoop, but missed his hold, and pitched forward into the street, striking head first upon the side walk, and cutting and bruising his face in a terrible manner, so as to render him completely insensible.

Now it so happened that at this moment Mary thought that she would go to the door and look out; not that she doubted but what Jasper had gone, still at the same time half inclined to believe that he might be still in sight, and within call.

So she opened the door, and peered forth into the cold night air. How still and silent everything around. She looked up the street, and down the street; but the object which her eyes sought met them not. She drew a heavy sigh, as her heart felt a pang greater than she had known before, and she was about to close the door, when her ears were startled by a low moan, and then, for the first time, casting her eyes down upon the side walk, they rested upon the form of her husband.

With a cry of terror, Mary was in an instant stooping by the side of Jasper, urging him with all the dearest language of her heart, to look up, to speak, to even rise; but alas! it was beyond his power. Vainly she tried to lift him, but her strength was not equal to the task. Oh, how bitterly she then repented all the unkind words she had said to him—how every reproach smote upon her heart. She forgot all his errors—she became blind to his numerous faults, and Jasper was once more her best beloved. Every word of endearment she could think of, she poured forth with a voluble tongue, but they all fell ineffectually upon his ear. What should she do? Jasper would die, and there were none to help her. She was ashamed to cry aloud for aid. To claim the assistance of the neighbors, would be to expose her husband's condition, and so she strove with all her little strength to raise him, and get him into the house, but all her efforts failed. In his present condition, Jasper would die—where, then, was her relief?—where should she receive assistance?

Fortunately, at this moment, one of the city watchmen came along. Mary at once appealed to him. He was a strong built, stalwart fellow, and at once took Jasper up in his arms, and carried him into the house, and up stairs to his bed. He then volunteered to call a physician, one fortunately living within a few doors of the house. In the meantime Mary applied all the restoratives she could think of. She wetted a towel with vinegar, and bathed his temples, and wiped the blood from a large wound in his forehead. His pulse was feeble, and his breathing indistinct and difficult. Ah, poor wife! this was about the crowning of all your misery!

The physician was soon in attendance. He examined the wound in Jasper's head, and pronounced it a slight fracture of the skull; but said that with proper treatment and careful attention he might recover, though it might be some weeks first. The wound was then dressed and restorative cordials administered, and the doctor left, saying that he would call again early in the morning.

For more than two hours did Jasper lie insensible, and when at last he opened his eyes and spoke, it became evident that his mind was wandering. And now came Mary's opportunity to show her devotion and attention. How she watched by her sick husband's side, administering with angelic patience to his every want—never for a moment tired of her duty. Notwithstanding the sorrow that she felt for Jasper's misfortune, she could but acknowledge to herself, that she had seldom enjoyed so much happiness before. He was now all her own. Each hour that she spent by his bedside, was a small life-time of bliss. She could read to him, talk to him, and sing to him. Even Jasper himself, when his reason was fully restored, acknowledged that he had never before known how great a treasure he possessed in his wife.

After the first week of his confinement, he began to mend rapidly. He had also ample time to reflect upon his errors, and upon his neglect of his wife; and what most particularly elicited his admiration, was her own silence upon the cause of his accident. He could not but appreciate such delicacy, and he inwardly determined that, when restored to health, he would refrain from his past habits of dissipation, and devote the remainder of his life in securing the happiness of his wife and child; and he was fully confirmed in this resolution when he learned from her lips, that during his illness, she had procured the means of subsistence by pawning a considerable portion of her jewelry, among which was a gold watch that was made a present of by her mother on her wedding day. In his expression of gratitude to her, he was extravagantly lavish, and protested again and again that nothing in future should ever make him remiss in his duties to his family. You can easily imagine with what boundless joy Mary received his assurances. It was like a new plighting of their faith—a second betrothal, as it were, in which all her earlier bliss was to be renewed. Heaven had at last smiled upon her. The clouds of despair and doubt were dispelled, and together they looked forward to many years of domestic enjoyment.

But did he keep the pledge thus given? As faithfully as ever pledge was kept. Woman's devotion had at last reclaimed him. What reproaches could not effect, was accomplished by love. The lesson was not lost upon either.—Jasper once more became the true and earnest man. He had absolved himself from a slavish and debasing habit. No more nights were spent at carousal among debauched inebriates; no more hard earned dollars went into the rum seller's till. He walked in peace and pleasantness and lived in prosperity; and to this day, there are no happier men and wives in the city than Jasper and Mary Hanley. Let all husbands thus appreciate their wives; and let all true women who have husbands to reform, commence the work in kindness, and follow it up in the true spirit of love, and "verily they shall have their reward."

VERMONT.—The division in this state among the friends of freedom have been happily removed by the forbearance, liberality and wisdom of the several parties. The state committee nominated by the mass convention, which met at Montpelier, have placed Judge Royce, the whig nominee for governor, upon their ticket, and he has accepted their nomination in a letter declaring the resolutions of the two conventions, so far as they properly go to constitute a political platform for the future, as substantially the same. So also the whigs have accepted as their own candidate Gen. Fletcher, the nominee of the Montpelier convention, for lieut. governor, and he has likewise signified his acceptance and his endorsement of the resolutions adopted at the whig state convention at Rutland. In his letter of acceptance he adds:

"The freemen of the north have too long been divided into hostile parties, expending that strength against each other which should have been unitedly employed in sustaining the cause of freedom, while at the south, where the interests of slavery are involved, all party lines are obliterated, and all are found in a solid column, with an unbroken front. Slavery forms a bond of union stronger than the ordinary ties of party; hence the power and success of the south. Divided we have fallen, divided we must ever fall, before the all-grasping and ever-encroaching slave power.

"The heart of the patriot is cheered in the present alarming condition of our country, by the prospect that those who love and value our free and happy institution will now ardently unite in their support."

In the recent conventions in Washington and Orange counties, the opponents of the Nebraska outrage have united in the nomination of county officers and of state senators. Similar unions have been made in Chittenden, Addison, Rutland, and other counties, and it is exceedingly doubtful whether a single advocate of the Nebraska bill or a friend of the administration will be chosen to the senate in the state.

Hon. James Meacham has been renominated to congress in the first congressional district; Hon. Justin S. Morril has been selected in the second, in the place of Mr. Tracy, who declines a re-election, and Mr. Sabine was re-nominated by the convention of the third district, which met at St. Albans on Tuesday.—New Hampshire Statesman.

GOVERNOR GRIMES.—The Galena Gazette has the following brief sketch of the life of the newly elected republican governor of Iowa.

Mr. Grimes is an old settler of Iowa, but is yet a young man. He is a native of New Hampshire and a graduate of Dartmouth College.—We believe he was at Burlington, Iowa, as early as 1836. In 1837 we recollect him as secretary to Gov. Dodge, in the negotiation of some Indian treaties. He is a lawyer but has retired from his profession with a competency, and gone largely into the business of stock raising and farming. His recent contest and its results has given him a national reputation, which he have nobly earned.

FOURTH OF JULY TOAST—

Here's to the man
That owned the land
That raised the corn,
That fed the goose,
That bore the quill,
That made the pen,
That wrote the Declaration of Independence.

The Daily Gazette.

JANESVILLE : : : : WISCONSIN.

MONDAY MORNING, AUG. 28, 1854.

SENATOR DOUGLAS.—This individual has at last ventured to show his infamous head in Chicago, and the Tribune devotes a column and a half of warm welcome to him, in which his treachery to northern interests is shown up in indignant but truthful phrase. Immediately after the passage of the Nebraska bill the very few friends he had left in Chicago proposed to have him visit that city, but so palpable were the indications that he would meet with insult and perhaps violence, should he then risk himself among his exasperated constituency, the advice of his friends and his own caution kept him away. Supposing the excitement had somewhat subsided, he now visits the city. The Tribune says:

He must have come by mail under one of his own franks, for the first place at which he was seen was the private room of our post-master, in solemn conclave with that dignitary and some dozen others of that clique. The result of their deliberations will doubtless be seen anon. His only public appearance was made in the saloon of "Young America"—the drinking hole—where his entrance of course created a marked sensation, and an increased demand for ponies and smashes.

His arrival here was distinguished by nothing save the supreme contempt and indifference manifested by the citizens of this place upon hearing of the fact. No attention whatever was paid him—he was met by no demonstration of honor or regard; he was harrassed by none of the annoying but yet eagerly sought honors of a public reception. He arrived in the city just as John Smith or William Brown would arrive here, and excited no more attention, excepting among a few office holders and expectants.—He has sunk very low—so low as to be beneath the gratuitous attentions of a free and enlightened community.

"Stephen A. Douglas has no claim upon the courtesy or kindness of the people of Chicago, but he has the deepest reasons to fear their detestation, their abhorrence, their rebukes, and their vengeance. He has betrayed us; he has disregarded us; he has insulted us; he has disgraced us; he has injured us in our reputation, our fair fame, our honor, and our pecuniary interests. He has turned a deaf ear to the voice of our best and most worthy citizens, who remonstrated with him upon his iniquities, and he has reviled and insulted and blackguarded the united clergy of our city, as they petitioned congress to abstain from the violation of national honor and plighted good faith. He has stabbed us in our commercial prosperity, and has placed in jeopardy the lives of our mariners, by refusing to give his vote and influence for our River and Harbor bill, and in all his acts, has disregarded our interests, and studied how to oppress us. Indeed, had he been sent to congress by some other state, with the express and entire intention of injuring and oppressing Chicago and Illinois, he could not have done more to please his employers than he has done during the past winter and spring. It is no wonder that he feared to meet the reproachful faces of those whom he has betrayed!"

BEATEN, AFTER ALL.—The defeat of the Nebraska democracy of Iowa is one of the most significant as well as cheering signs of the times, and its value is enhanced by the character of the means adopted to avert it. Preceding the election a report was circulated that congress had passed the homestead bill, and extras and placards to that effect were sent all over the state, reminding every poor man and squatter that a democratic congress and president had conferred upon them the great boon of homes for little or nothing. This trick must have saved a good many votes, and yet the party was disastrously beaten. Nebraska was too odious to be saved even with the help of the homestead.

FEELING IN THE WEST.—The Grant County Herald has a call for a "mass convention of anti-Nebraska men," to be held in Lancaster, on the 6th of September. The call states the object to be "effectively organizing for the approaching elections, upon a basis of perfect union with the anti-Nebraska party in other parts of the state and United States." The Herald, which as our readers well know from the extracts we have republished from it, does its own thinking, and always has a reason, usually a good one, for its opinions, favors the movement, although it is not exactly what it would like. From peculiar causes we feared the action of the Madison convention of the 13th of July would not be very cordially received in the western counties of the state, but we find a heartier concurrence there than we expected, and this movement in Grant county is a good sign in the right quarter.

A SET-BACK.—A majority of the stockholders of the Jeffersonville railroad, which runs through Indiana, ordained a regulation for the road that no negro should ride over it without a passport certifying to his freedom—thus endeavoring to impose upon Indiana the discipline of the plantation. In this effort to "enlarge the area of freedom" and extend the "blessings" of their peculiar "institution," they have been very promptly checkmated by the courts of Indiana, which hold that the state is a free one, and every person is presumed to be free until he has been proved a slave.

☞ Mr. Densmore philosophises at some length over "reform," in order to get a chance to lecture the Janesville Gazette. When the weather cools off, we may look to our Kenosha neighbor a little. At present we can only say that many a good caurse has been injured by a "stationery" advocate.

If any young man wants to reach the "high top-gallant-mast of felicity," let him make a journey through Maine, seated on the back seat of a stage coach between two down east girls with only one piece of spruce gum for the three to chew. The editor of the Boston Herald has tried it.

BOOK ITEMS.

THE RUSSIAN OF THE BLACK SEA., &c. By LAURENCE OLIPHANT. Redfield, 110 and 112 Nassau street, New York.

In this pleasing little volume we have a book for the times, written by an observing man, well fitted for the post he assumes. Maps of different parts of the czar's dominions aid the reader and from Cronstadt around to Sebastopol you can travel in good company with our author. His book is very readable and cannot fail to be of use to those interested in European affairs. Mr. O. is a good humored companion, writes cleverly and philosophises about Russia, Turkey, Hungary and Europe generally, in a sensible manner. For sale at Sutherland's.

By the way, who has noticed the emblem on Redfield's title pages. A ring made of a serpent, the mythological symbol of eternity; and a lamp in the centre of the ring, the lamp of knowledge, shining forever. Happy symbol, say we.

A FINE GIFT.—The Messrs. Drake have our thanks for a very choice bouquet of flowers, gathered from their nursery in this city. It contained some of the finest specimens of dahlias we have ever seen, and a most bountiful number. The Messrs. D. have a large variety of these flowers, and those who wish to see them in blossom, for the purpose of selecting hereafter, would do well to call at the nursery, where they may be seen.

TRACK RE-LAID.—The Madison Argus of the 24th says that the sink hole in the bed of the Milwaukee road, near that place, has been bridged and the track re-laid.

A NEW AMERICAN NOVEL.—The Buffalo Commercial says that G. P. R. James, the famous English writer of fiction, has written an American novel which the Harpers are to bring out. It is entitled "Ticonderoga," where the scene is laid. It is based on incidents occurring at the time of Gen. Abercrombie's expedition.

A NEW BANK.—The Madison Journal says that a new bank, to be called the Madison Bank, is talked about in that place. Mr. Lowe, the cashier, has deposited securities to the amount of $5,0000 with the comptroller, and gone last to procure the plates for the bills. It is expected the bank will open about the first of October next.

☞ Mr. Grimes, the recently elected governor of Iowa is a native of Deering, N. H.

EUGENIA.—A Paris letter to the New York Herald says:—"There is a scandal just now prevalent in England, that the same miserable tragedy is about to be acted in France which was played in Napoleon the Great's time, and which dishonored and broke the heart of the empress Josephine. Hereditary succession will be the cause of this cruel and unnatural act, if it be accomplished."

SINGULAR DISCLOSEURE.—A surgeon in the United States army recently desired to know the most common cause of enlistment. By permission of the captain, in a company containing fifty five, the writer pledged never to disclose the name of officers or private, except as a physical or mataphysical fact; the true history was obtained of every man. On investigation, it appeared that nine tenths enlisted on account of some female difficulty, thirteen had changed their names, and forty-three were either drunk, or partially so, at the time of their enlistment.—Most of them were men of fine talents and had once been in elevated positions of life. Four had been lawyers, three doctors, and two ministers.

RIGHT.—The token of recognition has finally been discovered by a close observer. When a know nothing wishes to recognise another, he closes one eye, makes an O with his thumb and finger, and places his nose through it—which being interpreted reads:

"Eye——nose——O."
"I——knows—nothing."

A NORTH CAROLINA EDITOR.—The Milton Chronicle sums up the occupations of his neighbor of the Spectator as follows:

He is an officating minister of the gospel; a licensed attorney; a newspaper editor; agent for nearly all the insurance and assurance companies north of the Potomac; commissioner for thirty states, and an applicant for the same when Kansas and Nebraska shall have come in; bank director; chairman of the board of superintendents of common schools; temperance orator; agent and counsel for Wake Forest college; president and secretary of all the boards of the Baptist church, &c., and in addition, he owns more town property, has the neatest farm, the best fruits and the finest cattle of any man in the country.

We walked to church on Sunday morning, behind "the girl with the hole in her stocking." It was a very large one and we thought her heel must be cold. She probably knew of it Saturday, but remembered the Sabbath day to keep it hole-y.

Something New!!

MR. CHARLES AUSTIN, the celebrated Reed maker has just completed his new Organ Reed, upon which he has labored for the last five years and expended more than six thousand dollars. This reed is different from all others in its composition, being much larger and having more power. It is intended for Church and Parlor Organs as manufactured by Messrs. Austin & Co. These Organs have an upright (Organ) action and are of the shape of all Church Organs. The price will range from $175 to $300, depending upon the finish of the case. To churches in want of an instrument of that value we would say that they have more power than any common Organ costing, $500.

J. F. Pease & Co., Janesville Wis., are interested in the manufacture and sale of these instruments, and are the only persons through whom they can be had. They will have one or more for exhibition as early as Sept. 10, and after that a good assortment as soon as they can be manufactured.

Janesville Leather Store.

THE SUBSCRIBER is almost daily receiving additions to his STOCK of Leather, Findings, and Saddlery Hardware, from the Eastern Markets.

Those in the HARNESS and SHOE business can now obtain their supply of the best quality in this new, beautiful and enterprising city, CHEAP FOR CASH, and save time, trouble and expense in traveling either to the Lake or farther East.

It appears that some of our friends have had a sudden impulse of benevolence come over them for the people here and in this vicinity, but doubtless our citizens will discover what the rats did in the fable, that there was a cat in the white heap.

Also, received and receiving an extensive assortment of which are offered only at Wholesale, at prices SO LOW, that all who wish to purchase, on examination will not hesitate to buy.

Boots & Shoes,

Location west side of River, on Milwaukee street, opposite the site of the Stevens House.

Cash Paid for Hides and Skins.

Please to give me a call, and perhaps our city may not in some respects be second to Milwaukee.

KIER'S ROCK OIL,

FROM a Well 400 feet deep, Near Pittsburgh, Pa., is offered to the public as a Natural Medicine of no common value. It is a different thing from the old Kentucky or American Oil, as this is used INTERNALLY as well as externally. As a local remedy in Paralysis, Piles, Rheumatism, Deafness, Loss of Sight, Burns, &c. —also, as a valuable Internal Remedy for Piles, Ague, Scrofula, Coughs, Diarrhœa, Erysipelas, old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Female Diseases, Worms, Bladder and Kidneys, Bronchitis, Pains &c. &c., it invites the investigating Physician, as well as the suffering patient, to become acquainted with its merits.

Discovered in 1849, it has within 2 or 3 years, made multitudes of cures, and multitudes of friends—and as soon as tried the Sales not only increase but hold out. Testimony to its great merit is constantly accumulating in the hands of the proprietor by certificates, letters, and in other ways.

IT DOCTORS THE WHOLE MAN—flesh and blood—skin and bones—from head to foot—how it acts upon the system—upon diseases of different manifestations, we cannot fully tell. While it is both cathartic and astringent, it is Alterative—and mind you, a REGULATOR. A leading principle in it is Naptha. When you once have it in the family you will not be without it.

Full as the world is of Patent Medicines—it is thought not best to suppress this, the work of NATURE—to make room for Human inventions. Price 50 cents per bottle. It can be had of wholesalers at the large cities and towns in the West at Proprietor's prices.

HAVE WE AGUE AMONG US?—A tea spoonful every three hours in the absence of the fever will cure you of Ague or Diarrhœa. ☞ Physicians, Druggists, and all friends of the afflicted, will do well to recommend this Oil for PROLAPSUS UTERI, and good will be done—take the usual dose 2 or 3 times a day, and bathe the lower part of the back with it. Have you SCROFULA? The Petroleum will eradicate it, root and branch, at little cost or inconvenience. Get circulars of directions for adults and children, gratis of the agents. A trial is all we ask. Mind and get the right kind—it is of a beautiful reddish color and clear. Try it for Piles.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S CELEBRRAED CATHOLICON,

FOR THE RELIEF AND CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called Female Complaints. Of these are Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the womb; Fluor Albus, or Whites; Chronic Inflammation and Ulceration of the Womb; Incidental Hemorrhage, or Flooding; Painful Menstruation &c with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted.) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

The Catholicon far surpasses other remedies, in being more certain, less expensive, and leaving the system in a better condition. Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations

1000 Dollars Reward,

WILL be given to any person—Physician or otherwise—who will perform a cure as quickly and permanently, by any means whatever, of any of the following diseases, as can be done by the use of

PULVERMACHER'S

Hydro-Electric Voltaic Chains.

Rheumatism,	Nervous Headache,
Painful and Swelled Joints,	Palpitation of the Heart,
Sciataca,	General Debility,
Paralysis,	Female Diseases,
Spinal Disease,	Neuralgia of the Face,
Deafness, Blindness,	Rheumatic Pains of the
Dyspepsia, Indigestion,	Chest

ALL NERVOUS DISEASES

Are almost instantly removed by the simple application of the Electric Chains, which are constructed so as to be worn next to the skin, producing a constant current of uninterrupted Electro-Magnetism, which within the last few years has been discovered to possess STRANGE and WONDERFUL POWER, in the INSTANT RELIEF and PERMANENT CURE of nervous diseases.

HISTORY.

Pulvermachers' Chain are presented to the public, as the most scientific and convenient mode of applying this powerful agent. They have been secured by patent in France, (where they were invented) England, Germany, Austria, Belgium, and one year since introduced into the United States, and also secured by patent. They are used in every Hospital in the State of New York, and highly recommended by professors Valentine Mott, Van Buren, Post, Carnochan, of that city, who daily make use of them in their practice.

THE WORLD IS CHALLENGED

to produce so many well authenticated certificates of cure, not only from intelligent patients, but from scientific Physicians. The sale now in New York is perfectly ASTONISHING, and thousands who visit the Crystal Palace where they are on exhibition, seldom fail to obtain a chain before they leave the city.

Thanks be to the common sense of the people who are beginning to become disgusted with the practice of making a Drug Shop of their stomach—swallowing bottle after bottle of sickening, disgusting trash, having no more effect in even relieving, much less curing, the disease for which they are recommended, than a Poor Man's Plaster applied to the top of the head would have in curing an infant of worms.

All these great and remarkable discoveries, by which every ill "which flesh is heir to" is eradicated from the earth—strange as it may seem—are made by men who are too ignorant to obtain a living by any other mode, and their knowledge of disease, its proper mode of cure, its cause, is just as extensive as an Arab's is of the mechanism of a steam engine. No intelligent person will deny the truth of this, and no Physician dare risk his reputation as an honest man, and declare that nervous diseases are not more frequently increased in severity than relieved, by the old antiquated way of giving medicine into the stomach. If people will only become sensible and think for themselves, and believe that physicians practice upon their credulity more than they have any idea of, pay strict attention to temperance in all things, (which means very much,) make free use of pure cold water, internally and externally, with an occasional dash of soap, sleep in freely ventilated rooms, retire early and rise early, be happy and cheerful, employ their physicians to tell them "they require no physic;"—by so doing health and happiness will increase, bottled molasses and water be at a discount, and its famous discoverers be consigned to their legitimate stations.

The Hydro-Electric chains are now for the first time offered to the people of Nashua, as being a better, quicker, and safer mode of curing all nervous diseases, than any other method or means hitherto discovered. They can be used by either a grown person or a child, are always ready for use, and with little care will last for years.

CAUTION.

Ladies who are enciente, are requested not to wear them, for by long use, miscarriage is apt to be produced.

Price of Chains, $3 to $5, and can be sent by mail to any part of the country, together with a pamphlet of 36 pages, containing the modes of use, certificates of cure, &c. J. STEINERT, General Agent,

GOODS CHEAPER THAN EVER BEFORE KNOWN.

JACKMAN, PARKER & CO. Are now receiving at their Store, corner of Main and Milwaukee streets, the most extensive assortment of Merchandise ever before received at any establishment in the State, consisting in part of a very general assortment of

STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS, READY MADE CLOTHING, HATS AND CAPS, BONNETS, BOOTS AND SHOES, GROCERIES, CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE, DRIED FRUIT, SALT, WATER LIME, GRIND STONES, &c.,

and every thing in the Shape of Merchandise that is wanted in any town or city. In the

DRY GOODS

Department our stock is at present the largest, richest and most magnificent ever before offered in Janesville. Among our DRESS GOODS may be found the most magnificent stock of Plain Black and Watered Gro de Rhine Silks, and Plain, Plaid and Striped Fancy Silks, ever offered for sale in Janesville.

The attention of the ladies is particularly directed to our very extensive assortment of

PLAIN BLACK SILKS.

We have some better Goods than can be found at any other store in the city, and our prices are as low as you will have to pay for an inferior article at other stores; also a very extensive assortment of All Wool and Silk and Wool, Plain and Figured Bareges, Barege Delaines, &c.

Among our stock of low priced Dress Goods may be found

3,000 yds. Fine French Lawns at 5½ c., sold at other stores at 1s. per yard.
4,000 do. 9c., sold at other stores 1s. 3d. per yard.
4,000 do. 1s. sold at other stores 1s. 6d. do.
2,000 do. Barege Delaines 1s., sold at other stores 2s. per yard.
10,000 do. Madder Prints, 6¼c, sold at other stores 10c per yard.

SHAWLS!

In this department we have a very extensive assortment of White Crape, Square and long, Plain and Figured Cashmere, Black and Colored Silk, Barege, and everything in the Shawl line, from the lowest price to the best article in the market.

EMBROIDERY GOODS.

We probably have a better assortment of these Goods than all the rest of the stores in Janesville put together, consisting of Flowing Sleeves, Habits, Chemisetts, Collars &c., of the most fashionable goods in market, which will be sold at LOWER PRICES than ever before sold in this State. The attention of the Ladies is particularly directed to these Goods.

PARASOLS.

We have now on sale 1600 Parasols. Our immense stock in these goods compels us to say that we will undersell any establishment in this City, at least 25 per cent.

4000 Yards

Fine, Fast Colored French Ginghams this day received, that we are selling at 1s. per yard. They cannot be matched in town less than 1s. 6d. Call soon, if you want to save 50 per cent in Ginghams, as they are going fast.

BONNET AND BONNET RIBBONS,

Cheaper than the Cheapest.

READY-MADE CLOTHING.

Our Clothing Rooms are well stocked with the best made and most fashionable clothing in the market.—We have the most extensive assortment of all kinds of clothing in Rock county, and we shall keep up the reputation we have already gained, of underselling any of our neighbors. Among our stock may be found 1,000 Linen Coats, warranted linen, at 75 cents each.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

We have now in store over 20,000 pairs of BOOTS AND SHOES, of all descriptions, which the people are requested to take a look at. When they examine the goods and hear the prices, we know they will purchase.

CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE.

In these goods we have a very extensive stock of the best ware in the market. Persons wanting full sets of crockery, will do well to give us a call, as they will save at least 25 per cent, and get the very best of ware

GROCERIES.

As usual our stock of these goods is very large and complete, and the choicest kind of goods. We have a few more chests of that splendid YOUNG HYSON TEA, that we have been selling so much of. Good Sugar for 4½c.

In conclusion, we would say that we find the Cash System the only one that will win. We buy our goods wholly for cash, and shall sell them for the same, and no other way; and consequently those that buy and sell on a credit of a year, eighteen months or two years, as the case may be, cannot sell goods at our prices.—THAT'S SO! For the proof of our assertion, call and examine our goods and prices.

EMPIRE CASH STORE!

The Cheapest Store in the County.

THE LARGEST, Most General and Best Selected Stock of MERCHANDISE ever introduced to the people of Rock and the adjoining counties is now received at the EMPIRE CASH STORE. A Stock larger than any Two Stores in Janesville to be Sold for CASH, at prices that all can see are at least 25 per cent lower than the PRETNDED CASH STORES SELL FOR.

We mean what we say exactly: We can sell you

FOR THE

Least amount of Money

Than any other Store in the county. For this reason we sell more Goods than any two Stores in Janesville, and this year we intend to sell more than any three, consequently, we can sell just one-third cheaper, as our expenses are no more by selling so much than they would be did we not sell any more than our neighbors.

Reduce The Price and Increase the Speed

Is the order of the day; and in order to do so, we have purchased this spring larger than ever, and intend to sell at prices to astonish everybody.

We buy Goods to SELL, and intend everybody shall understand this by our prices. We have purchased every thing by the Cord in the way of Merchandise. Our Stock embraces every thing in the Goods line, kept in such a store as ours only, commencing with

DRY GOODS, GROCERIES,

CROCKERY, HARDWARE in connection with a general STOVE TRADE.

READY-MADE CLOTHING,

BOOTS and SHOES, HATS, BONNETS,
RIBBONS and CAPS, &c. &c.,

To enumerate which would be impossible, (any one seeing our stock will be satisfied of that).

All we have to say is we have JUST WHAT YOU WANT, AT PRICES TO SUIT YOU, a fact which all can see by calling at the EMPIRE CASH STORE.

Capital and accumulation, $650,000.

THIS Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudently and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting its business has been to provide perfect security under all conceivable circumstances, for the payment of its losses under its policies, and to return to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and strict economy is observed.

Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessments beyond his premium.

The directors are required to be pecuniarily interested in the company, and they give it their personal attention; and bonds of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties.

Insurance may be effected for the benefit of the wife, which is secured to her by law beyond the reach of a husband's creditors; and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently you will have no losses only your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and such like property. In this company all such property is rejected positively, by letting them alone.

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

The best of references given as to the responsibility of the company.

CHIP'S

CELEBRATED WORMWOOD CORDIAL.

THE subscriber in introducing this valuable temperance beverage, would respectfully call the attention of the public to the fact, that it is prepared from green Wormwood, an herb that grows luxuriantly in the New England States, the medicinal qualities of which, for the regulation of the stomach and blood, cannot be equalled by anything ever used. It is a sure cure and preventive of Fever, Ague, Dyspepsia, Diarrhea, and all diseases arising from impurities of the blood or inaction of the stomach. Try it.

RAILROAD STORE!

I WISH to call attention, as I have done before,
To the Goods I am receiving now at the Railroad Store,
Where all the newest Fashions, to suit the young and old,
The richest and the cheapest goods in Janesville, will be sold.

My large and splendid stock of Lawns to show I'm always willing,
The price, as all the Ladies know, is from sixpence to a shilling.
I've Fine Black Silks from Italy, and colored ones that's rare,
Plaid, Grodenaps and Marcellaines, and Florences to spare.

And such a lot of Hosiery, I know cannot be beat,
And Gloves a great variety, they are so very neat:
Just now, when Spring is coming, and every thing looks bright,
For a glove to suit the season, the color should be light.

There are other Goods for Ladies, of which they ought to know,
That I keep in those blue boxes, and am always pleased to show,
Such as Blonde and Linen Edging, Cotton and Cambric, too,
Muslin and Cambric Needlework, and Gimps of every hue.

Those Undersleeves and Chimisettes I almost had forgot,
And Ladies' Needlework Collars, so beautifully wrought,
With Bishop Lawns and Cambrics, and Muslins fine and neat,
And Lace to make old ladies' Caps and trim them off complete.

And to parry Sol's "directer rays," I've Parasols to sell,
Of every price and color—they please the Ladies well—
And Umbrellas cheap for Gents, or so at least they say,
For lots of them get carried off, on every rainy day.

Such lots of Combs for the million, of every sort and kind,
To puff, or curl, or plait the hair, no better can you find;
And every kind of Buttons for dresses, coats and vests,
To sell by the gross or dozen—they are the very best.

And for Gentlemen and little Boys I have Fashionable Hats,
Silk, Beaver, Leghorn, Panama, and cloth and leather Caps;
And for infants, Hats with feathers and ribbons gay and bright,
And little Caps with tassels drab, orange, blue and white.

I have stacks of Linen, of yellow, brown and white,
And every other kind, of Summer Goods that's right
To make up into coats and pantaloons and vests—
As large a stock as any, that ever was brought West.

They say long advertisements, are not the oftenest read,
And that most may be meant, as oft, when least is said,
In view of this, I'll close my bill, and here invite you all,
Whenever you come to Janesville, be sure and give me a call.

A PERIODICAL IN JANESVILLE!

"The Wisconsin Home,"

A Miscellaneous and Reformatory Journal, will be printed on the first and fifteenth of each month from and after the

by Messrs. BAKER & DOTY, publishers and proprietors of the Janesville Free Press; and edited by WM. M. DOTY, of the above named firm.

Each No. of "THE WISCONSIN HOME" will consist of EIGHT PAGES; making a sheet, in point of size, nearly the same as the "Scientific American." We shall reserve ONLY ONE COLUMN OF ADVERTISING for the purpose of publishing an occasional prospectus in addition to our own; leaving THIRTY-ONE COLUMNS OF READING MATTER.

One or two good stories will appear in each No. but none except those having a directly moral and beneficial tendency will be admitted into its columns. A short summary of passing events will be given; but no political grounds will be taken. As a better idea may be formed by seeing the article itself, the first No. will be furnished to all who may wish to examine it, FREE OF CHARGE.

The TERMS of "The Wisconsin Home" will be ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR, payable half yearly in advance. Subscription books now open.

☞ Orders solicited early, especially for sample numbers, in order that we may know how large an edition will supply the demand. Address post-paid,

WM. M. DOTY, Janesville, Wis.

 Papers giving the above one insertion and calling attention thereto editorially, will not only be entitled to an exchange, but to the thanks of the proprietor.

AGAIN & AGAIN

THE BOSTON STORE.

Let the Horn be Blown!!

"Sound the loud timbrel o'er land and o'er sea,"
WHEELOCK'S triumphant, and ever shall be.

THIS is the middle of the nineteenth century, the first half of which has produced more change and onward movement than any fifty years of our Christian Era.

The great controlling power of this age is its commerce—indeed, this may be truly called the commercial age.

It has been well said by an ancient writer that

"Man wants but little here below,"

and to supply those wants

WHEELOCK

Announces to every people and every tongue, to both sexes and all parties, to all factions of all gauges, that finding his old store entirely

TOO SMALL!

He has been compelled, in order to be able to supply the immense call for goods at his establishment, to

Double the capacity of his Store Rooms!

Having purchased this spring, for this market, to be sold this season,

$39,007 00 Worth of Goods

But who can expect to read in the brief space of one life all the articles that the

BOSTON STORE CONTAINS.

Indeed, history must fail to give the searcher of knowledge any accurate idea of his immense

STOCK OF SUMMER GOODS,

His inimitable selection of

Fancy Dress Goods!

He has over

10,000 Yards of Silk Bareges,

of every style and price, and it is with no great difficulty that the fair damsels of this fair valley can select,

FROM THE ONE THOUSAND PIECES,

Of all patterns and ranging in price from SIX CENTS Per Yard to Twenty-Eight Cents, such dresses as will add to their exquisite beauty, though it may as a general thing, be as difficult to add to that beauty as it is "to gild refined gold, paint the lily, or add perfume to the violet."

It must not be inferred that we offer only these and the many other articles for outer apparel, such as Chamelion and Foulard Silks, but all manner of

are on change, so that every one may be entirely accommodated with every article of female apparrel.—Eved French red foxed Gaiters,
do do wolfed do
Ladies' Enameled Boots. Enameled sewed Congress Boots,
LADIES MOROCCO POLKAS,

And all the articles manufacutred of the best styles.—So that of this store, so far as articles which adorn La Belle sex are concerned, it may be truly said

"CUSTOM cannot stale the infinite variety."

While the Boston Store has made provision to protect the feet, it can also boast that it has all sorts of

GLOVES,

by which hands can be protected and retain

"The white wonder of fair Juliet's hand."

And in taking leave of those of whom it is no exaggeration to say they are

"Heaven's last, best gift to man,"

the Nonpareils of beauty, the Paragons of perfection, Mr. Wheelock assures his fair customers that his assistants and auxiliaries are those who unite great knowledge of the business, fine personal presence and affability of manner to a determination to discharge CONSCIENTIOUSLY their several and respective duties—that while they may have the proper desire to effect sales, they will never in imitation of many of our contemporaries attempt to accomplish that object by equivocation, misrepresentation, exaggeration, tergiversation, fabrication, or by direct lying.

And now to the wants of the

COARSE-HAND SEX.

Mr. Wheelock has every kind of material to make those articles of dress that give to man his individuality—

PANTALOONS,

CALF "BEWTS," COW HIDE do., GAZELLE, do., PATENT LEATHER do., GIRAFFE do.,

HATS

That fit every head from the Websterian brow to the country politician's sconce, from the size of caput of him who is closely shorn after the Hibernian fashion to that of him who wears the well-pomatumed, ambrosialized, elongated Hyperion curls.

And to the speculator who buys to sell again,

The Boston Store

Can, at lower rates of usance than any other establishment west of the Alleghany mountains, furnish that class of exchanges so that riches will fill their pockets as water fills the sea. And to them we offer

DOMESTIC GLASSWARE, WORSTED,
Pocket Handkerchiefs, Inkstands, Cotton Yarn,
Ready-made Vests, Ground Pepper, Flannels,
Looking Glasses, Ready-Made Over Coats, Pants,
Raisins, Flat Irons and Cotton Batting, Lanterns,
Satchels, which the whining school-boy with shining morning face bears on his arm,
Chests, Norwegian Bandboxes and Hair Trunks,
Tea, Tobacco and Wicking.

In the

CROCKERY

Line may be found the

BENNINGTON, the PARIAN and the LAVA Manufacture, Pitchers for milk or water, Tea Pots, Spittoons, Bowls for washing, for bread and milk, or sugar, Candlesticks, children's Toys and Flower Pots, MAINE LIQUOR LAW VOLUMES and Lager Beer Mugs.

And in fine, the proprietor of this establishment can with all confidence assure those who have been in the habit of trading at Janesville that, although they have

"Often seen corruption boil and bubble till
It o'errun the stew,"

they will find that the representations which shall be made to them by that proprietor or his clerks will not

"Stand like forfeits in a Barber shop,
More in mock than mark."

Shelf Hardware, Tin Ware,
Willow Ware, Stone Ware,
Haying Tools, Farming Tools, &c. &c.

The ONE PRICE CASH SYSTEM, originally introduced into this community and strictly adhered to by this Establishment, has won for it a reputation far more valuable than the Stupendous Self-puffings, quarterly renewed, industriously circulated but universally discredited, which many modern shop keepers deem indispensable to success.

The system will of course be continued—admitting no variation or improvement—to the satisfaction undoubtedly of a large and most desirable class of customers, although at the sacrifice probably of the steady patronage of inveterate higglers and those who inherit the belief that all Salesmen will cheat them if possible.

Respectfully,

COOLEY & BABCOCK.

GREAT SALE OF REAL ESTATE!

600 Village Lots!

THE undersigned offers at private sale SIX HUNDRED VILLAGE LOTS, situated in "Hickory Glen" and "Pixley & Shaw's" addition to Janesville, and located in the immediate vicinity of the Milwaukee and Mississippi railroad depot, in the city of Janesville.

The above property is but a short distance from the present business center of the thriving city of Janesville, and towards which, through the influence of the various railroads, in operation and projected, the business of the city is fast finding its way.

It is unnecessary to speak of the peculiar advantages of an investment in a property so centrally located in the largest inland city in the State of Wisconsin—a city so widely known for its thrift and business prosperity, possessing extensive water-power and surrounded by the best farming country in the world—as every one at all conversant with the progress of western cities will see at once these advantages.

The above property is offered at very low rates, and on the most favorable terms, particularly to those who wish to make immediate improvements on purchases.

Also, 1,000 Acres of the

Best Improved Farming Lands,

situated within a few miles of the city, which will be sold in lots to suit purchasers, from 40 to 320 acres.

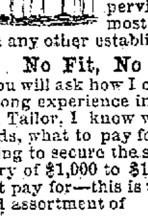

For particulars enquire of the undersigned at "Pixley & Kimball's Hardware Store," or of THOMAS SHAW. B. F. PIXLEY.

Janesville Clothing Emporium.

WM. ADDY,

Merchant Tailor, & Dealer in Ready Made Clothing and Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods,

HAS received his Spring and Summer STOCK, consisting of the very Best and Fashionable CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, DOESKINS AND VESTINGS, of English, French and American manufacture.

This establishment is now, as usual, the favorite place of resort for the Fashionable, the Cutting Department still being under my own personal supervision, and warranted to suit the most difficult, twenty per cent lower than any other establishment in the State.

No Fit, No Sale. is my doctrine.

You will ask how I can do this; I will tell you: From my long experience in this business, and being a practical Tailor, I know when, where and how to buy my Goods, what to pay for them, and how to cut them, not having to secure the services of an eminent artist, at a salary of $1,000 to $1,500 a year, which the purchaser must pay for—this is the secret. I have got on hand a good assortment of

of my own manufacture, and warranted in every respect. Call and examine, before you buy elsewhere.

☞ TERMS CASH.

NEW GOODS!

$15,000 Worth of

JUST RECEIVED AT THE

Wisconsin Boot & Shoe Store.

I AM now receiving one of the largest and finest stocks of Boots and Shoes that I have ever before brought to Janesville, and what is finer than all the rest, I can sell them at lower prices than I have ever sold before, notwithstanding the great advance in the Eastern Market. My assortment of

Ladies Fine Shoes,

in particular, I have no hesitation in saying cannot be equaled in the State, both for style and durability, being all made to order, and in such a manner that I can warrant every article I sell, with the understanding at all times, that if they do not come up to the warrant, they shall be mended free of charge.

GENTLEMEN'S WEAR.

In this line I know beyond a doubt that I can show you a finer assortment and at better prices by twenty-five per cent. than can be found at any of the side shops or Dry Goods stores about town. I want it distinctly understood that I make the BOOT AND SHOE TRADE my WHOLE STUDY, and that I Buy More, Sell More and know more about the trade, than the whole pile of petty dealers put together. And I know also that I can make it an object for Every Farmer in Rock County, as well as every one that trades in Janesville to buy their Boots and Shoes of me for the more I sell the smaller profits I can sell at.

Manufacturing.

I want to say a few words to you in regard to my Manufacturing Department, to wit: That I am now engaged more extensively in the manufacturing business, and probably am selling more custom work than all the shops about town put together, simply for these reasons—that I use better Stock, being entirely of Eastern tannage, which every one knows is worth twenty-five per cent more than the common western tanned leather; and what is a better reason and of greater importance, I can

and at the same time sell you a better article than you can get at the shops, for this reason, which you must all see is a very palpable one, that in buying my stock east and in such large quantities, I of course save a very large per cent, and thereby can sell at lower prices and at the same time make my profits.

I want to state further that I have secured the services of MR. BUCKINGHAM, who has formerly been engaged in the manufacturing business on the west side of the River, and who is known by every one to be the best manufacturer in the city; and if we don't get you up a better article, both in regard to style and durability, we will forfeit our money and our reputation, and I pledge you my word that this is no small forfeit.

Leather and Findings.

I have just received over $3,000 worth of the very best brands of Eastern Sole & Upper Leather; also, a very large assortment of FRENCH and PHILADELPHIA KIP and FRENCH CALF SKINS, together with a full assortment of MOROCCOS of every kind, which I will sell at

Precisely Milwaukee and Chicago Prices.

I have constantly on hand, also, a large assortment of all kings of FINDINGS, LASTS, BOOT TREES, CRIMPS, etc., etc., all of which will be sold at the same rates.

I request the attention of manufacturers in town as well as in the country to my stock, as I think I can make it an object for you to buy of me. At least, I can sell you a much superior article to that which you get of the pedlers.

TO THE LADIES,

I would say that I am under very great obligation for the partiality you have shown me, in always procuring your understandings from me, and I now publicly promise and swear that I will make every one of you who may be entitled to the same a present of a handsome pair of CACKS, when I shall have closed up my shoe-selling career. I would say further, that I am prepared to get up to order any style of work you wish, at low rates. Yours respectfully,

THE POWER OF LOVE.

[Concluded.]

As Jasper said this, he rose from his chair, and staggered towards the door. He paused a moment, as he held the nob in his hand—perhaps with the thought that his wife might speak a kind word to him, or show some alarm at the idea of his leaving her. Busy, terrible thoughts were running through his head. The room seemed to turn round and round. He opened the door and passed into the hall; but no voice came from Mary. She sat silent as stone, but with a heart bursting with grief. She dearly loved her husband, and longed to speak the kind word that would turn him back, but pride and stubbornness forbade. The sound of his unsteady steps, as he passed along the hall to the front door, fell forebodingly upon her ear, and when that door was closed behind him, and Jasper stood irresolute without the house, the fountains of her grief were opened, and she wept and sobbed most piteously.

It was a sad, sad sight, that young wife with all her hopes blighted, the chosen of her heart given up to the most debasing of all sins, her young child deprived of its protector, with immediate ruin and starvation staring her in the face, with no solitary hope in the future, and all the agony of the present. The memories of happier days rose before her—the innocent days of her girlhood, surrounded with gay companions, and blessed with a mother's love. All these she had sacrificed for the man she loved. How was she repaid? What had she done to deserve so bitter a fate? What dreadful sin had she committed to be thus punished? How unequal seems the reward and chastisements of life. Mary thus reflected and almost arraigned the justice and beneficence of God. Jasper had left the house in anger. What might happen to him in his present condition? Where would he go? Such were the wife's fears, though she hoped that he might return as soon as his anger had a little subsided. She was sorry that she had spoken so harshly to him. That was no way to redeem him; but had she not tried kind words till her patience was exhausted? And what woman would not get angry with a drunken husband? Such were this poor ill-treated wife's emotions, and who could blame her?

All at once she thought that she would go to the door to see if Jasper had really gone. She rose from her chair for that purpose, and half way crossed the room. But pride rebelled again. She would not show him that she was at all worried about him. It was all he wanted, and he should not be gratified; so she returned once more to her chair, where she wept as though her heart was breaking, and like enough it was for all that, for she was indeed most miserable.

When Jasper had closed the door behind him, and stood out once more in the open night air he was undecided what to do, or where to go. Maddened as he was by the reproaches of his wife, self-condemned by an accusing conscience, sick and weary with liquor and excitement, it is no wonder that his first thought was suicide. No wonder that he felt unworthy to live; strange that he did not think himself unfit to die. Such is the direful effects of the intoxicating bowl—such the "deep damnation" with which it is drugged. Far more dangerous than the diecr's box, it kills both body and soul, and its train is made up of disease, imbecility, lunacy, poverty, crime, the prison and the gallows! There is no innocence in it; it blights wherever it falls; it stains all it touches. It makes desolate the family hearthstone. It pits man against his brother; it raises the hand of the child against the parent; even the innocent are made sufferers thereby; and the loud wail of its myriads of victims rises up from every quarter of the civilized world. It is one of the curses invented by civilization, and to that only does it owe its birth; for the African in his native state is uncontaminated with it; and the vilest animal that exists turns away from it with disgust.

Jasper, when he had closed the door, paused for some minutes, undetermined what to do.—We have said that his first thought was suicide.

"I am not fit to live!" he exclaimed. I know I am wrong, and yet I cannot help it—I cannot help it, and I might as well die at once, as live on in disgrace. Somebody will take care of Mary. She will go back to her mother; and she will be much happier and far better off without me than with me. I cannot stand her reproaches—I will not. As for any future, it cannot be worse for me than the present, at any rate. Yes, I may as well die!"

Though Jasper talked thus about suicide, we do not suppose he had any more distinct idea of it than of anything else that might happen to be rambling through his head. The fumes of the liquor were still upon him. He was not more than half sober and his legs were still so weak under him, that they carried him with a wavering gait, and his head buzzed, buzzed like a nest of bees. But he meant to punish his wife for talking so angrily with him. At one moment he had half a mind to turn back, and go to bed; but the devil had the better of him, and mustering up his resolution, he buttoned his coat about him, and proceeded to descend into the street. The first step he made, however, was a false one. His knees bent under him. He made a vain and desperate attempt to catch at the iron railing of the stoop, but missed his hold, and pitched forward into the street, striking head first upon the side walk, and cutting and bruising his face in a terrible manner, so as to render him completely insensible.

Now it so happened that at this moment Mary thought that she would go to the door and look out; not that she doubted but what Jasper had gone, still at the same time half inclined to believe that he might be still in sight, and within call.

So she opened the door, and peered forth into the cold night air. How still and silent everything around. She looked up the street, and down the street; but the object which her eyes sought met them not. She drew a heavy sigh, as her heart felt a pang greater than she had known before, and she was about to close the door, when her ears were startled by a low moan, and then, for the first time, casting her eyes down upon the side walk, they rested upon the form of her husband.

With a cry of terror, Mary was in an instant stooping by the side of Jasper, urging him with all the dearest language of her heart, to look up, to speak, to even rise; but alas! it was beyond his power. Vainly she tried to lift him, but her strength was not equal to the task. Oh, how bitterly she then repented all the unkind words she had said to him—how every reproach smote upon her heart. She forgot all his errors—she became blind to his numerous faults, and Jasper was once more her best beloved. Every word of endearment she could think of, she poured forth with a voluble tongue, but they all fell ineffectually upon his ear. What should she do? Jasper would die, and there were none to help her. She was ashamed to cry aloud for aid. To claim the assistance of the neighbors, would be to expose her husband's condition, and so she strove with all her little strength to raise him, and get him into the house, but all her efforts failed. In his present condition, Jasper would die—where, then, was her relief?—where should she receive assistance?

Fortunately, at this moment, one of the city watchmen came along. Mary at once appealed to him. He was a strong built, stalwart fellow, and at once took Jasper up in his arms, and carried him into the house, and up stairs to his bed. He then volunteered to call a physician, one fortunately living within a few doors of the house. In the meantime Mary applied all the restoratives she could think of. She wetted a towel with vinegar, and bathed his temples, and wiped the blood from a large wound in his forehead. His pulse was feeble, and his breathing indistinct and difficult. Ah, poor wife! this was about the crowning of all your misery!

The physician was soon in attendance. He examined the wound in Jasper's head, and pronounced it a slight fracture of the skull; but said that with proper treatment and careful attention he might recover, though it might be some weeks first. The wound was then dressed and restorative cordials administered, and the doctor left, saying that he would call again early in the morning.

For more than two hours did Jasper lie insensible, and when at last he opened his eyes and spoke, it became evident that his mind was wandering. And now came Mary's opportunity to show her devotion and attention. How she watched by her sick husband's side, administering with angelic patience to his every want—never for a moment tired of her duty. Notwithstanding the sorrow that she felt for Jasper's misfortune, she could but acknowledge to herself, that she had seldom enjoyed so much happiness before. He was now all her own. Each hour that she spent by his bedside, was a small life-time of bliss. She could read to him, talk to him, and sing to him. Even Jasper himself, when his reason was fully restored, acknowledged that he had never before known how great a treasure he possessed in his wife.

After the first week of his confinement, he began to mend rapidly. He had also ample time to reflect upon his errors, and upon his neglect of his wife; and what most particularly elicited his admiration, was her own silence upon the cause of his accident. He could not but appreciate such delicacy, and he inwardly determined that, when restored to health, he would refrain from his past habits of dissipation, and devote the remainder of his life in securing the happiness of his wife and child; and he was fully confirmed in this resolution when he learned from her lips, that during his illness, she had procured the means of subsistence by pawning a considerable portion of her jewelry, among which was a gold watch that was made a present of by her mother on her wedding day. In his expression of gratitude to her, he was extravagantly lavish, and protested again and again that nothing in future should ever make him remiss in his duties to his family. You can easily imagine with what boundless joy Mary received his assurances. It was like a new plighting of their faith—a second betrothal, as it were, in which all her earlier bliss was to be renewed. Heaven had at last smiled upon her. The clouds of despair and doubt were dispelled, and together they looked forward to many years of domestic enjoyment.

But did he keep the pledge thus given? As faithfully as ever pledge was kept. Woman's devotion had at last reclaimed him. What reproaches could not effect, was accomplished by love. The lesson was not lost upon either.—Jasper once more became the true and earnest man. He had absolved himself from a slavish and debasing habit. No more nights were spent at carousal among debauched inebriates; no more hard earned dollars went into the rum seller's till. He walked in peace and pleasantness and lived in prosperity; and to this day, there are no happier men and wives in the city than Jasper and Mary Hanley. Let all husbands thus appreciate their wives; and let all true women who have husbands to reform, commence the work in kindness, and follow it up in the true spirit of love, and "verily they shall have their reward."

VERMONT.—The division in this state among the friends of freedom have been happily removed by the forbearance, liberality and wisdom of the several parties. The state committee nominated by the mass convention, which met at Montpelier, have placed Judge Royce, the whig nominee for governor, upon their ticket, and he has accepted their nomination in a letter declaring the resolutions of the two conventions, so far as they properly go to constitute a political platform for the future, as substantially the same. So also the whigs have accepted as their own candidate Gen. Fletcher, the nominee of the Montpelier convention, for lieut. governor, and he has likewise signified his acceptance and his endorsement of the resolutions adopted at the whig state convention at Rutland. In his letter of acceptance he adds:

"The freemen of the north have too long been divided into hostile parties, expending that strength against each other which should have been unitedly employed in sustaining the cause of freedom, while at the south, where the interests of slavery are involved, all party lines are obliterated, and all are found in a solid column, with an unbroken front. Slavery forms a bond of union stronger than the ordinary ties of party; hence the power and success of the south. Divided we have fallen, divided we must ever fall, before the all-grasping and ever-encroaching slave power.

"The heart of the patriot is cheered in the present alarming condition of our country, by the prospect that those who love and value our free and happy institution will now ardently unite in their support."

In the recent conventions in Washington and Orange counties, the opponents of the Nebraska outrage have united in the nomination of county officers and of state senators. Similar unions have been made in Chittenden, Addison, Rutland, and other counties, and it is exceedingly doubtful whether a single advocate of the Nebraska bill or a friend of the administration will be chosen to the senate in the state.

Hon. James Meacham has been renominated to congress in the first congressional district; Hon. Justin S. Morril has been selected in the second, in the place of Mr. Tracy, who declines a re-election, and Mr. Sabine was re-nominated by the convention of the third district, which met at St. Albans on Tuesday.—New Hampshire Statesman.

GOVERNOR GRIMES.—The Galena Gazette has the following brief sketch of the life of the newly elected republican governor of Iowa.

Mr. Grimes is an old settler of Iowa, but is yet a young man. He is a native of New Hampshire and a graduate of Dartmouth College.—We believe he was at Burlington, Iowa, as early as 1836. In 1837 we recollect him as secretary to Gov. Dodge, in the negotiation of some Indian treaties. He is a lawyer but has retired from his profession with a competency, and gone largely into the business of stock raising and farming. His recent contest and its results has given him a national reputation, which he have nobly earned.

JANESVILLE : : : : WISCONSIN.

MONDAY MORNING, AUG. 28, 1854.

SENATOR DOUGLAS.—This individual has at last ventured to show his infamous head in Chicago, and the Tribune devotes a column and a half of warm welcome to him, in which his treachery to northern interests is shown up in indignant but truthful phrase. Immediately after the passage of the Nebraska bill the very few friends he had left in Chicago proposed to have him visit that city, but so palpable were the indications that he would meet with insult and perhaps violence, should he then risk himself among his exasperated constituency, the advice of his friends and his own caution kept him away. Supposing the excitement had somewhat subsided, he now visits the city. The Tribune says:

He must have come by mail under one of his own franks, for the first place at which he was seen was the private room of our post-master, in solemn conclave with that dignitary and some dozen others of that clique. The result of their deliberations will doubtless be seen anon. His only public appearance was made in the saloon of "Young America"—the drinking hole—where his entrance of course created a marked sensation, and an increased demand for ponies and smashes.

His arrival here was distinguished by nothing save the supreme contempt and indifference manifested by the citizens of this place upon hearing of the fact. No attention whatever was paid him—he was met by no demonstration of honor or regard; he was harrassed by none of the annoying but yet eagerly sought honors of a public reception. He arrived in the city just as John Smith or William Brown would arrive here, and excited no more attention, excepting among a few office holders and expectants.—He has sunk very low—so low as to be beneath the gratuitous attentions of a free and enlightened community.

In reference to his action in the Senate upon the great questions that vitally affect the northwest, and the feeling due him, the Tribune well says:

"Stephen A. Douglas has no claim upon the courtesy or kindness of the people of Chicago, but he has the deepest reasons to fear their detestation, their abhorrence, their rebukes, and their vengeance. He has betrayed us; he has disregarded us; he has insulted us; he has disgraced us; he has injured us in our reputation, our fair fame, our honor, and our pecuniary interests. He has turned a deaf ear to the voice of our best and most worthy citizens, who remonstrated with him upon his iniquities, and he has reviled and insulted and blackguarded the united clergy of our city, as they petitioned congress to abstain from the violation of national honor and plighted good faith. He has stabbed us in our commercial prosperity, and has placed in jeopardy the lives of our mariners, by refusing to give his vote and influence for our River and Harbor bill, and in all his acts, has disregarded our interests, and studied how to oppress us. Indeed, had he been sent to congress by some other state, with the express and entire intention of injuring and oppressing Chicago and Illinois, he could not have done more to please his employers than he has done during the past winter and spring. It is no wonder that he feared to meet the reproachful faces of those whom he has betrayed!"

BEATEN, AFTER ALL.—The defeat of the Nebraska democracy of Iowa is one of the most significant as well as cheering signs of the times, and its value is enhanced by the character of the means adopted to avert it. Preceding the election a report was circulated that congress had passed the homestead bill, and extras and placards to that effect were sent all over the state, reminding every poor man and squatter that a democratic congress and president had conferred upon them the great boon of homes for little or nothing. This trick must have saved a good many votes, and yet the party was disastrously beaten. Nebraska was too odious to be saved even with the help of the homestead.

FEELING IN THE WEST.—The Grant County Herald has a call for a "mass convention of anti-Nebraska men," to be held in Lancaster, on the 6th of September. The call states the object to be "effectively organizing for the approaching elections, upon a basis of perfect union with the anti-Nebraska party in other parts of the state and United States." The Herald, which as our readers well know from the extracts we have republished from it, does its own thinking, and always has a reason, usually a good one, for its opinions, favors the movement, although it is not exactly what it would like. From peculiar causes we feared the action of the Madison convention of the 13th of July would not be very cordially received in the western counties of the state, but we find a heartier concurrence there than we expected, and this movement in Grant county is a good sign in the right quarter.

A SET-BACK.—A majority of the stockholders of the Jeffersonville railroad, which runs through Indiana, ordained a regulation for the road that no negro should ride over it without a passport certifying to his freedom—thus endeavoring to impose upon Indiana the discipline of the plantation. In this effort to "enlarge the area of freedom "and extend the "blessings" of their peculiar "institution," they have been very promptly checkmated by the courts of Indiana, which hold that the state is a free one, and every person is presumed to be free until he has been proved a slave.

☞ Mr. Densmore philosophises at some length over "reform," in order to get a chance to lecture the Janesville Gazette. When the weather cools off, we may look to our Kenosha neighbor a little. At present we can only say that many a good caurse has been injured by a "stationery" advocate.

If any young man wants to reach the "high top-gallant-mast of felicity," let him make a journey through Maine, seated on the back seat of a stage coach between two down east girls with only one piece of spruce gum for the three to chew. The editor of the Boston Herald has tried it.

BOOK ITEMS.

THE RUSSIAN OF THE BLACK SEA., &c. By LAURENCE OLIPHANT. Redfield, 110 and 112 Nassau street, New York.

In this pleasing little volume we have a book for the times, written by an observing man, well fitted for the post he assumes. Maps of different parts of the czar's dominions aid the reader and from Cronstadt around to Sebastopol you can travel in good company with our author. His book is very readable and cannot fail to be of use to those interested in European affairs. Mr. O. is a good humored companion, writes cleverly and philosophises about Russia, Turkey, Hungary and Europe generally, in a sensible manner. For sale at Sutherland's.

By the way, who has noticed the emblem on Redfield's title pages. A ring made of a serpent, the mythological symbol of eternity; and a lamp in the centre of the ring, the lamp of knowledge, shining forever. Happy symbol, say we.

A FINE GIFT.—The Messrs. Drake have our thanks for a very choice bouquet of flowers gathered from their nursery in this city. It contained some of the finest specimens of dahlias we have ever seen, and a most bountiful number. The Messrs. D. have a large variety of these flowers, and those who wish to see them in blossom, for the purpose of selecting hereafter, would do well to call at the nursery, where they may be seen.

TRACK RE-LAID.—The Madison Argus of the 24th says that the sink hole in the bed of the Milwaukee road, near that place, has been bridged and the track re-laid.

A NEW AMERICAN NOVEL.—The Buffalo Commercial says that G. P. R. James, the famous English writer of fiction, has written an American novel which the Harpers are to bring out. It is entitled "Ticonderoga," where the scene is laid. It is based on incidents occurring at the time of Gen. Abercrombie's expedition.

A NEW BANK.—The Madison Journal says that a new bank, to be called the Madison Bank, is talked about in that place. Mr. Lowe, the cashier, has deposited securities to the amount of $5,0000 with the comptroller, and gone last to procure the plates for the bills. It is expected the bank will open about the first of October next.

☞ Mr. Grimes, the recently elected governor of Iowa is a native of Deering, N. H.

EUGENIA.—A Paris letter to the New York Herald says:—"There is a scandal just now prevalent in England, that the same miserable tragedy is about to be acted in France which was played in Napoleon the Great's time, and which dishonored and broke the heart of the empress Josephine. Hereditary succession will be the cause of this cruel and unnatural act, if it be accomplished."

SINGULAR DISCLOSEURE.—A surgeon in the United States army recently desired to know the most common cause of enlistment. By permission of the captain, in a company containing fifty five, the writer pledged never to disclose the name of officers or private, except as a physical or matuphysical fact; the true history was obtained of every man. On investigation, it appeared that nine tenths enlisted on account of some female difficulty, thirteen had changed their names, and forty-three were either drunk, or partially so, at the time of their enlistment.—Most of them were men of fine talents and had once been in elevated positions of life. Four had been lawyers, three doctors, and two ministers.

RIGHT.—The token of recognition has finally been discovered by a close observer. When a know nothing wishes to recognise another, he closes one eye, makes an 0 with his thumb and finger, and places his nose through it—which being interpreted reads:

"Eye——nose——0."
"I——knows—nothing."

A NORTH CAROLINA EDITOR.—The Milton Chronicle sums up the occupations of his neighbor of the Spectator as follows:

He is an officating minister of the gospel; a licensed attorney; a newspaper editor; agent for nearly all the insurance and assurance companies north of the Potomac; commissioner for thirty states, and an applicant for the same when Kansas and Nebraska shall have come in; bank director; chairman of the board of superintendents of common schools; temperance orator; agent and counsel for Wake Forest college; president and secretary of all the boards of the Baptist church, &c., and in addition, he owns more town property, has the neatest farm, the best fruits and the finest cattle of any man in the country.

We walked to church on Sunday morning, behind "the girl with the hole in her stocking." It was a very large one and we thought her heel must be cold. She probably knew of it Saturday, but remembered the Sabbath day to keep it hole-y.

Something New!!

MR. CHARLES AUSTIN, the celebrated Reed maker has just completed his new Organ Reed, upon which he has labored for the last five years and expended more than six thousand dollars. This reed is different from all others in its composition, being much larger and having more power. It is intended for Church and Parlor Organs as manufactured by Messrs. Austin & Co. These Organs have an upright (Organ) action and are of the shape of all Church Organs. The price will range from $175 to $300, depending upon the finish of the case. To churches in want of an instrument of that value we would say that they have more power than any common Organ costing, $500.

J. F. Pease & Co., Janesville Wis., are interested in the manufacture and sale of these instruments, and are the only persons through whom they can be had. They will have one or more for exhibition as early as Sept. 10, and after that a good assortment as soon as they can be manufactured.

KIER'S ROCK OIL,

FROM a Well 400 feet deep, Near Pittsburgh, Pa., is offered to the public as a Natural Medicine of no common value. It is a different thing from the old Kentucky or American Oil, as this is used INTERNALLY as well as externally. As a local remedy in Paralysis, Piles, Rheumatism, Deafness, Loss of Sight, Burns, &c.—also, as a valuable Internal Remedy for Piles, Ague, Scrofula, Coughs, Diarrhœa, Erysipelas, old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Female Diseases, Worms, Bladder and Kidneys, Bronchitis, Pains &c. &c., it invites the investigating Physician, as well as the suffering patient, to become acquainted with its merits.

Discovered in 1849, it has within 2 or 3 years, made multitudes of cures, and multitudes of friends—and as soon as tried the Sales not only increase but hold out. Testimony to its great merit is constantly accumulating in the hands of the proprietor by certificates, letters, and in other ways.

IT DOCTORS THE WHOLE MAN—flesh and blood—skin and bones—from head to foot—how it acts upon the system—upon diseases of different manifestations, we cannot fully tell. While it is both cathartic and astringent, it is Alterative—and mind you, a REGULATOR. A leading principle in it is Naptha. When you once have it in the family you will not be without it.

Full as the world is of Patent Medicines—it is thought not best to suppress this, the work of NATURE—to make room for Human inventions. Price 50 cents per bottle. It can be had of wholesalers at the large cities and towns in the West at Proprietor's prices.

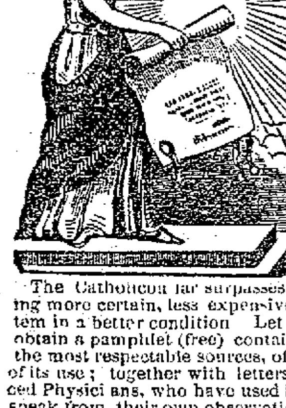

HAVE WE AGUE AMONG US?—A tea spoonful every three hours in the absence of the fever will cure you of Ague or Diarrhœa. ☞ Physicians, Druggists, and all friends of the afflicted, will do well to recommend this Oil for PROLAPSUS UTERI, and good will be done—take the usual dose 2 or 3 times a day, and bathe the lower part of the back with it. Have you SCROFULA? The Petroleum will eradicate it, root and branch, at little cost or inconvenience. Get circulars of directions for adults and children, gratis of the agents. A trial is all we ask. Mind and get the right kind—it is of a beautiful reddish color and clear. Try it for Piles.

For sale by HOLDEN KEMP & CO., C. F. Simms, Cary & Gordon, Beloit; G. W. Kinsie, Magnolia; Goodrich, Davis & Co., Milton; S. A. Pond, Albany; P. D. Vaughn & Co., Union; H. Cheney, Johnstown; M. Elliot, Monroe. 43m8

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S CELEBRRAED CATHOLICON,

FOR THE RELIEF AND CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called Female Complaints. Of these are Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the womb; Fluor Albus, or Whites; Chronic Inflammation and Ulceration of the Womb; Incidental Hemorrhage, or Flooding; Painful Menstruation &c with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted,) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

The Catholicon far surpasses other remedies, in being more certain, less expensive, and leaving the system in a better condition. Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

Sky-Light Daguerreotypes.

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICE.

75 Cents to $5,00.

MR. J. E. POWERS, lately from Troy, (N. Y.) respectfully informs the Ladies and Gentlemen of this place and vicinity that he has made a permanent location in Janesville, and has taken rooms over EHLE'S JEWELRY STORE, where he is prepared to take

Daguerreotype Likenesses,

Either single or in groups, not to be surpassed in Wisconsin. Miniatures taken in as good style as the Art can produce, having all the improved chemicals of the age, which, together with the advantages of a superior light, enable him to give a clear, bold and life-like picture.

Miniatures taken in all weathers equally well, and warranted not to fade in the least, from 75 cents to $1. Pictures taken over for 50 cents.

Lockets and fancy cases of all styles furnished to order, and also miniatures in Pin and Bracelets.

Miniatures of sick or diseased persons taken at their residences if required.

Pictures of Children of any age correctly taken at very low rates.

His Room will be open from 7 A. M. to 5 P. M., and he invites all those that wish to see GOOD Pictures, to whether they wish likenesses or not.

Call and Examine his Specimens,

Among these specimens are Miniatures of Henry Clay, John P. Hale, Jenny Lind and General Tom Thumb.

Instructions given in the art on reasonable terms.

1000 Dollars Reward,

WILL be given to any person—Physician or otherwise—who will perform a cure as quickly and permanently, by any means whatever, of any of the following diseases, as can be done by the use of

PULVERMACHER'S

Hydro-Electric Voltaic Chains.

Rheumatism, Nervous Headache,
Painful and Swelled Joints, Palpitation of the Heart,
Sciatica, General Debility,
Paralysis, Female Diseases,
Spinal Disease, Neuralgia of the Face,
Deafness, Blindness, Rheumatic Pains of the
Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Chest

ALL NERVOUS DISEASES

Are almost instantly removed by the simple application of the Electric Chains, which are constructed so as to be worn next to the skin, producing a constant current of uninterrupted Electro-Magnetism, which within the last few years has been discovered to possess STRANGE and WONDERFUL POWER, in the INSTANT RELIEF and PERMANENT CURE of nervous diseases.

HISTORY.

Pulvermachers' Chain are presented to the public, as the most scientific and convenient mode of applying this powerful agent. They have been secured by patent in France, (where they were invented) England, Germany, Austria, Belgium, and one year since introduced into the United States, and also secured by patent. They are used in every Hospital in the State of New York, and highly recommended by professors Valentine Mott, Van Buren, Post, Carnochan, of that city, who daily make use of them in their practice.

THE WORLD IS CHALLENGED

to produce so many well authenticated certificates of cure, not only from intelligent patients, but from scientific Physicians. The sale now in New York is perfectly ASTONISHING, and thousands who visit the Crystal Palace where they are on exhibition, seldom fail to obtain a chain before they leave the city.

Thanks be to the common sense of the people who are beginning to become disgusted with the practice of making a Drug Shop of their stomach—swallowing bottle after bottle of sickening, disgusting trash, having no more effect in even relieving, much less curing, the disease for which they are recommended, than a Poor Man's Plaster applied to the top of the head would have in curing an infant of worms.

All these great and remarkable discoveries, by which every ill "which flesh is heir to" is eradicated from the earth—strange as it may seem—are made by men who are too ignorant to obtain a living by any other mode, and their knowledge of disease, its proper mode of cure, its cause, is just as extensive as an Arab's is of the mechanism of a steam engine. No intelligent person will deny the truth of this, and no Physician dare risk his reputation as an honest man, and declare that nervous diseases are not more frequently increased in severity than relieved, by the old antiquated way of giving medicine into the stomach. If people will only become sensible and think for themselves, and believe that physicians practice upon their credulity more than they have any idea of, pay strict attention to temperance in all things, (which means very much,) make free use of pure cold water, internally and externally, with an occasional dash of soap, sleep in freely ventilated rooms, retire early and rise early, be happy and cheerful, employ their physicians to tell them "they require no physic;"—by so doing health and happiness will increase, bottled molasses and water be at a discount, and its famous discoverers be consigned to their legitimate stations.

The Hydro-Electric chains are now for the first time offered to the people of Nashua, as being a better, quicker, and safer mode of curing all nervous diseases, than any other method or means hitherto discovered. They can be used by either a grown person or a child, are always ready for use, and with little care will last for years.

CAUTION.

Ladies who are enciente, are requested not to wear them, for by long use, miscarriage is apt to be produced.

The Spring & Summer Campaign of 1854 IS NOW OPEN.

A NEW WAR AGAINST HIGH PRICES OF MERCHANDISE HAS JUST BROKEN OUT, AT

THE LITTLE REGULATOR OF The Dry Goods Trade.

IMMENSE DAILY ARRIVALS! Cash System Triumphant!

GOODS CHEAPER THAN EVER BEFORE KNOWN.

JACKMAN, PARKER & CO. Are now receiving at their Store, corner of Main and Milwaukee streets, the most extensive assortment of Merchandise ever before received at any establishment in the State, consisting in part of a very general assortment of

STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS, READY MADE CLOTHING, HATS AND CAPS, BONNETS, BOOTS AND SHOES, GROCERIES, CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE, DRIED FRUIT, SALT, WATER LIME, GRIND STONES, &c.,

and every thing in the shape of Merchandise that is wanted in any town or city. In the

DRY GOODS

Department our stock is at present the largest, richest and most magnificent ever before offered in Janesville. Among our DRESS GOODS may be found the most magnificent stock of Plain Black and Watered Gro de Rhine Silks, and Plain, Plaid and Striped Fancy Silks, ever offered for sale in Janesville.

The attention of the ladies is particularly directed to our very extensive assortment of

PLAIN BLACK SILKS.

We have some better Goods than can be found at any other store in the city, and our prices are as low as you will have to pay for an inferior article at other stores; also a very extensive assortment of All Wool and Silk and Wool, Plain and Figured Bareges, Barege Delaines, &c.

Among our stock of low priced Dress Goods may be found

3,000 yds. Fine French Lawns at 5¼ c., sold at other stores at 1s. per yard.
4,000 do. 9c., sold at other stores 1s. 3d. per yard.
4,000 do. 1s. sold at other stores 1s. 6d. do.
2,000 do. Barege Delaines 1s., sold at other stores 2s. per yard.
10,000 do. Madder Prints, 6¼c, sold at other stores 10c per yard.

SHAWLS!

In this department we have a very extensive assortment of White Crape, Square and long, Plain and Figured Cashmere, Black and Colored Silk, Barege, and everything in the Shawl line, from the lowest price to the best article in the market.

EMBROIDERY GOODS.

We probably have a better assortment of these Goods than all the rest of the stores in Janesville put together, consisting of Flowing Sleeves, Habits, Chemisetts, Collars &c., of the most fashionable goods in market, which will be sold at LOWER PRICES than ever before sold in this State. The attention of the Ladies is particularly directed to these Goods.

PARASOLS.

We have now on sale 1600 Parasols. Our immense stock in these goods compels us to say that we will undersell any establishment in this City, at least 25 per cent.

4000 Yards

Fine, Fast Colored French Ginghams this day received, that we are selling at 1s. per yard. They cannot be matched in town less than 1s. 6d. Call soon, if you want to save 50 per cent in Ginghams, as they are going fast

BONNET AND BONNET RIBBONS, Cheaper than the Cheapest.

READY-MADE CLOTHING.

Our Clothing Rooms are well stocked with the best made and most fashionable clothing in the market.—We have the most extensive assortment of all kinds of clothing in Rock county, and we shall keep up the reputation we have already gained, of underselling any of our neighbors. Among our stock may be found 1,000 Linen Coats, warranted linen, at 75 cents each.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

We have now in store over 20,000 pairs of BOOTS AND SHOES, of all descriptions, which the people are requested to take a look at. When they examine the goods and hear the prices, we know they will purchase.

CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE.

In these goods we have a very extensive stock of the best ware in the market. Persons wanting full sets of crockery, will do well to give us a call, as they will save at least 25 per cent, and get the very best of ware

GROCERIES.

As usual our stock of these goods is very large and complete, and the choicest kind of goods. We have a few more chests of that splendid YOUNG HYSON TEA, that we have been selling so much of. Good Sugar for 4½c.

In conclusion, we would say that we find the Cash System the only one that will win. We buy our goods wholly for cash, and shall sell them for the same, and no other way; and consequently those that buy and sell on a credit of a year, eighteen months or two years, as the case may be, cannot sell goods at our prices.—THAT'S SO! For the proof of our assertion, call and examine our goods and prices.

Remember the Store, corner Main & Milwaukee streets.

EMPIRE CASH STORE!

The Cheapest Store in the County.

THE LARGEST, Most General and Best Selected Stock of MERCHANDISE ever introduced to the people of Rock and the adjoining counties is now received at the EMPIRE CASH STORE. A Stock larger than any Two Stores in Janesville to be Sold for CASH, at prices that all can see are at least 25 per cent lower than the PRETNDED CASH STORES SELL FOR.

We mean what we say exactly: We can sell you

FOR THE

Least amount of Money

Than any other Store in the county. For this reason we sell more Goods than any two Stores in Janesville, and this year we intend to sell more than any three, consequently, we can sell just one-third cheaper, as our expenses are no more by selling so much than they would be did we not sell any more than our neighbors.

Reduce The Price and Increase the Speed.

Is the order of the day; and in order to do so, we have purchased this spring larger than ever, and intend to sell at prices to astonish everybody.

We buy Goods to SELL, and intend everybody shall understand this by our prices. We have purchased every thing by the Cord in the way of Merchandise. Our Stock embraces every thing in the Goods line, kept in such a store as ours only, commencing with

DRY GOODS, GROCERIES,

CROCKERY, HARDWARE in connection with a general STOVE TRADE.

READY-MADE CLOTHING,

BOOTS and SHOES, HATS, BONNETS, RIBBONS and CAPS, &c. &c.,

To enumerate which would be impossible, (any one seeing our stock will be satisfied of that).

All we have to say is we have JUST WHAT YOU WANT, AT PRICES TO SUIT YOU, a fact which all can see by calling at the EMPIRE CASH STORE.

THE POWER OF LOVE.

[Concluded.]

As Jasper said this, he rose from his chair, and staggered towards the door. He paused a moment, as he held the nob in his hand—perhaps with the thought that his wife might speak a kind word to him, or show some alarm at the idea of his leaving her. Busy, terrible thoughts were running through his head. The room seemed to turn round and round. He opened the door and passed into the hall; but no voice came from Mary. She sat silent as stone, but with a heart bursting with grief. She dearly loved her husband, and longed to speak the kind word that would turn him back, but pride and stubbornness forbade. The sound of his unsteady steps, as he passed along the hall to the front door, fell forebodingly upon her ear, and when that door was closed behind him, and Jasper stood irresolute without the house, the fountains of her grief were opened, and she wept and sobbed most piteously.

It was a sad, sad sight, that young wife with all her hopes blighted, the chosen of her heart given up to the most debasing of all sins, her young child deprived of its protector, with immediate ruin and starvation staring her in the face, with no solitary hope in the future, and all the agony of the present. The memories of happier days rose before her—the innocent days of her girlhood, surrounded with gay companions, and blessed with a mother's love. All these she had sacrificed for the man she loved. How was she repaid? What had she done to deserve so bitter a fate? What dreadful sin had she committed to be thus punished? How unequal seems the reward and chastisements of life. Mary thus reflected and almost arraigned the justice and beneficence of God. Jasper had left the house in anger. What might happen to him in his present condition? Where would he go? Such were the wife's fears, though she hoped that he might return as soon as his anger had a little subsided. She was sorry that she had spoken so harshly to him. That was no way to redeem him; but had she not tried kind words till her patience was exhausted? And what woman would not get angry with a drunken husband? Such were this poor ill-treated wife's emotions, and who could blame her?

All at once she thought that she would go to the door to see if Jasper had really gone. She rose from her chair for that purpose, and half way crossed the room. But pride rebelled again. She would not show him that she was at all worried about him. It was all he wanted, and he should not be gratified; so she returned once more to her chair, where she wept as though her heart was breaking, and like enough it was for all that, for she was indeed most miserable.

When Jasper had closed the door behind him, and stood out once more in the open night air he was undecided what to do, or where to go. Maddened as he was by the reproaches of his wife, self-condemned by an accusing conscience, sick and weary with liquor and excitement, it is no wonder that his first thought was suicide. No wonder that he felt unworthy to live; strange that he did not think himself unfit to die. Such is the direful effects of the intoxicating bowl—such the "deep damnation" with which it is drugged. Far more dangerous than the diecr's box, it kills both body and soul, and its train is made up of disease, imbecility, lunacy, poverty, crime, the prison and the gallows! There is no innocence in it; it blights wherever it falls; it stains all it touches. It makes desolate the family hearthstone. It pits man against his brother; it raises the hand of the child against the parent; even the innocent are made sufferers thereby; and the loud wail of its myriads of victims rises up from every quarter of the civilized world. It is one of the curses invented by civilization, and to that only does it owe its birth; for the African in his native state is uncontaminated with it; and the vilest animal that exists turns away from it with disgust.

Jasper, when he had closed the door, paused for some minutes, undetermined what to do.—We have said that his first thought was suicide.

"I am not fit to live!" he exclaimed. I know I am wrong, and yet I cannot help it—I cannot help it, and I might as well die at once, as live on in disgrace. Somebody will take care of Mary. She will go back to her mother; and she will be much happier and far better off without me than with me. I cannot stand her reproaches—I will not. As for any future, it cannot be worse for me than the present, at any rate. Yes, I may as well die!"

Though Jasper talked thus about suicide, we do not suppose he had any more distinct idea of it than of anything else that might happen to be rambling through his head. The fumes of the liquor were still upon him. He was not more than half sober and his legs were still so weak under him, that they carried him with a wavering gait, and his head buzzed, buzzed like a nest of bees. But he meant to punish his wife for talking so angrily with him. At one moment he had half a mind to turn back, and go to bed; but the devil had the better of him, and mustering up his resolution, he buttoned his coat about him, and proceeded to descend into the street. The first step he made, however, was a false one. His knees bent under him. He made a vain and desperate attempt to catch at the iron railing of the stoop, but missed his hold, and pitched forward into the street, striking head first upon the side walk, and cutting and bruising his face in a terrible manner, so as to render him completely insensible.

Now it so happened that at this moment Mary thought that she would go to the door and look out; not that she doubted but what Jasper had gone, still at the same time half inclined to believe that he might be still in sight, and within call.

So she opened the door, and peered forth into the cold night air. How still and silent everything around. She looked up the street, and down the street; but the object which her eyes sought met them not. She drew a heavy sigh, as her heart felt a pang greater than she had known before, and she was about to close the door, when her ears were startled by a low moan, and then, for the first time, casting her eyes down upon the side walk, they rested upon the form of her husband.

With a cry of terror, Mary was in an instant stooping by the side of Jasper, urging him with all the dearest language of her heart, to look up, to speak, to even rise; but alas! it was beyond his power. Vainly she tried to lift him, but her strength was not equal to the task. Oh, how bitterly she then repented all the unkind words she had said to him—how every reproach smote upon her heart. She forgot all his errors—she became blind to his numerous faults, and Jasper was once more her best beloved. Every word of endearment she could think of, she poured forth with a voluble tongue, but they all fell ineffectually upon his ear. What should she do? Jasper would die, and there were none to help her. She was ashamed to cry aloud for aid. To claim the assistance of the neighbors, would be to expose her husband's condition, and so she strove with all her little strength to raise him, and get him into the house, but all her efforts failed. In his present condition, Jasper would die—where, then, was her relief?—where should she receive assistance?

Fortunately, at this moment, one of the city watchmen came along. Mary at once appealed to him. He was a strong built, stalwart fellow, and at once took Jasper up in his arms, and carried him into the house, and up stairs to his bed. He then volunteered to call a physician, one fortunately living within a few doors of the house. In the meantime Mary applied all the restoratives she could think of. She wetted a towel with vinegar, and bathed his temples, and wiped the blood from a large wound in his forehead. His pulse was feeble, and his breathing indistinct and difficult. Ah, poor wife! this was about the crowning of all your misery!

The physician was soon in attendance. He examined the wound in Jasper's head, and pronounced it a slight fracture of the skull; but said that with proper treatment and careful attention he might recover, though it might be some weeks first. The wound was then dressed and restorative cordials administered, and the doctor left, saying that he would call again early in the morning.

For more than two hours did Jasper lie insensible, and when at last he opened his eyes and spoke, it became evident that his mind was wandering. And now came Mary's opportunity to show her devotion and attention. How she watched by her sick husband's side, administering with angelic patience to his every want—never for a moment tired of her duty. Notwithstanding the sorrow that she felt for Jasper's misfortune, she could but acknowledge to herself, that she had seldom enjoyed so much happiness before. He was now all her own. Each hour that she spent by his bedside, was a small life-time of bliss. She could read to him, talk to him, and sing to him. Even Jasper himself, when his reason was fully restored, acknowledged that he had never before known how great a treasure he possessed in his wife.

After the first week of his confinement, he began to mend rapidly. He had also ample time to reflect upon his errors, and upon his neglect of his wife; and what most particularly elicited his admiration, was her own silence upon the cause of his accident. He could not but appreciate such delicacy, and he inwardly determined that, when restored to health, he would refrain from his past habits of dissipation, and devote the remainder of his life in securing the happiness of his wife and child; and he was fully confirmed in this resolution when he learned from her lips, that during his illness, she had procured the means of subsistence by pawning a considerable portion of her jewelry, among which was a gold watch that was made a present of by her mother on her wedding day. In his expression of gratitude to her, he was extravagantly lavish, and protested again and again that nothing in future should ever make him remiss in his duties to his family. You can easily imagine with what boundless joy Mary received his assurances. It was like a new plighting of their faith—a second betrothal, as it were, in which all her earlier bliss was to be renewed. Heaven had at last smiled upon her. The clouds of despair and doubt were dispelled, and together they looked forward to many years of domestic enjoyment.

But did he keep the pledge thus given? As faithfully as ever pledge was kept. Woman's devotion had at last reclaimed him. What reproaches could not effect, was accomplished by love. The lesson was not lost upon either.—Jasper once more became the true and earnest man. He had absolved himself from a slavish and debasing habit. No more nights were spent at carousal among debauched inebriates; no more hard earned dollars went into the rum seller's till. He walked in peace and pleasantness and lived in prosperity; and to this day, there are no happier men and wives in the city than Jasper and Mary Hanley. Let all husbands thus appreciate their wives; and let all true women who have husbands to reform, commence the work in kindness, and follow it up in the true spirit of love, and "verily they shall have their reward."

VERMONT.—The division in this state among the friends of freedom have been happily removed by the forbearance, liberality and wisdom of the several parties. The state committee nominated by the mass convention, which met at Montpelier, have placed Judge Royce, the whig nominee for governor, upon their ticket, and he has accepted their nomination in a letter declaring the resolutions of the two conventions, so far as they properly go to constitute a political platform for the future, as substantially the same. So also the whigs have accepted as their own candidate Gen. Fletcher, the nominee of the Montpelier convention, for lieut. governor, and he has likewise signified his acceptance and his endorsement of the resolutions adopted at the whig state convention at Rutland. In his letter of acceptance he adds:

"The freemen of the north have too long been divided into hostile parties, expending that strength against each other which should have been unitedly employed in sustaining the cause of freedom, while at the south, where the interests of slavery are involved, all party lines are obliterated, and all are found in a solid column, with an unbroken front. Slavery forms a bond of union stronger than the ordinary ties of party; hence the power and success of the south. Divided we have fallen, divided we must ever fall, before the all-grasping and ever-encroaching slave power.

"The heart of the patriot is cheered in the present alarming condition of our country, by the prospect that those who love and value our free and happy institution will now ardently unite in their support."

In the recent conventions in Washington and Orange counties, the opponents of the Nebraska outrage have united in the nomination of county officers and of state senators. Similar unions have been made in Chittenden, Addison, Rutland, and other counties, and it is exceedingly doubtful whether a single advocate of the Nebraska bill or a friend of the administration will be chosen to the senate in the state.

Hon. James Meacham has been renominated to congress in the first congressional district; Hon. Justin S. Morril has been selected in the second, in the place of Mr. Tracy, who declines a re-election, and Mr. Sabine was re-nominated by the convention of the third district, which met at St. Albans on Tuesday.—New Hampshire Statesman.

GOVERNOR GRIMES.—The Galena Gazette has the following brief sketch of the life of the newly elected republican governor of Iowa.

Mr. Grimes is an old settler of Iowa, but is yet a young man. He is a native of New Hampshire and a graduate of Dartmouth College.—We believe he was at Burlington, Iowa, as early as 1836. In 1837 we recollect him as secretary to Gov. Dodge, in the negotiation of some Indian treaties. He is a lawyer but has retired from his profession with a competency, and gone largely into the business of stock raising and farming. His recent contest and its results has given him a national reputation, which he have nobly earned.

JANESVILLE : : : : WISCONSIN.

MONDAY MORNING, AUG. 28, 1854.

SENATOR DOUGLAS.—This individual has at last ventured to show his infamous head in Chicago, and the Tribune devotes a column and a half of warm welcome to him, in which his treachery to northern interests is shown up in indignant but truthful phrase. Immediately after the passage of the Nebraska bill the very few friends he had left in Chicago proposed to have him visit that city, but so palpable were the indications that he would meet with insult and perhaps violence, should he then risk himself among his exasperated constituency, the advice of his friends and his own caution kept him away. Supposing the excitement had somewhat subsided, he now visits the city. The Tribune says:

He must have come by mail under one of his own franks, for the first place at which he was seen was the private room of our post-master, in solemn conclave with that dignitary and some dozen others of that clique. The result of their deliberations will doubtless be seen anon. His only public appearance was made in the saloon of "Young America"—the drinking hole—where his entrance of course created a marked sensation, and an increased demand for ponies and smashes.

His arrival here was distinguished by nothing save the supreme contempt and indifference manifested by the citizens of this place upon hearing of the fact. No attention whatever was paid him—he was met by no demonstration of honor or regard; he was harrassed by none of the annoying but yet eagerly sought honors of a public reception. He arrived in the city just as John Smith or William Brown would arrive here, and excited no more attention, excepting among a few office holders and expectants.—He has sunk very low—so low as to be beneath the gratuitous attentions of a free and enlightened community.

In reference to his action in the Senate upon the great questions that vitally affect the northwest, and the feeling due him, the Tribune well says:

"Stephen A. Douglas has no claim upon the courtesy or kindness of the people of Chicago, but he has the deepest reasons to fear their detestation, their abhorrence, their rebukes, and their vengeance. He has betrayed us; he has disregarded us; he has insulted us; he has disgraced us; he has injured us in our reputation, our fair fame, our honor, and our pecuniary interests. He has turned a deaf ear to the voice of our best and most worthy citizens, who remonstrated with him upon his iniquities, and he has reviled and insulted and blackguarded the united clergy of our city, as they petitioned congress to abstain from the violation of national honor and plighted good faith. He has stabbed us in our commercial prosperity, and has placed in jeopardy the lives of our mariners, by refusing to give his vote and influence for our River and Harbor bill, and in all his acts, has disregarded our interests, and studied how to oppress us. Indeed, had he been sent to congress by some other state, with the express and entire intention of injuring and oppressing Chicago and Illinois, he could not have done more to please his employers than he has done during the past winter and spring. It is no wonder that he feared to meet the reproachful faces of those whom he has betrayed!"

BEATEN, AFTER ALL.—The defeat of the Nebraska democracy of Iowa is one of the most significant as well as cheering signs of the times, and its value is enhanced by the character of the means adopted to avert it. Preceding the election a report was circulated that congress had passed the homestead bill, and extras and placards to that effect were sent all over the state, reminding every poor man and squatter that a democratic congress and president had conferred upon them the great boon of homes for little or nothing. This trick must have saved a good many votes, and yet the party was disastrously beaten. Nebraska was too odious to be saved even with the help of the homestead.

FEELING IN THE WEST.—The Grant County Herald has a call for a "mass convention of anti-Nebraska men," to be held in Lancaster, on the 6th of September. The call states the object to be "effectively organizing for the approaching elections, upon a basis of perfect union with the anti-Nebraska party in other parts of the state and United States." The Herald, which as our readers well know from the extracts we have republished from it, does its own thinking, and always has a reason, usually a good one, for its opinions, favors the movement, although it is not exactly what it would like. From peculiar causes we feared the action of the Madison convention of the 13th of July would not be very cordially received in the western counties of the state, but we find a heartier concurrence there than we expected, and this movement in Grant county is a good sign in the right quarter.

A SET-BACK.—A majority of the stockholders of the Jeffersonville railroad, which runs through Indiana, ordained a regulation for the road that no negro should ride over it without a passport certifying to his freedom—thus endeavoring to impose upon Indiana the discipline of the plantation. In this effort to "enlarge the area of freedom "and extend the "blessings" of their peculiar "institution," they have been very promptly checkmated by the courts of Indiana, which hold that the state is a free one, and every person is presumed to be free until he has been proved a slave.

☞ Mr. Densmore philosophises at some length over "reform," in order to get a chance to lecture the Janesville Gazette. When the weather cools off, we may look to our Kenosha neighbor a little. At present we can only say that many a good caurse has been injured by a "stationery" advocate.

If any young man wants to reach the "high top-gallant-mast of felicity," let him make a journey through Maine, seated on the back seat of a stage coach between two down east girls with only one piece of spruce gum for the three to chew. The editor of the Boston Herald has tried it.

BOOK ITEMS.

THE RUSSIAN OF THE BLACK SEA., &c. By LAURENCE OLIPHANT. Redfield, 110 and 112 Nassau street, New York.

In this pleasing little volume we have a book for the times, written by an observing man, well fitted for the post he assumes. Maps of different parts of the czar's dominions aid the reader and from Cronstadt around to Sebastopol you can travel in good company with our author. His book is very readable and cannot fail to be of use to those interested in European affairs. Mr. O. is a good humored companion, writes cleverly and philosophises about Russia, Turkey, Hungary and Europe generally, in a sensible manner. For sale at Sutherland's.

By the way, who has noticed the emblem on Redfield's title pages. A ring made of a serpent, the mythological symbol of eternity; and a lamp in the centre of the ring, the lamp of knowledge, shining forever. Happy symbol, say we.

A FINE GIFT.—The Messrs. Drake have our thanks for a very choice bouquet of flowers gathered from their nursery in this city. It contained some of the finest specimens of dahlias we have ever seen, and a most bountiful number. The Messrs. D. have a large variety of these flowers, and those who wish to see them in blossom, for the purpose of selecting hereafter, would do well to call at the nursery, where they may be seen.

TRACK RE-LAID.—The Madison Argus of the 24th says that the sink hole in the bed of the Milwaukee road, near that place, has been bridged and the track re-laid.

A NEW AMERICAN NOVEL.—The Buffalo Commercial says that G. P. R. James, the famous English writer of fiction, has written an American novel which the Harpers are to bring out. It is entitled "Ticonderoga," where the scene is laid. It is based on incidents occurring at the time of Gen. Abercrombie's expedition.

A NEW BANK.—The Madison Journal says that a new bank, to be called the Madison Bank, is talked about in that place. Mr. Lowe, the cashier, has deposited securities to the amount of $5,0000 with the comptroller, and gone last to procure the plates for the bills. It is expected the bank will open about the first of October next.

☞ Mr. Grimes, the recently elected governor of Iowa is a native of Deering, N. H.

EUGENIA.—A Paris letter to the New York Herald says:—"There is a scandal just now prevalent in England, that the same miserable tragedy is about to be acted in France which was played in Napoleon the Great's time, and which dishonored and broke the heart of the empress Josephine. Hereditary succession will be the cause of this cruel and unnatural act, if it be accomplished."

SINGULAR DISCLOSEURE.—A surgeon in the United States army recently desired to know the most common cause of enlistment. By permission of the captain, in a company containing fifty five, the writer pledged never to disclose the name of officers or private, except as a physical or matuphysical fact; the true history was obtained of every man. On investigation, it appeared that nine tenths enlisted on account of some female difficulty, thirteen had changed their names, and forty-three were either drunk, or partially so, at the time of their enlistment.—Most of them were men of fine talents and had once been in elevated positions of life. Four had been lawyers, three doctors, and two ministers.

RIGHT.—The token of recognition has finally been discovered by a close observer. When a know nothing wishes to recognise another, he closes one eye, makes an 0 with his thumb and finger, and places his nose through it—which being interpreted reads:

"Eye——nose——0."
"I——knows—nothing."

A NORTH CAROLINA EDITOR.—The Milton Chronicle sums up the occupations of his neighbor of the Spectator as follows:

He is an officating minister of the gospel; a licensed attorney; a newspaper editor; agent for nearly all the insurance and assurance companies north of the Potomac; commissioner for thirty states, and an applicant for the same when Kansas and Nebraska shall have come in; bank director; chairman of the board of superintendents of common schools; temperance orator; agent and counsel for Wake Forest college; president and secretary of all the boards of the Baptist church, &c., and in addition, he owns more town property, has the neatest farm, the best fruits and the finest cattle of any man in the country.

We walked to church on Sunday morning, behind "the girl with the hole in her stocking." It was a very large one and we thought her heel must be cold. She probably knew of it Saturday, but remembered the Sabbath day to keep it hole-y.

Something New!!

MR. CHARLES AUSTIN, the celebrated Reed maker has just completed his new Organ Reed, upon which he has labored for the last five years and expended more than six thousand dollars. This reed is different from all others in its composition, being much larger and having more power. It is intended for Church and Parlor Organs as manufactured by Messrs. Austin & Co. These Organs have an upright (Organ) action and are of the shape of all Church Organs. The price will range from $175 to $300, depending upon the finish of the case. To churches in want of an instrument of that value we would say that they have more power than any common Organ costing, $500.

J. F. Pease & Co., Janesville Wis., are interested in the manufacture and sale of these instruments, and are the only persons through whom they can be had. They will have one or more for exhibition as early as Sept. 10, and after that a good assortment as soon as they can be manufactured.

A PERIODICAL IN JANESVILLE!

"The Wisconsin Home,"

A Miscellaneous and Reformatory Journal, will be printed on the first and fifteenth of each month from and after the

by Messrs. BAKER & DOTY, publishers and proprietors of the Janesville Free Press; and edited by WM. M. DOTY, of the above named firm.

Each No. of "THE WISCONSIN HOME" will consist of EIGHT PAGES; making a sheet, in point of size, nearly the same as the "Scientific American." We shall reserve ONLY ONE COLUMN OF ADVERTISING for the purpose of publishing an occasional prospectus in addition to our own; leaving THIRTY-ONE COLUMNS OF READING MATTER.

One or two good stories will appear in each No. but none except those having a directly moral and beneficial tendency will be admitted into its columns. A short summary of passing events will be given; but no political grounds will be taken. As a better idea may be formed by seeing the article itself, the first No. will be furnished to all who may wish to examine it, FREE OF CHARGE.

The TERMS of "The Wisconsin Home" will be ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR, payable half yearly in advance. Subscription books now open.

☞ Orders solicited early, especially for sample numbers, in order that we may know how large an edition will supply the demand. Address post-paid,

WM. M. DOTY, Janesville, Wis.

 Papers giving the above one insertion and calling attention thereto editorially, will not only be entitled to an exchange, but to the thanks of the proprietor.

AGAIN & AGAIN

THE BOSTON STORE.

Let the Horn be Blown!!

"Sound the loud timbrel o'er land and o'er sea,"
WHEELOCK'S triumphant, and ever shall be.

THIS is the middle of the nineteenth century, the first half of which has produced more change and onward movement than any fifty years of our Christian Era.

The great controlling power of this age is its commerce—indeed, this may be truly called the commercial age.

It has been well said by an ancient writer that

"Man wants but little here below,"

and to supply those wants

WHEELOCK

Announces to every people and every tongue, to both sexes and all parties, to all factions of all gauges, that finding his old store entirely

TOO SMALL!

He has been compelled, in order to be able to supply the immense call for goods at his establishment, to

Double the capacity of his Store Rooms!

Having purchased this spring, for this market, to be sold this season,

$39,007 00 Worth of Goods

But who can expect to read in the brief space of one life all the articles that the

BOSTON STORE CONTAINS.

Indeed, history must fail to give the searcher of knowledge any accurate idea of his immense

STOCK OF SUMMER GOODS,

His inimitable selection of

Fancy Dress Goods!

He has over

10,000 Yards of Silk Bareges,

of every style and price, and it is with no great difficulty that the fair damsels of this fair valley can select,

FROM THE ONE THOUSAND PIECES,

Of all patterns and ranging in price from SIX CENTS Per Yard to Twenty-Eight Cents, such dresses as will add to their exqusite beauty, though it may as a general thing, be as difficult to add to that beauty as it is "to gild refined gold, paint the lily, or add perfume to the violet."

It must not be inferred that we offer only these and the many other articles for outer apparel, such as Chamelion and Foulard Silks, but all manner of

are on change, so that every one may be entirely accommodated with every article of female apparrel.—Eved French red foxed Gaiters,

do do wolfed do

Ladies' Enameled Boots, Enameled sewed Congress Boots,

LADIES MOROCCO POLKAS,

And all the articles manufacutred of the best styles.—So that of this store, so far as articles which adorn La Belle sex are concerned, it may be truly said

"CUSTOM cannot stale the infinite variety."

While the Boston Store has made provision to protect the feet, it can also boast that it has all sorts of

GLOVES,

by which hands can be protected and retain

"The white wonder of fair Juliet's hand."

And in taking leave of those of whom it is no exaggeration to say they are

"Heaven's last, best gift to man,"

the Nonpareils of beauty, the Paragons of perfection, Mr. Wheelock assures his fair customers that his assistants and auxiliaries are those who unite great knowledge of the business, fine personal presence and affability of manner to a determination to discharge CONSCIENTIOUSLY their several and respective duties—that while they may have the proper desire to effect sales, they will never in imitation of many of our contemporaries attempt to accomplish that object by equivocation, misrepresentation, exaggeration, tergiversation, fabrication, or by direct lying.

And now to the wants of the

COARSE-HAND SEX.

Mr. Wheelock has every kind of material to make those articles of dress that give to man his individuality—

PANTALOONS,

CALF "BEWTS," COW HIDE do., GAZELLE, do., PATENT LEATHER do., GIRAFFE do.,

HATS

That fit every head from the Websterian brow to the country politician's sconce, from the size of caput of him who is closely shorn after the Hibernian fashion to that of him who wears the well-pomatumed, ambrosialized, elongated Hyperion curls.

And to the speculator who buys to sell again,

The Boston Store

Can, at lower rates of usance than any other establishment west of the Alleghany mountains, furnish that class of exchanges so that riches will fill their pockets as water fills the sea. And to them we offer

DOMESTIC GLASSWARE, WORSTED,
Pocket Handkerchiefs, Inkstands, Cotton Yarn,
Ready-made Vests, Ground Pepper, Flannels,
Looking Glasses, Ready-Made Over Coats, Pants,
Raisins, Flat Irons and Cotton Batting, Lanterns,
Satchels, which the whining school-boy with shining morning face bears on his arm,
Chests, Norwegian Bandboxes and Hair Trunks,
Tea, Tobacco and Wicking.

In the

CROCKERY

Line may be found the

BENNINGTON, the PARIAN and the LAVA Manufacture, Pitchers for milk or water, Tea Pots, Spittoons, Bowls for washing, for bread and milk, or sugar, Candlesticks, children's Toys and Flower Pots, MAINE LIQUOR LAW VOLUMES and Lager Beer Mugs.

And in fine, the proprietor of this establishment can with all confidence assure those who have been in the habit of trading at Janesville that, although they have

"Often seen corruption boil and bubble till
It o'errun the stew,"

they will find that the representations which shall be made to them by that proprietor or his clerks will not

"Stand like forfeits in a Barber shop,
More in mock than mark."

They also keep for sale at lowest Cash prices a full assortment of

GROCERIES,

LEATHER AND FINDINGS,
BOOTS AND SHOES,
Shelf Hardware, Tin Ware,
Willow Ware, Stone Ware,
Having Tools, Farming Tools, &c. &c.

The ONE PRICE CASH SYSTEM, originally introduced into this community and strictly adhered to by this Establishment, has won for it a reputation far more valuable than the Stupendous Self-puffings, quarterly renewed, industriously circulated but universally discredited, which many modern shop keepers deem indispensable to success.

The system will of course be continued—admitting no variation or improvement—to the satisfaction undoubtedly of a large and most desirable class of customers, although at the sacrifice probably of the steady patronage of inveterate higglers and those who inherit the belief that all Salesmen will cheat them if possible.

Respectfully,

COOLEY & BABCOCK.

GREAT SALE OF

REAL ESTATE!

Rare Chance for Investment!

600 Village Lots!

THE undersigned offers at private sale SIX HUNDRED VILLAGE LOTS, situated in "Hickory Glen" and "Pixley & Shaw's" addition to Janesville, and located in the immediate vicinity of the Milwaukee and Mississippi railroad depot, in the city of Janesville.

The above property is but a short distance from the present business center of the thriving city of Janesville, and towards which, through the influence of the various railroads, in operation and projected, the business of the city is fast finding its way.

It is unnecessary to speak of the peculiar advantages of an investment in a property so centrally located in the largest inland city in the State of Wisconsin—a city so widely known for its thrift and business prosperity, possessing extensive water-power and surrounded by the best farming country in the world—as every one at all conversant with the progress of western cities will see at once these advantages.

The above property is offered at very low rates, and on the most favorable terms, particularly to those who wish to make immediate improvements on purchases.

Also, 1,000 Acres of the

Best Improved Farming Lands,

situated within a few miles of the city, which will be sold in lots to suit purchasers, from 40 to 320 acres.

For particulars enquire of the undersigned at "Pixley & Kimball's Hardware Store," or of THOMAS SHAW. B. F. PIXLEY.

Janesville Clothing Emporium.

WM. ADDY,

Merchant Tailor, & Dealer in Ready Made Clothing and Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods,

HAS received his Spring and Summer STOCK, consisting of the very Best and Fashionable CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, DOESKINS AND VESTINGS, of English, French and American manufacture.

This establishment is now, as usual, the favorite place of resort for the Fashionable, the Cutting Department still being under my own personal supervision, and warranted to suit the most difficult, twenty per cent lower than any other establishment in the State.

No Fit, No Sale. is my doctrine.

You will ask how I can do this; I will tell you: From my long experience in this business, and being a practical Tailor, I know when, where and how to buy my Goods, what to pay for them, and how to cut them, not having to secure the services of an eminent artist, at a salary of $1,000 to $1,500 a year, which the purchaser must pay for—this is the secret. I have got on hand a good assortment of

of my own manufacture, and warranted in every respect. Call and examine, before you buy elsewhere.

in particular, I have no hesitation in saying cannot be equaled in the State, both for style and durability, being all made to order, and in such a manner that I can warrant every article I sell, with the understanding at all times, that if they do not come up to the warrant, they shall be mended free of charge.

GENTLEMEN'S WEAR.

In this line I know beyond a doubt that I can show you a finer assortment and at better prices by twenty-five per cent. than can be found at any of the side shops or Dry Goods stores about town. I want it distinctly understood that I make the BOOT AND SHOE TRADE my WHOLE STUDY, and that I Buy More, Sell More and know more about the trade, than the whole pile of petty dealers put together. And I know also that I can make it an object for Every Farmer in Rock County, as well as every one that trades in Janesville to buy their Boots and Shoes of me for the more I sell the smaller profits I can sell at.

Manufacturing.

I want to say a few words to you in regard to my Manufacturing Department, to wit: That I am now engaged more extensively in the manufacturing business, and probably am selling more custom work than all the shops about town put together, simply for these reasons—that I use better Stock, being entirely of Eastern tannage, which every one knows is worth twenty-five per cent more than the common western tanned leather; and what is a better reason and of greater importance, I can

and at the same time sell you a better article than you can get at the shops, for this reason, which you must all see is a very palpable one, that in buying my stock east and in such large quantities, I of course save a very large per cent, and thereby can sell at lower prices and at the same time make my profits.

I want to state further that I have secured the services of MR. BUCKINGHAM, who has formerly been engaged in the manufacturing business on the west side of the River, and who is known by every one to be the best manufacturer in the city; and if we don't get you up a better article, both in regard to style and durability, we will forfeit our money and our reputation, and I pledge you my word that this is no small forfeit.

Leather and Findings.

I have just received over $3,000 worth of the very best brands of Eastern Sole & Upper Leather; also, a very large assortment of FRENCH and PHILADELPHIA KIP and FRENCH CALF SKINS, together with a full assortment of MOROCCOS of every kind, which I will sell at

Precisely Milwaukee and Chicago Prices.

I have constantly on hand, also, a large assortment of all kings of FINDINGS, LASTS, BOOT TREES, CRIMPS, etc., etc., all of which will be sold at the same rates.

I request the attention of manufacturers in town as well as in the country to my stock, as I think I can make it an object for you to buy of me. At least, I can sell you a much superior article to that which you get of the pedlers.

TO THE LADIES.

I would say that I am under very great obligation for the partiality you have shown me, in always procuring your understandings from me, and I now publicly promise and swear that I will make every one of you who may be entitled to the same a present of a handsome pair of CACKS, when I shall have closed up my shoe-selling career. I would say further, that I am prepared to get up to order any style of work you wish, at low rates. Yours respectfully,

J. B. DIMOCK, Proprietor,
T. H. BUCKINGHAM, Foreman.

By the way, don't forget the location of the Institution, three doors above the Post Office, Janesville, Wisconsin.

A PERIODICAL IN JANESVILLE!

"The Wisconsin Home,"

A Miscellaneous and Reformatory Journal, will be printed on the first and fifteenth of each month from and after the

by Messrs. BAKER & DOTY, publishers and proprietors of the Janesville Free Press; and edited by WM. M. DOTY, of the above named firm.

Each No. of "THE WISCONSIN HOME" will consist of EIGHT PAGES; making a sheet, in point of size, nearly the same as the "Scientific American." We shall reserve ONLY ONE COLUMN OF ADVERTISING for the purpose of publishing an occasional prospectus in addition to our own; leaving THIRTY-ONE COLUMNS OF READING MATTER.

One or two good stories will appear in each No. but none except those having a directly moral and beneficial tendency will be admitted into its columns. A short summary of passing events will be given; but no political grounds will be taken. As a better idea may be formed by seeing the article itself, the first No. will be furnished to all who may wish to examine it, FREE OF CHARGE.

The TERMS of "The Wisconsin Home" will be ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR, payable half yearly in advance. Subscription books now open.

☞ Orders solicited early, especially for sample numbers, in order that we may know how large an edition will supply the demand. Address post-paid,

AGAIN & AGAIN

THE BOSTON STORE.

Let the Horn be Blown!!

"Sound the loud timbrel o'er land and o'er sea," WHEELOCK'S triumphant, and ever shall be.

THIS is the middle of the nineteenth century, the first half of which has produced more change and onward movement than any fifty years of our Christian Era.

The great controlling power of this age is its commerce—indeed, this may be truly called the commercial age.

It has been well said by an ancient writer that

"Man wants but little here below,"

and to supply those wants

WHEELOCK

Announces to every people and every tongue, to both sexes and all parties, to all factions of all gauges, that finding his old store entirely

TOO SMALL!

He has been compelled, in order to be able to supply the immense call for goods at his establishment, to

Double the capacity of his Store Rooms!

Having purchased this spring, for this market, to be sold this season,

$39,007 00 Worth of Goods

But who can expect to read in the brief space of one life all the articles that the

BOSTON STORE CONTAINS.

Indeed, history must fail to give the searcher of knowledge any accurate idea of his immense

STOCK OF SUMMER GOODS,

His inimitable selection of

Fancy Dress Goods!

He has over

10,000 Yards of Silk Bareges,

of every style and price, and it is with no great difficulty that the fair damsels of this fair valley can select,

FROM THE ONE THOUSAND PIECES,

Of all patterns and ranging in price from SIX CENTS Per Yard to Twenty-Eight Cents, such dresses as will add to their exqusite beauty, though it may as a general thing, be as difficult to add to that beauty as it is "to gild refined gold, paint the lily, or add perfume to the violet."

It must not be inferred that we offer only these and the many other articles for outer apparel, such as Chamelion and Foulard Silks, but all manner of

are on change, so that every one may be entirely accommodated with every article of female apparrel.—Eved French red foxed Gaiters,

do do wolfed do

Ladies' Enameled Boots, Enameled sewed Congress Boots,

LADIES MOROCCO POLKAS,

And all the articles manufacutred of the best styles.—So that of this store, so far as articles which adorn La Belle sex are concerned, it may be truly said

"CUSTOM cannot stale the infinite variety."

While the Boston Store has made provision to protect the feet, it can also boast that it has all sorts of

GLOVES,

by which hands can be protected and retain

"The white wonder of fair Juliet's hand."

And in taking leave of those of whom it is no exaggeration to say they are

"Heaven's last, best gift to man,"

the Nonparelis of beauty, the Paragons of perfection, Mr. Wheelock assures his fair customers that his assistants and auxiliaries are those who unite great knowledge of the business, fine personal presence and affability of manner to a determination to discharge CONSCIENTIOUSLY their several and respective duties—that while they may have the proper desire to effect sales, they will never in imitation of many of our contemporaries attempt to accomplish that object by equivocation, misrepresentation, exaggeration, tergiversation, fabrication, or by direct lying.

And now to the wants of the

COARSE-HAND SEX.

Mr. Wheelock has every kind of material to make those articles of dress that give to man his individuality—

PANTALOONS,

CALF "BEWTS," COW HIDE do., GAZELLE, do., PATENT LEATHER do., GIRAFFE do.,

HATS

That fit every head from the Websterian brow to the country politician's sconce, from the size of caput of him who is closely shorn after the Hibernian fashion to that of him who wears the well-pomatumed, ambrosialized, elongated Hyperion curls.

And to the speculator who buys to sell again,

The Boston Store

Can, at lower rates of usance than any other establishment west of the Alleghany mountains, furnish that class of exchanges so that riches will fill their pockets as water fills the sea. And to them we offer

DOMESTIC GLASSWARE, WORSTED,
Pocket Handkerchiefs, Inkstands, Cotton Yarn,
Ready-made Vests, Ground Pepper, Flannels,
Looking Glasses, Ready-Made Over Coats, Pants,
Raisins, Flat Irons and Cotton Batting, Lanterns,
Satchels, which the whining school-boy with shining morning face bears on his arm,
Chests, Norwegian Bandboxes and Hair Trunks,
Tea, Tobacco and Wicking.

In the

CROCKERY

Line may be found the

BENNINGTON, the PARIAN and the LAVA Manufacture, Pitchers for milk or water, Tea Pots, Spittoons, Bowls for washing, for bread and milk, or sugar, Candlesticks, children's Toys and Flower Pots, MAINE LIQUOR LAW VOLUMES and Lager Beer Mugs.

And in fine, the proprietor of this establishment can with all confidence assure those who have been in the habit of trading at Janesville that, although they have

"Often seen corruption boil and bubble till It o'errun the stew,"

they will find that the representations which shall be made to them by that proprietor or his clerks will not

"Stand like forfeits in a Barber shop, More in mock than mark." than can be found in any other establishment in the interior of the State.

The attention of Consumers and Country Dealers is particularly invited to our immense stock of

AMERICAN, ENGLISH REFINED & SWEDES IRON,
CAST, GERMAN, ENGLISH & AMERICAN BLISTER,
TOE CALK, SPRING, COM. & CAST PLOW STEEL,
of all sizes.

Also to the almost endless variety of superior

Carpenter, Joiner, Cooper, Blacksmith, Wagon-making and Farming TOOLS,
House Trimmings,
Chain and Cistern Pumps, Lead Pipe,
Cut and Wrought Nails and Spikes,
Tin Ware, Tinner's Stock,
Brittania and Japanned Ware,
Table and Pocket Cutlery,
Shears, Scissors, Razors, &c.

Our stock of

Cook and Parlor Stoves

was never larger than at present, and comprises some forty different patterns selected with great care, (having been previously fully tested in this market,) from several of the best manufactories in Troy and Albany. Having bought our Stoves on long time, without interest, and at a great discount, we are enabled to compete successfully with those who buy in SMALL LOTS, "exclusively for cash," of which we will convince all who may give us a trial.

STOVE FURNITURE, STOVE PIPE, and all kinds of TIN WARE constantly on hand, or manufactured to order.

We are agents for the sale of Duryee & Forsyth's celebrated Fire Proof Safes and Platform and Counter Scales, and also for the sale of Yale's Magic Bank, Safe and Store Door Locks.

BOOTS AND SHOES,
Shelf Hardware, Tin Ware,
Willow Ware, Stone Ware,
Having Tools, Farming Tools, &c. &c.

The ONE PRICE CASH SYSTEM, originally introduced into this community and strictly adhered to by this Establishment, has won for it a reputation far more valuable than the Stupendous Self-puffings, quarterly renewed, industriously circulated but universally discredited, which many modern shop keepers deem indispensable to success.

The system will of course be continued—admitting no variation or improvement—to the satisfaction undoubtedly of a large and most desirable class of customers, although at the sacrifice probably of the steady patronage of inveterate higglers and those who inherit the belief that all Salesmen will cheat them if possible.

Respectfully,

COOLEY & BABCOCK.

GREAT SALE OF REAL ESTATE!

Rare Chance for Investment!

600 Village Lots!

THE undersigned offers at private sale SIX HUNDRED VILLAGE LOTS, situated in "Hickory Glen" and "Pixley & Shaw's" addition to Janesville, and located in the immediate vicinity of the Milwaukee and Mississippi railroad depot, in the city of Janesville.

The above property is but a short distance from the present business center of the thriving city of Janesville, and towards which, through the influence of the various railroads, in operation and projected, the business of the city is fast finding its way.

It is unnecessary to speak of the peculiar advantages of an investment in a property so centrally located in the largest inland city in the State of Wisconsin—a city so widely known for its thrift and business prosperity, possessing extensive water-power and surrounded by the best farming country in the world—as every one at all conversant with the progress of western cities will see at once these advantages.

The above property is offered at very low rates, and on the most favorable terms, particularly to those who wish to make immediate improvements on purchases.

Also, 1,000 Acres of the

Best Improved Farming Lands,

situated within a few miles of the city, which will be sold in lots to suit purchasers, from 40 to 320 acres.

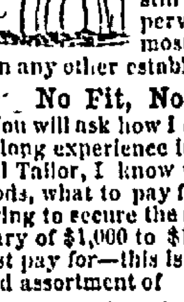

For particulars enquire of the undersigned at "Pixley & Kimball's Hardware Store," or of THOMAS SHAW. B. F. PIXLEY.

Janesville Clothing Emporium.

WM. ADDY,

Merchant Tailor, & Dealer in Ready Made Clothing and Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods,

HAS received his Spring and Summer STOCK, consisting of the very Best and Fashionable CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, DOESKINS AND VESTINGS, of English, French and American manufacture.

This establishment is now, as usual, the favorite place of resort for the Fashionable, the Cutting Department still being under my own personal supervision, and warranted to suit the most difficult, twenty per cent lower than any other establishment in the State.

No Fit, No Sale. is my doctrine.

You will ask how I can do this; I will tell you: From my long experience in this business, and being a practical Tailor, I know when, where and how to buy my Goods, what to pay for them, and how to cut them, not having to secure the services of an eminent-artist, at a salary of $1,000 to $1,500 a year, which the purchaser must pay for—this is the secret. I have got on hand a good assortment of

Ready Made Clothing,

of my own manufacture, and warranted in every respect. Call and examine, before you buy elsewhere.

☞ TERMS CASH.

Store three doors south of McKey's new Store, Main street. WM. ADDY.

NEW GOODS!

$15,000 Worth of

JUST RECEIVED AT THE

Wisconsin Boot & Shoe Store.

I AM now receiving one of the largest and finest stocks of Boots and Shoes that I have ever before brought to Janesville, and what is finer than all the rest, I can sell them at lower prices than I have ever sold before, notwithstanding the great advance in the Eastern Market. My assortment of

Ladies Fine Shoes,

in particular, I have no hesitation in saying cannot be equaled in the State, both for style and durability, being all made to order, and in such a manner that I can warrant every article I sell, with the understanding at all times, that if they do not come up to the warrant, they shall be mended free of charge.

GENTLEMEN'S WEAR.

In this line I know beyond a doubt that I can show you a finer assortment and at better prices by twenty-five per cent. than can be found at any of the side shops or Dry Goods stores about town. I want it distinctly understood that I make the BOOT AND SHOE TRADE my WHOLE STUDY, and that I Buy More, Sell More and know more about the trade, than the whole pile of petty dealers put together. And I know also that I can make it an object for Every Farmer in Rock County, as well as every one that trades in Janesville to buy their Boots and Shoes of me for the more I sell the smaller profits I can sell at.

Manufacturing.

I want to say a few words to you in regard to my Manufacturing Department, to wit: That I am now engaged more extensively in the manufacturing business, and probably am selling more custom work than all the shops about town put together, simply for these reasons—that I use better Stock, being entirely of Eastern tannage, which every one knows is worth twenty-five per cent more than the common western tanned leather; and what is a better reason and of greater importance, I can

and at the same time sell you a better article than you can get at the shops, for this reason, which you must all see is a very palpable one, that in buying my stock east and in such large quantities, I of course save a very large per cent, and thereby can sell at lower prices and at the same time make my profits.

I want to state further that I have secured the services of MR. BUCKINGHAM, who has formerly been engaged in the manufacturing business on the west side of the River, and who is known by every one to be the best manufacturer in the city; and if we don't get you up a better article, both in regard to style and durability, we will forfeit our money and our reputation, and I pledge you my word that this is no small forfeit.

Leather and Findings.

I have just received over $3,000 worth of the very best brands of Eastern Sole & Upper Leather; also, a very large assortment of FRENCH and PHILADELPHIA KIP and FRENCH CALF SKINS, together with a full assortment of MOROCCOS of every kind, which I will sell at

Precisely Milwaukee and Chicago Prices.

I have constantly on hand, also, a large assortment of all kings of FINDINGS, LASTS, BOOT TREES, CRIMPS, etc., etc., all of which will be sold at the same rates.

I request the attention of manufacturers in town as well as in the country to my stock, as I think I can make it an object for you to buy of me. At least, I can sell you a much superior article to that which you get of the pedlers.

TO THE LADIES.

I would say that I am under very great obligation for the partiality you have shown me, in always procuring your understandings from me, and I now publicly promise and swear that I will make every one of you who may be entitled to the same a present of a handsome pair of CACKS, when I shall have closed up my shoe-selling career. I would say further, that I am prepared to get up to order any style of work you wish, at low rates. Yours respectfully,

J. B. DIMOCK, Proprietor,
T. H. BUCKINGHAM, Foreman.

By the way, don't forget the location of the Institution, three doors above the Post Office, Janesville, Wisconsin.

KIER'S ROCK OIL,

FROM a Well 400 feet deep, Near Pittsburgh, Pa., is offered to the public as a Natural Medicine of no common value. It is a different thing from the old Kentucky or American Oil, as this is used INTERNALLY as well as externally. As a local remedy in Paralysis, Piles, Rheumatism, Deafness, Loss of Sight, Burns, &c. —also, as a valuable Internal Remedy for Piles, Ague, Scrofula, Coughs, Diarrhœa, Erysipelas, old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Female Diseases, Worms, Bladder and Kidneys, Bronchitis, Pains &c. &c., it invites the investigating Physician, as well as the suffering patient, to become acquainted with its merits.

Discovered in 1849, it has within 2 or 3 years, made multitudes of cures, and multitudes of friends—and as soon as tried the Sales not only increase but hold out. Testimony to its great merit is constantly accumulating in the hands of the proprietor by certificates, letters, and in other ways.

IT DOCTORS THE WHOLE MAN—flesh and blood—skin and bones—from head to foot—how it acts upon the system—upon diseases of different manifestations, we cannot fully tell. While it is both cathartic and astringent, it is Alterative—and mind you, a REGULATOR. A leading principle in it is Naptha. When you once have it in the family you will not be without it.

Full as the world is of Patent Medicines—it is thought not best to suppress this, the work of NATURE—to make room for Human inventions. Price 50 cents per bottle. It can be had of wholesalers at the large cities and towns in the West at Proprietor's prices.

HAVE WE AGUE AMONG US?—A tea spoonful every three hours in the absence of the fever will cure you of Ague or Diarrhœa. ☞ Physicians, Druggists, and all friends of the afflicted, will do well to recommend this Oil for PROLAPSUS UTERI, and good will be done—take the usual dose 2 or 3 times a day, and bathe the lower part of the back with it. Have you SCROFULA? The Petroleum will eradicate it, root and branch, at little cost or inconvenience. Get circulars of directions for adults and children, gratis of the agents. A trial is all we ask. Mind and get the right kind—it is of a beautiful reddish color and clear. Try it for Piles.

For sale by HOLDEN KEMP & CO., C. P. Simms, Cary & Gordon, Beloit; G. W. Kinsie, Magnolia; Goodrich, Davis & Co., Milton; S. A. Pond, Albany; P. D. Vaughn & Co., Union; H. Cheney, Johnstown; M. Elliot, Monroe. 43m3

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S CELEBRAED CATHOLICON,

FOR THE RELIEF AND CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called Female Complaints. Of these are Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the womb; Fluor Albus, or Whites; Chronic Inflammation and Ulceration of the Womb; Incidental Hemorrhage, or Flooding; Painful Menstruation &c with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted.) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

The Catholicon far surpasses other remedies, in being more certain, less expensive, and leaving the system in a better condition. Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

1000 Dollars Reward,

WILL be given to any person—Physician or otherwise—who will perform a cure as quickly and permanently, by any means whatever, of any of the following diseases, as can be done by the use of

PULVERMACHER'S

Hydro-Electric Voltaic Chains.

Rheumatism, Nervous Headache,
Painful and Swelled Joints, Palpitation of the Heart,
Sciatica, General Debility,
Paralysis, Female Diseases,
Spinal Disease, Neuralgia of the Face,
Deafness, Blindness, Rheumatic Pains of the
Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Chest

ALL NERVOUS DISEASES

Are almost instantly removed by the simple application of the Electric Chains, which are constructed so as to be worn next to the skin, producing a constant current of uninterrupted Electro-Magnetism, which within the last few years has been discovered to possess STRANGE and WONDERFUL POWER, in the INSTANT RELIEF and PERMANENT CURE of nervous diseases.

HISTORY.

Pulvermachers' Chain are presented to the public, as the most scientific and convenient mode of applying this powerful agent. They have been secured by patent in France, (where they were invented) England, Germany, Austria, Belgium, and one year since introduced into the United States, and also secured by patent. They are used in every Hospital in the State of New York, and highly recommended by professors Valentine Mott, Van Buren, Post, Carnochan, of that city, who daily make use of them in their practice.

THE WORLD IS CHALLENGED

to produce so many well authenticated certificates of cure, not only from intelligent patients, but from scientific Physicians. The sale now in New York is perfectly ASTONISHING, and thousands who visit the Crystal Palace where they are on exhibition, seldom fail to obtain a chain before they leave the city.

Thanks be to the common sense of the people who are beginning to become disgusted with the practice of making a Drug Shop of their stomach—swallowing bottle after bottle of sickening, disgusting trash, having no more effect in even relieving, much less curing, the disease for which they are recommended, than a Poor Man's Plaster applied to the top of the head would have in curing an infant of worms.

All these great and remarkable discoveries, by which every ill "which flesh is heir to" is eradicated from the earth—strange as it may seem—are made by men who are too ignorant to obtain a living by any other mode, and their knowledge of disease, its proper mode of cure, its cause, is just as extensive as an Arab's is of the mechanism of a steam engine. No intelligent person will deny the truth of this, and no Physician dare risk his reputation as an honest man, and declare that nervous diseases are not more frequently increased in severity than relieved, by the old antiquated way of giving medicine into the stomach. If people will only become sensible and think for themselves, and believe that physicians practice upon their credulity more than they have any idea of, pay strict attention to temperance in all things, (which means very much,) make free use of pure cold water, internally and externally, with an occasional dash of soap, sleep in freely ventilated rooms, retire early and rise early, be happy and cheerful, employ their physicians to tell them "they require no physic;"—by so doing health and happiness will increase, bottled molasses and water be at a discount, and its famous discoverers be consigned to their legitimate stations.

The Hydro-Electric chains are now for the first time offered to the people of Nashua, as being a better, quicker, and safer mode of curing all nervous diseases, than any other method or means hitherto discovered. They can be used by either a grown person or a child, are always ready for use, and with little care will last for years.

CAUTION.

Ladies who are enciente, are requested not to wear them, for by long use, miscarriage is apt to be produced.

Price of Chains, $3 to $5, and can be sent by mail to any part of the country, together with a pamphlet of 36 pages, containing the modes of use, certificates of cure, &c.

THE LITTLE REGULATOR OF

The Dry Goods Trade.

IMMENSE DAILY ARRIVALS!

Cash System Triumphant!

GOODS CHEAPER THAN EVER BEFORE KNOWN.

JACKMAN, PARKER & CO. Are now receiving at their Store, corner of Main and Milwaukee streets, the most extensive assortment of Merchandise ever before received at any establishment in the State, consisting in part of a very general assortment of

STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS, READY MADE CLOTHING, HATS AND CAPS, BONNETS, BOOTS AND SHOES, GROCERIES, CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE, DRIED FRUIT, SALT, WATER LIME, GRIND STONES, &c.,

and every thing in the shape of Merchandise that is wanted in any town or city. In the

DRY GOODS

Department our stock is at present the largest, richest and most magnificent ever before offered in Janesville. Among our DRESS GOODS may be found the most magnificent stock of Plain Black and Watered Gro de Rhine Silks, and Plain, Plaid and Striped Fancy Silks, ever offered for sale in Janesville.

The attention of the ladies is particularly directed to our very extensive assortment of

PLAIN BLACK SILKS.

We have some better Goods than can be found at any other store in the city, and our prices are as low as you will have to pay for an inferior article at other stores; also a very extensive assortment of All Wool and Silk and Wool, Plain and Figured Bareges, Barege Delaines, &c.

Among our stock of low priced Dress Goods may be found

3,000 yds. Fine French Lawns at 5½ c., sold at other stores at 1s. per yard.
4,000 do. 9c., sold at other stores 1s. 3d. per yard.
4,000 do. 1s. sold at other stores 1s. 6d. do.
2,000 do. Barege Delaines 1s., sold at other stores 2s. per yard.
10,000 do. Madder Prints, 6¼c., sold at other stores 10c per yard.

SHAWLS!

In this department we have a very extensive assortment of White Crape, Square and long, Plain and Figured Cashmere, Black and Colored Silk, Barege, and everything in the Shawl line, from the lowest price to the best article in the market.

EMBROIDERY GOODS.

We probably have a better assortment of these Goods than all the rest of the stores in Janesville put together, consisting of Flowing Sleeves, Habits, Chemisetts, Collars &c., of the most fashionable goods in market, which will be sold at LOWER PRICES than ever before sold in this State. The attention of the Ladies is particularly directed to these Goods.

PARASOLS.

We have now on sale 1600 Parasols. Our Immense stock in these goods compels us to say that we will undersell any establishment in this City, at least 25 per cent.

4000 Yards

Fine, Fast Colored French Ginghams this day received, that we are selling at 1s. per yard. They cannot be matched in town less than 1s. 6d. Call soon, if you want to save 50 per cent in Ginghams, as they are going fast.

BONNET AND BONNET RIBBONS, Cheaper than the Cheapest.

READY-MADE CLOTHING.

Our Clothing Rooms are well stocked with the best made and most fashionable clothing in the market.—We have the most extensive assortment of all kinds of clothing in Rock county, and we shall keep up the reputation we have already gained, of underselling any of our neighbors. Among our stock may be found 1,000 Linen Coats, warranted linen, at 75 cents each.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

We have now in store over 20,000 pairs of BOOTS AND SHOES, of all descriptions, which the people are requested to take a look at. When they examine the goods and hear the prices, we know they will purchase.

CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE.

In these goods we have a very extensive stock of the best ware in the market. Persons wanting full sets of crockery, will do well to give us a call, as they will save at least 25 per cent, and get the very best of ware.

GROCERIES.

As usual our stock of these goods is very large and complete, and the choicest kind of goods. We have a few more chests of that splendid YOUNG HYSON TEA, that we have been selling so much of. Good Sugar for 4½c.

In conclusion, we would say that we find the Cash System the only one that will win. We buy our goods wholly for cash, and shall sell them for the same, and no other way; and consequently those that buy and sell on a credit of a year, eighteen months or two years, as the case may be, cannot sell goods at our prices.—THAT'S SO! For the proof of our assertion, call and examine our goods and prices.

Remember the Store, corner Main & Milwaukee streets.

EMPIRE CASH STORE!

The Cheapest Store in the County.

THE LARGEST, Most General and Best Selected Stock of MERCHANDISE ever introduced to the people of Rock and the adjoining counties is now received at the EMPIRE CASH STORE. A Stock larger than any Two Stores in Janesville to be Sold for CASH, at prices that all can see are at least 25 per cent lower than the PRETENDED CASH STORES SELL FOR.

We mean what we say exactly: We can sell you

FOR THE

Least amount of Money

Than any other Store in the county. For this reason we sell more Goods than any two Stores in Janesville, and this year we intend to sell more than any three, consequently, we can sell just one-third cheaper, as our expenses are no more by selling so much than they would be did we not sell any more than our neighbors.

Reduce The Price and Increase the Speed

Is the order of the day; and in order to do so, we have purchased this spring larger than ever, and intend to sell at prices to astonish everybody.

We buy Goods to SELL, and intend everybody shall understand this by our prices. We have purchased every thing by the Cord in the way of Merchandise. Our Stock embraces every thing in the Goods line, kept in such a store as ours only, commencing with

DRY GOODS, GROCERIES,

CROCKERY, HARDWARE in connection with a general STOVE TRADE.

READY-MADE CLOTHING,

BOOTS and SHOES, HATS, BONNETS, RIBBONS and CAPS, &c. &c.

To enumerate which would be impossible, (any one seeing our stock will be satisfied of that).

All we have to say is we have JUST WHAT YOU WANT, AT PRICES TO SUIT YOU, a fact which all can see by calling at the EMPIRE CASH STORE.

KIER'S ROCK OIL,

FROM a Well 400 feet deep, Near Pittsburgh, Pa., is offered to the public as a Natural Medicine of no common value. It is a different thing from the old Kentucky or American Oil, as this is used INTERNALLY as well as externally. As a local remedy in Paralysis, Piles, Rheumatism, Deafness, Loss of Sight, Burns, &c. —also, as a valuable Internal Remedy for Piles, Ague, Scrofula, Coughs, Diarrhœa, Erysipelas, old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Female Diseases, Worms, Bladder and Kidneys, Bronchitis, Pains &c. &c., it invites the investigating Physician, as well as the suffering patient, to become acquainted with its merits.

Discovered in 1849, it has within 2 or 3 years, made multitudes of cures, and multitudes of friends—and as soon as tried the Sales not only increase but hold out. Testimony to its great merit is constantly accumulating in the hands of the proprietor by certificates, letters, and in other ways.

IT DOCTORS THE WHOLE MAN—flesh and blood —skin and bones—from head to foot—how it acts upon the system—upon diseases of different manifestations, we cannot fully tell. While it is both cathartic and astringent, it is Alterative—and mind you, a REGULATOR. A leading principle in it is Naptha. When you once have it in the family you will not be without it.

Full as the world is of Patent Medicines—it is thought not best to suppress this, the work of NATURE—to make room for Human inventions. Price 50 cents per bottle. It can be had of wholesalers at the large cities and towns in the West at Proprietor's prices.

HAVE WE AGUE AMONG US?—A tea spoonful every three hours in the absence of the fever will cure you of Ague or Diarrhœa. ☞ Physicians, Druggists, and all friends of the afflicted, will do well to recommend this Oil for PROLAPSUS UTERI, and good will be done —take the usual dose 2 or 3 times a day, and bathe the lower part of the back with it. Have you SCROFULA? The Petroleum will eradicate it, root and branch, at little cost or inconvenience. Get circulars of directions for adults and children, gratis of the agents. A trial is all we ask. Mind and get the right kind—it is of a beautiful reddish color and clear. Try it for Piles.

For sale by HOLDEN KEMP & CO., C. P. Simms, Cary & Gordon, Beloit; G. W. Kinsie, Magnolia; Goodrich, Davis & Co., Milton; S. A. Pond, Albany; P. D. Vaughn & Co., Union; H. Cheney, Johnstown; M. Elliot, Monroe. 43m3

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S CELEBRRAED CATHOLICON,

FOR THE RELIEF AND CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called Female Complaints. Of these are Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the womb; Fluor Albus, or Whites; Chronic Inflammation and Ulceration of the Womb; Incidental Hemorrhage, or Flooding; Painful Menstruation &c with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted.) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

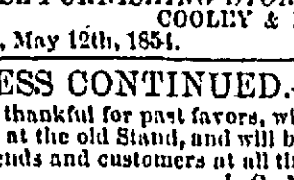

The Catholicon far surpasses other remedies, in being more certain, less expensive, and leaving the system in a better condition Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICE.

75 Cents to $5,00.

MR. J. E. POWERS, lately from Troy, (N. Y.) respectfully informs the Ladies and Gentlemen of this place and vicinity that he has made a permanent location in Janesville, and has taken rooms over EHLE'S JEWELRY STORE, where he is prepared to take

Daguerreotype Likenesses,

Either single or in groups, not to be surpassed in Wisconsin. Miniatures taken in as good style as the Art can produce, having all the improved chemicals of the age, which, together with the advantages of a superior light, enable him to give a clear, bold and life-like picture.

Miniatures taken in all weathers equally well, and warranted not to fade in the least, from 75 cents to $1. Pictures taken over for 50 cents.

Lockets and fancy cases of all styles furnished to order, and also miniatures in Pin and Bracelets.

Miniatures of sick or diseased persons taken at their residences if required.

Pictures of Children of any age correctly taken at very low rates.

His Room will be open from 7 A. M. to 5. P. M., and he invites all those that wish to see GOOD Pictures, to

Call and Examine his Specimens,

whether they wish likenesses or not.

Among these specimens are Miniatures of Henry Clay, John P. Hale, Jenny Lind and General Tom Thumb.

Instructions given in the art on reasonable terms.

1000 Dollars Reward,

WILL be given to any person—Physician or otherwise—who will perform a cure as quickly and permanently, by any means whatever, of any of the following diseases, as can be done by the use of

PULVERMACHER'S

Hydro-Electric Voltaic Chains.

Rheumatism,	Nervous Headache,
Painful and Swelled Joints,	Palpitation of the Heart,
Sciatica,	General Debility,
Paralysis,	Female Diseases,
Spinal Disease,	Neuralgia of the Face,
Deafness, Blindness,	Rheumatic Pains of the
Dyspepsia, Indigestion,	Chest

ALL NERVOUS DISEASES

Are almost instantly removed by the simple application of the Electric Chains, which are constructed so as to be worn next to the skin, producing a constant current of uninterrupted Electro-Magnetism, which within the last few years has been discovered to possess STRANGE and WONDERFUL POWER, in the INSTANT RELIEF and PERMANENT CURE of nervous diseases.

HISTORY.

Pulvermachers' Chain are presented to the public, as the most scientific and convenient mode of applying this powerful agent. They have been secured by patent in France, (where they were invented) England, Germany, Austria, Belgium, and one year since introduced into the United States, and also secured by patent. They are used in every Hospital in the State of New York, and highly recommended by professors Valentine Mott, Van Buren, Post, Carnochan, of that city, who daily make use of them in their practice.

THE WORLD IS CHALLENGED

to produce so many well authenticated certificates of cure, not only from intelligent patients, but from scientific Physicians. The sale now in New York is perfectly ASTONISHING, and thousands who visit the Crystal Palace where they are on exhibition, seldom fail to obtain a chain before they leave the city.

Thanks be to the common sense of the people who are beginning to become disgusted with the practice of making a Drug Shop of their stomach—swallowing bottle after bottle of sickening, disgusting trash, having no more effect in even relieving, much less curing, the disease for which they are recommended, than a Poor Man's Plaster applied to the top of the head would have in curing an infant of worms.

All these great and remarkable discoveries, by which every ill "which flesh is heir to" is eradicated from the earth—strange as it may seem—are made by men who are too ignorant to obtain a living by any other mode, and their knowledge of disease, its proper mode of cure, its cause, is just as extensive as an Arab's is of the mechanism of a steam engine. No intelligent person will deny the truth of this, and no Physician dare risk his reputation as an honest man, and declare that nervous diseases are not more frequently increased in severity than relieved, by the old antiquated way of giving medicine into the stomach. If people will only become sensible and think for themselves, and believe that physicians practice upon their credulity more than they have any idea of, pay strict attention to temperance in all things, (which means very much,) make free use of pure cold water, internally and externally, with an occasional dash of soap, sleep in freely ventilated rooms, retire early and rise early, be happy and cheerful, employ their physicians to tell them "they require no physic;"—by so doing health and happiness will increase, bottled molasses and water be at a discount, and its famous discoverers be consigned to their legitimate stations.

The Hydro-Electric chains are now for the first time offered to the people of Nashua, as being a better, quicker, and safer mode of curing all nervous diseases, than any other method or means hitherto discovered. They can be used by either a grown person or a child, are always ready for use, and with little care will last for years.

CAUTION.

Ladies who are enciente, are requested not to wear them, for by long use, miscarriage is apt to be produced.

Price of Chains, $3 to $5, and can be sent by mail to any part of the country, together with a pamphlet of 36 pages, containing the modes of use, certificates of cure, &c.

GOODS CHEAPER THAN EVER BEFORE KNOWN.

JACKMAN, PARKER & CO. Are now receiving at their Store, corner of Main and Milwaukee streets, the most extensive assortment of Merchandise ever before received at any establishment in the State, consisting in part of a very general assortment of

STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS, READY MADE CLOTHING, HATS AND CAPS, BONNETS, BOOTS AND SHOES, GROCERIES, CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE, DRIED FRUIT SALT, WATER LIME, GRIND STONES, &c.,

and every thing in the shape of Merchandise that is wanted in any town or city. In the

DRY GOODS

Department our stock is at present the largest, richest and most magnificent ever before offered in Janesville. Among our DRESS GOODS may be found the most magnificent stock of Plain Black and Watered Gro de Rhine Silks, and Plain, Plaid and Striped Fancy Silks, ever offered for sale in Janesville.

The attention of the ladies is particularly directed to our very extensive assortment of

PLAIN BLACK SILKS.

We have some better Goods than can be found at any other store in the city, and our prices are as low as you will have to pay for an inferior article at other stores; also a very extensive assortment of All Wool and Silk and Wool, Plain and Figured Bareges, Barege Delaines, &c.

Among our stock of low priced Dress Goods may be found
3,000 yds. Fine French Lawns at 5¼ c., sold at other stores at 1s. per yard.
4,000 do. 9c., sold at other stores 1s. 3d. per yard.
4,000 do. 1s. sold at other stores 1s. 6d. do.
2,000 do. Barege Delaines 1s., sold at other stores 2s. per yard.
10,000 do. Madder Prints, 6¼c., sold at other stores 10c per yard.

SHAWLS!

In this department we have a very extensive assortment of White Crape, Square and long, Plain and Figured Cashmere, Black and Colored Silk, Barege, and everything in the Shawl line, from the lowest price to the best article in the market.

EMBROIDERY GOODS.

We probably have a better assortment of these Goods than all the rest of the stores in Janesville put together, consisting of Flowing Sleeves, Habits, Chemisetts, Collars &c., of the most fashionable goods in market, which will be sold at LOWER PRICES than ever before sold in this State. The attention of the Ladies is particularly directed to these Goods.

PARASOLS.

We have now on sale 1600 Parasols Our immense stock in these goods compels us to say that we will undersell any establishment in this City, at least 25 per cent.

4000 Yards

Fine, Fast Colored French Ginghams this day received, that we are selling at 1s. per yard They cannot be matched in town less than 1s. 6d. Call soon, if you want to save 50 per cent in Ginghams, as they are going fast

BONNET AND BONNET RIBBONS,
Cheaper than the Cheapest.

READY-MADE CLOTHING.

Our Clothing Rooms are well stocked with the best made and most fashionable clothing in the market.—We have the most extensive assortment of all kinds of clothing in Rock county, and we shall keep up the reputation we have already gained, of underselling any of our neighbors. Among our stock may be found 1,000 Linen Coats, warranted linen, at 75 cents each.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

We have now in store over 20,000 pairs of BOOTS AND SHOES, of all descriptions, which the people are requested to take a look at. When they examine the goods and hear the prices, we know they will purchase.

CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE.

In these goods we have a very extensive stock of the best ware in the market. Persons wanting full sets of crockery, will do well to give us a call, as they will save at least 25 per cent, and get the very best of ware

GROCERIES.

As usual our stock of these goods is very large and complete, and the choicest kind of goods. We have a few more chests of that splendid YOUNG HYSON TEA, that we have been selling so much of. Good Sugar for 4½c.

In conclusion, we would say that we find the Cash System the only one that will win. We buy our goods wholly for cash, and shall sell them for the same, and no other way; and consequently those that buy and sell on a credit of a year, eighteen months or two years, as the case may be, cannot sell goods at our prices.—THAT'S SO! For the proof of our assertion, call and examine our goods and prices.

EMPIRE CASH STORE!

The Cheapest Store in the County.

THE LARGEST, Most General and Best Selected Stock of MERCHANDISE ever introduced to the people of Rock and the adjoining counties is now received at the EMPIRE CASH STORE. A Stock larger than any Two Stores in Janesville to be Sold for CASH, at prices that all can see are at least 25 per cent lower than the PRETENDED CASH STORES SELL FOR.

We mean what we say exactly: We can sell you

FOR THE

Least amount of Money

Than any other Store in the county. For this reason we sell more Goods than any two Stores in Janesville, and this year we intend to sell more than any three, consequently, we can sell just one-third cheaper, as our expenses are no more by selling so much than they would be did we not sell any more than our neighbors.

Reduce The Price and Increase the Speed

Is the order of the day; and in order to do so, we have purchased this spring larger than ever, and intend to sell at prices to astonish everybody.

We buy Goods to SELL, and intend everybody shall understand this by our prices. We have purchased every thing by the Cord in the way of Merchandise. Our Stock embraces every thing in the Goods line, kept in such a store as ours only, commencing with

DRY GOODS, GROCERIES,

CROCKERY, HARDWARE in connection with a general STOVE TRADE.

READY-MADE CLOTHING,

BOOTS and SHOES, HATS, BONNETS, RIBBONS and CAPS, &. &c.,

To enumerate which would be impossible, (any one seeing our stock will be satisfied of that).

All we have to say is we have JUST WHAT YOU WANT, AT PRICES TO SUIT YOU, a fact which all can see by calling at the EMPIRE CASH STORE.

THE POWER OF LOVE.

[Concluded.]

As Jasper said this, he rose from his chair, and staggered towards the door. He paused a moment, as he held the nob in his hand—perhaps with the thought that his wife might speak a kind word to him, or show some alarm at the idea of his leaving her. Busy, terrible thoughts were running through his head. The room seemed to turn round and round. He opened the door and passed into the hall; but no voice came from Mary. She sat silent as stone, but with a heart bursting with grief. She dearly loved her husband, and longed to speak the kind word that would turn him back, but pride and stubbornness forbade. The sound of his unsteady steps, as he passed along the hall to the front door, fell forebodingly upon her ear, and when that door was closed behind him, and Jasper stood irresolute without the house, the fountains of her grief were opened, and she wept and sobbed most piteously.

It was a sad, sad sight, that young wife with all her hopes blighted, the chosen of her heart given up to the most debasing of all sins, her young child deprived of its protector, with immediate ruin and starvation staring her in the face, with no solitary hope in the future, and all the agony of the present. The memories of happier days rose before her—the innocent days of her girlhood, surrounded with gay companions, and blessed with a mother's love. All these she had sacrificed for the man she loved. How was she repaid? What had she done to deserve so bitter a fate? What dreadful sin had she committed to be thus punished? How unequal seems the reward and chastisements of life. Mary thus reflected and almost arraigned the justice and benificence of God. Jasper had left the house in anger. What might happen to him in his present condition? Where would he go? Such were the wife's fears, though she hoped that he might return as soon as his anger had a little subsided. She was sorry that she had spoken so harshly to him. That was no way to redeem him; but had she not tried kind words till her patience was exhausted? And what woman would not get angry with a drunken husband? Such were this poor ill-treated wife's emotions, and who could blame her?

All at once she thought that she would go to the door to see if Jasper had really gone. She rose from her chair for that purpose, and half way crossed the room. But pride rebelled again. She would not show him that she was at all worried about him. It was all he wanted, and he should not be gratified; so she returned once more to her chair, where she wept as though her heart was breaking, and like enough it was for all that, for she was indeed most miserable.

When Jasper had closed the door behind him, and stood out once more in the open night air he was undecided what to do, or where to go. Maddened as he was by the reproaches of his wife, self-condemned by an accusing conscience, sick and weary with liquor and excitement, it is no wonder that his first thought was suicide. No wonder that he felt unworthy to live; strange that he did not think himself unfit to die. Such is the direful effects of the intoxicating bowl—such the "deep damnation" with which it is drugged. Far more dangerous than the dicer's box, it kills both body and soul, and its train is made up of disease, imbecility, lunacy, poverty, crime, the prison and the gallows! There is no innocence in it; it blights wherever it falls; it stains all it touches. It makes desolate the family hearthstone. It pits man against his brother; it raises the hand of the child against the parent; even the innocent are made sufferers thereby; and the loud wail of its myriads of victims rises up from every quarter of the civilized world. It is one of the curses invented by civilization, and to that only does it owe its birth; for the African in his native state is uncontaminated with it; and the vilest animal that exists turns away from it with disgust.

Jasper, when he had closed the door, paused for some minutes, undetermined what to do.—We have said that his first thought was suicide.

"I am not fit to live!" he exclaimed. I know I am wrong, and yet I cannot help it—I cannot help it, and I might as well die at once, as live on in disgrace. Somebody will take care of Mary. She will go back to her mother; and she will be much happier and far better off without me than with me. I cannot stand her reproaches—I will not. As for any future, it cannot be worse for me than the present, at any rate. Yes, I may as well die!"

Though Jasper talked thus about suicide, we do not suppose he had any more distinct idea of it than of anything else that might happen to be rambling through his head. The fumes of the liquor were still upon him. He was not more than half sober and his legs were still so weak under him, that they carried him with a wavering gait, and his head buzzed, buzzed like a nest of bees. But he meant to punish his wife for talking so angrily with him. At one moment he had half a mind to turn back, and go to bed; but the devil had the better of him, and mustering up his resolution, he buttoned his coat about him, and proceeded to descend into the street. The first step he made, however, was a false one. His knees bent under him. He made a vain and desperate attempt to catch at the iron railing of the stoop, but missed his hold, and pitched forward into the street, striking head first upon the side walk, and cutting and bruising his face in a terrible manner, so as to render him completely insensible.

Now it so happened that at this moment Mary thought that she would go to the door and look out; not that she doubted but what Jasper had gone, still at the same time half inclined to believe that he might be still in sight, and within call.

So she opened the door, and peered forth into the cold night air. How still and silent everything around. She looked up the street, and down the street; but the object which her eyes sought met them not. She drew a heavy sigh, as her heart felt a pang greater than she had known before, and she was about to close the door, when her ears were startled by a low moan, and then, for the first time, casting her eyes down upon the side walk, they rested upon the form of her husband.

With a cry of terror, Mary was in an instant stooping by the side of Jasper, urging him with all the dearest language of her heart, to look up, to speak, to even rise; but alas! it was beyond his power. Vainly she tried to lift him, but her strength was not equal to the task. Oh, how bitterly she then repented all the unkind words she had said to him—how every reproach smote upon her heart. She forgot all his errors—she became blind to his numerous faults, and Jasper was once more her best beloved. Every word of endearment she could think of, she poured forth with a voluble tongue, but they all fell ineffectually upon his ear. What should she do? Jasper would die, and there were none to help her. She was ashamed to cry aloud for aid. To claim the assistance of the neighbors, would be to expose her husband's condition, and so she strove with all her little strength to raise him, and get him into the house, but all her efforts failed. In his present condition, Jasper would die—where, then, was her relief?—where should she receive assistance?

Fortunately, at this moment, one of the city watchmen came along. Mary at once appealed to him. He was a strong built, stalwart fellow, and at once took Jasper up in his arms, and carried him into the house, and up stairs to his bed. He then volunteered to call a physician, one fortunately living within a few doors of the house. In the meantime Mary applied all the restoratives she could think of. She wetted a towel with vinegar, and bathed his temples, and wiped the blood from a large wound in his forehead. His pulse was feeble, and his breathing indistinct and difficult. Ah, poor wife! this was about the crowning of all your misery!

The physician was soon in attendance. He examined the wound in Jasper's head, and pronounced it a slight fracture of the skull; but said that with proper treatment and careful attention he might recover, though it might be some weeks first. The wound was then dressed and restorative cordials administered, and the doctor left, saying that he would call again early in the morning.

For more than two hours did Jasper lie insensible, and when at last he opened his eyes and spoke, it became evident that his mind was wandering. And now came Mary's opportunity to show her devotion and attention. How she watched by her sick husband's side, administering with angelic patience to his every want—never for a moment tired of her duty. Notwithstanding the sorrow that she felt for Jasper's misfortune, she could but acknowledge to herself, that she had seldom enjoyed so much happiness before. He was now all her own. Each hour that she spent by his bedside, was a small life-time of bliss. She could read to him, talk to him, and sing to him. Even Jasper himself, when his reason was fully restored, acknowledged that he had never before known how great a treasure he possessed in his wife.

After the first week of his confinement, he began to mend rapidly. He had also ample time to reflect upon his errors, and upon his neglect of his wife; and what most particularly elicited his admiration, was her own silence upon the cause of his accident. He could not but appreciate such delicacy, and he inwardly determined that, when restored to health, he would refrain from his past habits of dissipation, and devote the remainder of his life in securing the happiness of his wife and child; and he was fully confirmed in this resolution when he learned from her lips, that during his illness, she had procured the means of subsistence by pawning a considerable portion of her jewelry, among which was a gold watch that was made a present of by her mother on her wedding day. In his expression of gratitude to her, he was extravagantly lavish, and protested again and again that nothing in future should ever make him remiss in his duties to his family. You can easily imagine with what boundless joy Mary received his assurances. It was like a new plighting of their faith—a second betrothal, as it were, in which all her earlier bliss was to be renewed. Heaven had at last smiled upon her. The clouds of despair and doubt were dispelled, and together they looked forward to many years of domestic enjoyment.

But did he keep the pledge thus given? As faithfully as ever pledge was kept. Woman's devotion had at last reclaimed him. What reproaches could not effect, was accomplished by love. The lesson was not lost upon either.—Jasper once more became the true and earnest man. He had absolved himself from a slavish and debasing habit. No more nights were spent at carousal among debauched inebriates; no more hard earned dollars went into the rum seller's till. He walked in peace and pleasantness and lived in prosperity; and to this day, there are no happier men and wives in the city than Jasper and Mary Hanley. Let all husbands thus appreciate their wives; and let all true women who have husbands to reform, commence the work in kindness, and follow it up in the true spirit of love, and "verily they shall have their reward."

VERMONT.—The division in this state among the friends of freedom have been happily removed by the forbearance, liberality and wisdom of the several parties. The state committee nominated by the mass convention, which met at Montpelier, have placed Judge Royce, the whig nominee for governor, upon their ticket, and he has accepted their nomination in a letter declaring the resolutions of the two conventions, so far as they properly go to constitute a political platform for the future, as substantially the same. So also the whigs have accepted as their own candidate Gen. Fletcher, the nominee of the Montpelier convention, for lieut. governor, and he has likewise signified his acceptance and his endorsement of the resolutions adopted at the whig state convention at Rutland. In his letter of acceptance he adds:

"The freemen of the north have too long been divided into hostile parties, expending that strength against each other which should have been unitedly employed in sustaining the cause of freedom, while at the south, where the interests of slavery are involved, all party lines are obliterated, and all are found in a solid column, with an unbroken front. Slavery forms a bond of union stronger than the ordinary ties of party; hence the power and success of the south. Divided we have fallen, divided we must ever fall, before the all-grasping and ever-encroaching slave power.

"The heart of the patriot is cheered in the present alarming condition of our country, by the prospect that those who love and value our free and happy institution will now ardently unite in their support."

In the recent conventions in Washington and Orange counties, the opponents of the Nebraska outrage have united in the nomination of county officers and of state senators. Similar unions have been made in Chittenden, Addison, Rutland, and other counties, and it is exceedingly doubtful whether a single advocate of the Nebraska bill or a friend of the administration will be chosen to the senate in the state.

Hon. James Meacham has been renominated to congress in the first congressional district; Hon. Justin S. Morril has been selected in the second, in the place of Mr. Tracy, who declines a re-election, and Mr. Sabine was re-nominated by the convention of the third district, which met at St. Albans on Tuesday.—New Hampshire Statesman,

GOVERNOR GRIMES.—The Galena Gazette has the following brief sketch of the life of the newly elected republican governor of Iowa.

Mr. Grimes is an old settler of Iowa, but is yet a young man. He is a native of New Hampshire and a graduate of Dartmouth College.—We believe he was at Burlington, Iowa, as early as 1836. In 1837 we recollect him as secretary to Gov. Dodge, in the negotiation of some Indian treaties. He is a lawyer but has retired from his profession with a competency, and gone largely into the business of stock raising and farming. His recent contest and its results has given him a national reputation, which he have nobly earned.

JANESVILLE : : : : WISCONSIN.

MONDAY MORNING, AUG. 28, 1854.

SENATOR DOUGLAS.—This individual has at last ventured to show his infamous head in Chicago, and the Tribune devotes a column and a half of warm welcome to him, in which his treachery to northern interests is shown up in indignant but truthful phrase. Immediately after the passage of the Nebraska bill the very few friends he had left in Chicago proposed to have him visit that city, but so palpable were the indications that he would meet with insult and perhaps violence, should he then risk himself among his exasperated constituency, the advice of his friends and his own caution kept him away. Supposing the excitement had somewhat subsided, he now visits the city. The Tribune says:

He must have come by mail under one of his own franks, for the first place at which he was seen was the private room of our post-master, in solemn conclave with that dignitary and some dozen others of that clique. The result of their deliberations will doubtless be seen anon. His only public appearance was made in the saloon of "Young America"—the drinking hole—where his entrance of course created a marked sensation, and an increased demand for ponies and smashes.

His arrival here was distinguished by nothing save the supreme contempt and indifference manifested by the citizens of this place upon hearing of the fact. No attention whatever was paid him—he was met by no demonstration of honor or regard; he was harrassed by none of the annoying but yet eagerly sought honors of a public reception. He arrived in the city just as John Smith or William Brown would arrive here, and excited no more attention, excepting among a few office holders and expectants.—He has sunk very low—so low as to be beneath the gratuitous attentinns of a free and enlightened community.

In reference to his action in the Senate upon the great questions that vitally affect the northwest, and the feeling due him, the Tribune well says:

"Stephen A. Douglas has no claim upon the courtesy or kindness of the people of Chicago, but he has the deepest reasons to fear their detestation, their abhorrence, their rebukes, and their vengeance. He has betrayed us; he has disregarded us; he has insulted us; he has disgraced us; he has injured us in our reputation, our fair fame, our honor, and our pecuniary interests. He has turned a deaf ear to the voice of our best and most worthy citizens, who remonstrated with him upon his iniquities, and he has reviled and insulted and blackguarded the united clergy of our city, as they petitioned congress to abstain from the violation of national honor and plighted good faith. He has stabbed us in our commercial prosperity, and has placed in jeopardy the lives of our mariners, by refusing to give his vote and influence for our River and Harbor bill, and in all his acts, has disregarded our interests, and studied how to oppress us. Indeed, had he been sent to congress by some other state, with the express and entire intention of injuring and oppressing Chicago and Illinois, he could not have done more to please his employers than he has done during the past winter and spring. It is no wonder that he feared to meet the reproachful faces of those whom he has betrayed!"

BEATEN, AFTER ALL.—The defeat of the Nebraska democracy of Iowa is one of the most significant as well as cheering signs of the times, and its value is enhanced by the character of the means adopted to avert it. Preceding the election a report was circulated that congress had passed the homestead bill, and extras and placards to that effect were sent all over the state, reminding every poor man and squatter that a democratic congress and president had conferred upon them the great boon of homes for little or nothing. This trick must have saved a good many votes, and yet the party was disastrously beaten. Nebraska was too odious to be saved even with the help of the homestead.

FEELING IN THE WEST.—The Grant County Herald has a call for a "mass convention of anti-Nebraska men," to be held in Lancaster, on the 6th of September. The call states the object to be "effectively organizing for the approaching elections, upon a basis of perfect union with the anti-Nebraska party in other parts of the state and United States." The Herald, which as our readers well know from the extracts we have republished from it, does its own thinking, and always has a reason, usually a good one, for its opinions, favors the movement, although it is not exactly what it would like. From peculiar causes we feared the action of the Madison convention of the 13th of July would not be very cordially received in the western counties of the state, but we find a heartier concurrence there than we expected, and this movement in Grant county is a good sign in the right quarter.

A SET-BACK.—A majority of the stockholders of the Jeffersonville railroad, which runs through Indiana, ordained a regulation for the road that no negro should ride over it without a passport certifying to his freedom—thus endeavoring to impose upon Indiana the discipline of the plantation. In this effort to "enlarge the area of freedom "and extend the "blessings" of their peculiar "institution," they have been very promptly checkmated by the courts of Indiana, which hold that the state is a free one, and every person is presumed to be free until he has been proved a slave.

☞ Mr. Densmore philosophises at some length over "reform," in order to get a chance to lecture the Janesville Gazette. When the weather cools off, we may look to our Kenosha neighbor a little. At present we can only say that many a good caurse has been injured by a "stationery" advocate.

If any young man wants to reach the "high top-gallant-mast of felicity," let him make a journey through Maine, seated on the back seat of a stage coach between two down east girls with only one piece of spruce gum for the three to chew. The editor of the Boston Herald has tried it.

BOOK ITEMS.

THE RUSSIAN OF THE BLACK SEA., &c. By LAURENCE OLIPHANT. Redfield, 110 and 112 Nassau street, New York.

In this pleasing little volume we have a book for the times, written by an observing man, well fitted for the post he assumes. Maps of different parts of the czar's dominions aid the reader and from Cronstadt around to Sebastopol you can travel in good company with our author. His book is very readable and cannot fail to be of use to those interested in European affairs. Mr. O. is a good humored companion, writes cleverly and philosophises about Russia, Turkey, Hungary and Europe generally, in a sensible manner. For sale at Sutherland's.

By the way, who has noticed the emblem on Redfield's title pages. A ring made of a serpent, the mythological symbol of eternity; and a lamp in the centre of the ring, the lamp of knowledge, shining forever. Happy symbol, say we.

A FINE GIFT.—The Messrs. Drake have our thanks for a very choice bouquet of flowers gathered from their nursery in this city. It contained some of the finest specimens of dahlias we have ever seen, and a most bountiful number. The Messrs. D. have a large variety of these flowers, and those who wish to see them in blossom, for the purpose of selecting hereafter, would do well to call at the nursery, where they may be seen.

TRACK RE-LAID.—The Madison Argus of the 24th says that the sink hole in the bed of the Milwaukee road, near that place, has been bridged and the track re-laid.

A NEW AMERICAN NOVEL.—The Buffalo Commercial says that G. P. R. James, the famous English writer of fiction, has written an American novel which the Harpers are to bring out. It is entitled "Ticonderoga," where the scene is laid. It is based on incidents occurring at the time of Gen. Abercrombie's expedition.

A NEW BANK.—The Madison Journal says that a new bank, to be called the Madison Bank, is talked about in that place. Mr. Lowe, the cashier, has deposited securities to the amount of $5,0000 with the comptroller, and gone last to procure the plates for the bills. It is expected the bank will open about the first of October next.

☞ Mr. Grimes, the recently elected governor of Iowa is a native of Deering, N. H.

EUGENIA.—A Paris letter to the New York Herald says:—"There is a scandal just now prevalent in England, that the same miserable tragedy is about to be acted in France which was played in Napoleon the Great's time, and which dishonored and broke the heart of the empress Josephine. Hereditary succession will be the cause of this cruel and unnatural act, if it be accomplished."

SINGULAR DISCLOSURE.—A surgeon in the United States army recently desired to know the most common cause of enlistment. By permission of the captain, in a company containing fifty five, the writer pledged never to disclose the name of officers or private, except as a physical or mataphysical fact; the true history was obtained of every man. On investigation, it appeared that nine tenths enlisted on account of some female difficulty, thirteen had changed their names, and forty-three were either drunk, or partially so, at the time of their enlistment.—Most of them were men of fine talents and had once been in elevated positions of life. Four had been lawyers, three doctors, and two ministers.

RIGHT.—The token of recognition has finally been discovered by a close observer. When a know nothing wishes to recognise another, he closes one eye, makes an O with his thumb and finger, and places his nose through it—which being interpreted reads:

"Eye——nose——O."
"I——knows—nothing."

A NORTH CAROLINA EDITOR.—The Milton Chronicle sums up the occupations of his neighbor of the Spectator as follows:

He is an officating minister of the gospel; a licensed attorney; a newspaper editor; agent for nearly all the insurance and assurance companies north of the Potomac; commissioner for thirty states, and an applicant for the same when Kansas and Nebraska shall have come in; bank director; chairman of the board of superintendents of common schools; temperance orator; agent and counsel for Wake Forest college; president and secretary of all the boards of the Baptist church, &c., and in addition, he owns more town property, has the neatest farm, the best fruits and the finest cattle of any man in the country.

We walked to church on Sunday morning, behind "the girl with the hole in her stocking." It was a very large one and we thought her heel must be cold. She probably knew of it Saturday, but remembered the Sabbath day to keep it hole-y.

Something New!!

MR. CHARLES AUSTIN, the celebrated Reed maker has just completed his new Organ Reed, upon which he has labored for the last five years and expended more than six thousand dollars. This reed is different from all others in its composition, being much larger and having more power. It is intended for Church and Parlor Organs as manufactured by Messrs. Austin & Co. These Organs have an upright (Organ) action and are of the shape of all Church Organs. The price will range from $175 to $300, depending upon the finish of the case. To churches in want of an instrument of that value we would say that they have more power than any common Organ costing, $500.

J. F. Pease & Co., Janesville Wis., are interested in the manufacture and sale of these instruments, and are the only persons through whom they can be had. They will have one or more for exhibition as early as Sept. 10, and after that a good assortment as soon as they can be manufactured.

A PERIODICAL IN JANESVILLE!
"The Wisconsin Home,"

A Miscellaneous and Reformatory Journal, will be printed on the first and fifteenth of each month from and after the

by Messrs. BAKER & DOTY, publishers and proprietors of the Janesville Free Press; and edited by WM. M. DOTY, of the above named firm.

Each No. of "THE WISCONSIN HOME" will consist of EIGHT PAGES; making a sheet, in point of size, nearly the same as the "Scientific American." We shall reserve ONLY ONE COLUMN OF ADVERTISING for the purpose of publishing an occasional prospectus in addition to our own; leaving THIRTY-ONE COLUMNS OF READING MATTER.

One or two good stories will appear in each No. but none except those having a directly moral and beneficial tendency will be admitted into its columns. A short summary of passing events will be given; but no political grounds will be taken. As a better idea may be formed by seeing the article itself, the first No. will be furnished to all who may wish to examine it, FREE OF CHARGE.

The TERMS of "The Wisconsin Home" will be ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR, payable half yearly in advance. Subscription books now open.

☞ Orders solicited early, especially for sample numbers, in order that we may know how large an edition will supply the demand. Address post-paid,
WM. M. DOTY, Janesville, Wis.

₊ Papers giving the above one insertion and calling attention thereto editorially, will not only be entitled to an exchange, but to the thanks of the proprietor.

No. 18, Exchange Place. }
NEW YORK, August 10th, 1854.

AT A MEETING OF THE DIRECTORS of this Company held on Tuesday the 8th inst. the following resolutions were adopted.

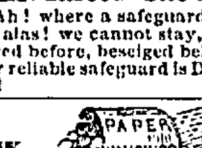

Resolved: That shareholders who were such on the 26th July 1854, who have not paid the installments which were called for by resolution of that date and which were due and payable viz: Five per cent on the first Monday of September 1854. Five per cent on the first Monday of October 1854, and ten per cent on the first Monday of November 1854, be notified that unless the said installments be paid in full to the treasurer of the company or his order at their office in the city of Janesvillee, Wis., on or before the second day of October 1854 the said stock will be forfeited and all previous payments thereon.

Resolved: That an assessment of Ten Dollars on each share of stock of this company be and the same is hereby required to be paid to the treasurer of the company or his order at their office in the city of Janesville, Wis., on or before the second day of October 1854, and in default of payment the stock will be forfeited and all previous payments thereon.

In accordance with the above resolutions shareholders are requested to pay the above installments and asessment to J. Bodwell Doe, Esq., at the company's office in the city of Janesville without further order.

AGAIN & AGAIN
THE BOSTON STORE.

Let the Horn be Blown!!

"Sound the loud timbrel o'er land and o'er sea,"
WHEELOCK'S triumphant, and ever shall be.

THIS is the middle of the nineteenth century, the first half of which has produced more change and onward movement than any fifty years of our Christian Era.

The great controlling power of this age is its commerce—indeed, this may be truly called the commercial age.

It has been well said by an ancient writer that
"Man wants but little here below,"
and to supply those wants

WHEELOCK

Announces to every people and every tongue, to both sexes and all parties, to all factions of all gauges, that finding his old store entirely

TOO SMALL!

He has been compelled, in order to be able to supply the immense call for goods at his establishment, to

Double the capacity of his Store Rooms!

Having purchased this spring, for this market, to be sold this season,

$39,007 00 Worth of Goods

But who can expect to read in the brief space of one life all the articles that the

BOSTON STORE CONTAINS.

Indeed, history must fail to give the searcher of knowledge any accurate idea of his immense

STOCK OF SUMMER GOODS,

His inimitable selection of

Fancy Dress Goods!

He has over

10,000 Yards of Silk Bareges,

of every style and price, and it is with no great difficulty that the fair damsels of this fair valley can select,

FROM THE ONE THOUSAND PIECES,

Of all patterns and ranging in price from SIX CENTS Per Yard to Twenty-Eight Cents, such dresses as will add to their exqusite beauty, though it may as a general thing, be as difficult to add to that beauty as it is "to gild refined gold, paint the lily, or add perfume to the violet."

It must not be inferred that we offer only these and the many other articles for outer apparel, such as Chamelion and Foulard Silks, but all manner of

are on change, so that every one may be entirely accommodated with every article of female apparrel.—
Eyed French red foxed Gaiters,
do do wolfed do
Ladies' Enameled Boots, Enameled sewed Congress Boots,
LADIES MOROCCO POLKAS,

And all the articles manufacutred of the best styles.—So that of this store, so far as articles which adorn La Belle sex are concerned, it may be truly said

"CUSTOM cannot stale the infinite variety."

While the Boston Store has made provision to protect the feet, it can also boast that it has all sorts of

G L O V E S,

by which hands can be protected and retain

"The white wonder of fair Juliet's hand."

And in taking leave of those of whom it is no exaggeration to say they are

"Heaven's last, best gift to man,"

the Nonparells of beauty, the Paragons of perfection, Mr. Wheelock assures his fair customers that his assistants and auxiliaries are those who unite great knowledge of the business, fine personal presence and affability of manner to a determination to discharge CONSCIENTIOUSLY their several and re-pective duties—that while they may have the proper desire to effect sales, they will never in imitation of many of our contemporaries attempt to accomplish that object by equivocation, misrepresentation, exaggeration, tergiversation, fabrication, or by direct lying.

And now to the wants of the

COARSE-HAND SEX.

Mr. Wheelock has every kind of material to make those articles of dress that give to man his individuality—

PANTALOONS,

PATENT LEATHER do., GIRAFFE do.,

H A T S

That fit every head from the Websterian brow to the country politician's sconce, from the size of caput of him who is closely shorn after the Hibernian fashion to that of him who wears the well-pomatumed, ambrosialized, elongated Hyperion curls.

And to the speculator who buys to sell again,

The Boston Store

Can, at lower rates of usance than any other establishment west of the Alleghany mountains, furnish that class of exchanges so that riches will fill their pockets as water fills the sea. And to them we offer

DOMESTIC GLASSWARE, WORSTED,
Pocket Handkerchiefs, Inkstands, Cotton Yarn,
Ready-made Vests, Ground Pepper, Flannels,
Looking Glasses, Ready-Made Over Coats, Pants,
Raisins, Flat Irons and Cotton Batting, Lanterns,
Satchels, which the whining school-boy with shining morning face bears on his arm,
Chests, Norwegian Bandboxes and Hair Trunks,
Tea, Tobacco and Wicking.

In the

C R O C K E R Y

Line may be found the BENNINGTON, the PARIAN and the LAVA Manufacture, Pitchers for milk or water, Tea Pots, Spittoons, Bowls for washing, for bread and milk, or sugar, Candlesticks, children's Toys and Flower Pots, MAINE LIQUOR LAW VOLUMES and Lager Beer Mugs.

And in fine, the proprietor of this establishment can with all confidence assure those who have been in the habit of trading at Janesville that, although they have

"Often seen corruption boil and bubble till
It o'errun the stew,"

they will find that the representations which shall be made to them by that proprietor or his clerks will not

"Stand like forfeits in a Barber shop,
More in mock than mark."

SIGN OF THE SAW, MAIN STREET, JANESVILLE

THE SUBSCRIBERS, in returning their thanks to their numerous patrons for past favors, and soliciting a continuance of the same, would respectfully inform the people of Central and Western Wisconsin, that they have now in store, and offer for sale, at the lowest cash prices, a larger and better selected stock of

Heavy and Shelf Hardware,

Bar Iron, Steel, Nails,

Stoves, &c.,

than can be found in any other establishment in the interior of the State.

The attention of Consumers and Country Dealers is particularly invited to our immense stock of

AMERICAN, ENGLISH REFINED & SWEDES IRON,
CAST, GERMAN, ENGLISH & AMERICAN BLISTER,
TOE CALK, SPRING, COM. & CAST PLOW STEEL,
of all sizes.

Carpenter, Joiner, Cooper, Blacksmith, Wagon-making and Farming TOOLS,
House Trimmings,
Chain and Cistern Pumps, Lead Pipe,
Cut and Wrought Nails and Spikes,
Tin Ware, Tinner's Stock,
Brittania and Japanned Ware,
Table and Pocket Cutlery,
Shears, Scissors, Razors, &c.

Our stock of

Cook and Parlor Stoves

was never larger than at present, and comprises some forty different patterns selected with great care, (having been previously fully tested in this market,) from several of the best manufactories in Troy and Albany. Having bought our Stoves on long time, without interest, and at a great discount, we are enabled to compete successfully with those who buy in SMALL LOTS, "exclusively for cash," of which we will convince all who may give us a trial.

STOVE FURNITURE, STOVE PIPE, and all kinds of TIN WARE constantly on hand, or manufactured to order.

We are agents for the sale of Duryee & Forsyth's celebrated Fire Proof Safes and Platform and Counter Scales, and also for the sale of Yale's Magic Bank, Safe and Store Door Locks.

The ONE PRICE CASH SYSTEM, originally introduced into this community and strictly adhered to by this Establishment, has won for it a reputation far more valuable than the Stupendous Self-puffings, quarterly renewed, industriously circulated but universally discredited, which many modern shop keepers deem indispensable to success.

The system will of course be continued—admitting no variation or improvement—to the satisfaction undoubtedly of a large and most desirable class of customers, although at the sacrifice probably of the steady patronage of inveterate higglers and those who inherit the belief that all Salesmen will cheat them if possible.

Respectfully,
COOLEY & BABCOCK.

GREAT SALE OF
REAL ESTATE!

Rare Chance for Investment!

600 Village Lots!

THE undersigned offers at private sale SIX HUNDRED VILLAGE LOTS, situated in "Hickory Glen" and "Pixley & Shaw's" addition to Janesville, and located in the immediate vicinity of the Milwaukee and Mississippi railroad depot, in the city of Janesville.

The above property is but a short distance from the present business center of the thriving city of Janesville, and towards which, through the influence of the various railroads, in operation and projected, the business of the city is fast finding its way.

It is unnecessary to speak of the peculiar advantages of an investment in a property so centrally located in the largest inland city in the State of Wisconsin—a city so widely known for its thrift and business prosperity, possessing extensive water-power and surrounded by the best farming country in the world—as every one at all conversant with the progress of western cities will see at once these advantages.

The above property is offered at very low rates, and on the most favorable terms, particularly to those who wish to make immediate improvements on purchases.

Also, 1,000 Acres of the

Best Improved Farming Lands,

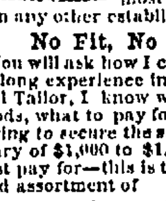

situated within a few miles of the city, which will be sold in lots to suit purchasers, from 40 to 320 acres.

For particulars enquire of the undersigned at "Pixley & Kimball's Hardware Store," or of THOMAS SHAW. B. F. PIXLEY.

Janesville Clothing Emporium.

WM. ADDY,

Merchant Tailor, & Dealer in Ready Made Clothing and Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods,

HAS received his Spring and Summer STOCK, consisting of the very Best and Fashionable CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, DOESKINS AND VESTINGS, of English, French and American manufacture.

This establishment is now, as usual, the favorite place of resort for the Fashionable, the Cutting Department still being under my own personal supervision, and warranted to suit the most difficult, twenty per cent lower than any other establishment in the State.

No Fit, No Sale, is my doctrine.

You will ask how I can do this; I will tell you: From my long experience in this business, and being a practical Tailor, I know when, where and how to buy my Goods, what to pay for them, and how to cut them, not having to secure the services of an eminent artist, at a salary of $1,000 to $1,500 a year, which the purchaser must pay for—this is the secret. I have got on hand a good assortment of

Ready Made Clothing,

of my own manufacture, and warranted in every respect. Call and examine, before you buy elsewhere.

☞ TERMS CASH.

NEW GOODS!
$15,000 Worth of

JUST RECEIVED AT THE

Wisconsin Boot & Shoe Store.

I AM now receiving one of the largest and finest stocks of Boots and Shoes that I have ever before brought to Janesville, and what is finer than all the rest, I can sell them at lower prices than I have ever sold before, notwithstanding the great advance in the Eastern Market. My assortment of

Ladies Fine Shoes,

in particular, I have no hesitation in saying cannot be equaled in the State, both for style and durability, being all made to order, and in such a manner that I can warrant every article I sell, with the understanding at all times, that if they do not come up to the warrant, they shall be mended free of charge.

GENTLEMEN'S WEAR.

In this line I know beyond a doubt that I can show you a finer assortment and at better prices by twenty-five per cent. than can be found at any of the side shops or Dry Goods stores about town. I want it distinctly understood that I make the BOOT AND SHOE TRADE my WHOLE STUDY, and that I Buy More, Sell More and know more about the trade, than the whole pile of petty dealers put together. And I know also that I can make it an object for Every Farmer in Rock County, as well as every one that trades in Janesville to buy their Boots and Shoes of me for the more I sell the smaller profits I can sell at.

Manufacturing.

I want to say a few words to you in regard to my Manufacturing Department, to wit: That I am now engaged more extensively in the manufacturing business, and probably am selling more custom work than all the shops about town put together, simply for these reasons—that I use better Stock, being entirely of Eastern tannage, which every one knows is worth twenty-five per cent more than the common western tanned leather; and what is a better reason and of greater importance, I can

and at the same time sell you a better article than you can get at the shops, for this reason, which you must all see is a very palpable one, that in buying my stock cast and in such large quantities, I of course save a very large per cent, and thereby can sell at lower prices and at the same time make my profits.

I want to state further that I have secured the services of MR. BUCKINGHAM, who has formerly been engaged in the manufacturing business on the west side of the River, and who is known by every one to be the best manufacturer in the city; and if we don't get you up a better article, both in regard to style and durability, we will forfeit our money and our reputation, and I pledge you my word that this is no small forfeit.

Leather and Findings.

I have just received over $3,000 worth of the very best brands of Eastern Sole & Upper Leather; also, a very large assortment of FRENCH and PHILADELPHIA KIP and FRENCH CALF SKINS, together with a full assortment of MOROCCOS of every kind, which I will sell at

Precisely Milwaukee and Chicago Prices.

I have constantly on hand, also, a large assortment of all kings of FINDINGS, LASTS, BOOT TREES, CRIMPS, etc., etc., all of which will be sold at the same rates.

I request the attention of manufacturers in town as well as in the country to my stock, as I think I can make it an object for you to buy of me. At least, I can sell you a much superior article to that which you get of the pedlers.

TO THE LADIES,

I would say that I am under very great obligation for the partiality you have shown me, in always procuring your understandings from me, and I now publicly promise and swear that I will make every one of you who may be entitled to the same a present of a handsome pair of CACKS, when I shall have closed up my shoe-selling career. I would say further, that I am prepared to get up to order any style of work you wish, at low rates. Yours respectfully,
J. B. DIMOCK, Proprietor,
T. H. BUCKINGHAM, Foreman.

By the way, don't forget the location of the Institution, three doors above the Post Office, Janesville, Wisconsin.

KIER'S ROCK OIL,

FROM a Well 400 feet deep, Near Pittsburgh, Pa., is offered to the public as a Natural Medicine of no common value. It is a different thing from the old Kentucky or American Oil, as this is used INTERNALLY as well as externally. As a local remedy in Paralysis, Piles, Rheumatism, Deafness, Loss of Sight, Burns, &c. —also, as a valuable Internal Remedy for Piles, Ague, Scrofula, Coughs, Diarrhœa, Erysipelas, old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Female Diseases, Worms, Bladder and Kidneys, Bronchitis, Pains &c. &c., it invites the investigating Physician, as well as the suffering patient, to become acquainted with its merits.

Discovered in 1849, it has within 2 or 3 years, made multitudes of cures, and multitudes of friends—and as soon as tried the Sales not only increase but hold out. Testimony to its great merit is constantly accumulating in the hands of the proprietor by certificates, letters, and in other ways.

IT DOCTORS THE WHOLE MAN—flesh and blood—skin and bones—from head to foot—how it acts upon the system—upon diseases of different manifestations, we cannot fully tell. While it is both cathartic and astringent, it is Alterative—and mind you, a REGULATOR. A leading principle in it is Naptha. When you once have it in the family you will not be without it.

Full as the world is of Patent Medicines—it is thought not best to suppress this, the work of NATURE—to make room for Human inventions. Price 50 cents per bottle. It can be had of wholesalers at the large cities and towns in the West at Proprietor's prices.

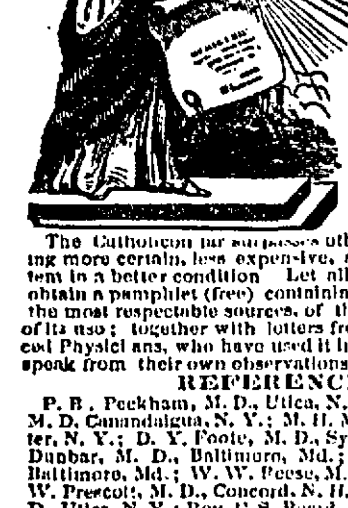

HAVE WE AGUE AMONG US?—A tea spoonful every three hours in the absence of the fever will cure you of Ague or Diarrhœa. ☞ Physicians, Druggists, and all friends of the afflicted, will do well to recommend this Oil for PROLAPSUS UTERI, and good will be done—take the usual dose 2 or 3 times a day, and bathe the lower part of the back with it. Have you SCROFULA? The Petroleum will eradicate it, root and branch, at little cost or inconvenience. Get circulars of directions for adults and children, gratis of the agents. A trial is all we ask. Mind and get the right kind—it is of a beautiful reddish color and clear. Try it for Piles.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S CELEBRRAED CATHOLICON,

FOR THE RELIEF AND CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called Female Complaints. Of these are Prolapsus Uteri or falling of the womb; Fluor Albus, or Whites; Chronic Inflammation and Ulceration of the Womb; Incidental Hemorrhage, or Flooding; Painful Menstruation &c with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted.) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

The Catholicon far surpasses other remedies, in being more certain, less expensive, and leaving the system in a better condition. Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICE.

75 Cents to $5,00.

MR. J. E. POWERS, lately from Troy, (N. Y.) respectfully informs the Ladies and Gentlemen of this place and vicinity that he has made a permanent location in Janesville, and has taken rooms over CHILD'S JEWELRY STORE, where he is prepared to take

Daguerreotype Likenesses,

Either single or in groups, not to be surpassed in Wisconsin. Miniatures taken in as good style as the Art can produce, having all the improved chemicals of the age, which, together with the advantages of a superior light, enable him to give a clear, bold and life-like picture.

Miniatures taken in all weathers equally well, and warranted not to fade in the least, from 75 cents to $1. Pictures taken over for 50 cents.

Lockets and fancy cases of all styles furnished to order, and also miniatures in Pin and Bracelets.

Miniatures of sick or diseased persons taken at their residences if required.

Pictures of Children of any age correctly taken at very low rates.

His Room will be open from 7 A. M. to 5. P. M., and he invites all those that wish to see GOOD Pictures, to

Call and Examine his Specimens,

whether they wish likenesses or not.

Among these specimens are Miniatures of Henry Clay, John P. Hale, Jenny Lind and General Tom Thumb.

Instructions given in the art on reasonable terms.

1000 Dollars Reward,

WILL be given to any person—Physician or otherwise—who will perform a cure as quickly and permanently, by any means whatever, of any of the following diseases, as can be done by the use of

PULVERMACHER'S

Hydro-Electric Voltaic Chains.

Rheumatism,	Nervous Headache,
Painful and Swelled Joints,	Palpitation of the Heart,
Sciatica,	General Debility,
Paralysis,	Female Diseases,
Spinal Disease,	Neuralgia of the Face,
Deafness, Blindness,	Rheumatic Pains of the
Dyspepsia, Indigestion,	Chest

ALL NERVOUS DISEASES

Are almost instantly removed by the simple application of the Electric Chains, which are constructed so as to be worn next to the skin, producing a constant current of uninterrupted Electro-Magnetism, which within the last few years has been discovered to possess STRANGE and WONDERFUL POWER, in the INSTANT RELIEF and PERMANENT CURE of nervous diseases.

HISTORY.

Pulvermachers' Chain are presented to the public, as the most scientific and convenient mode of applying this powerful agent. They have been secured by patent in France, (where they were invented) England, Germany, Austria, Belgium, and one year since introduced into the United States, and also secured by patent. They are used in every Hospital in the State of New York, and highly recommended by professors Valentine Mott, Van Buren, Post, Carnochan, of that city, who daily make use of them in their practice.

THE WORLD IS CHALLENGED

to produce so many well authenticated certificates of cure, not only from intelligent patients, but from scientific Physicians. The sale now in New York is perfectly ASTONISHING, and thousands who visit the Crystal Palace where they are on exhibition, seldom fail to obtain a chain before they leave the city.

Thanks be to the common sense of the people who are beginning to become disgusted with the practice of making a Drug Shop of their stomach—swallowing bottle after bottle of sickening, disgusting trash, having no more effect in even relieving, much less curing, the disease for which they are recommended, than a Poor Man's Plaster applied to the top of the head would have in curing an infant of worms.

All these great and remarkable discoveries, by which every ill "which flesh is heir to" is eradicated from the earth—strange as it may seem—are made by men who are too ignorant to obtain a living by any other mode, and their knowledge of disease, its proper mode of cure, its cause, is just as extensive as an Arab's is of the mechanism of a steam engine. No intelligent person will deny the truth of this, and no Physician dare risk his reputation as an honest man, and declare that nervous diseases are not more frequently increased in severity than relieved, by the old antiquated way of giving medicine into the stomach. If people will only become sensible and think for themselves, and believe that physicians practice upon their credulity more than they have any idea of, pay strict attention to temperance in all things, (which means very much,) make free use of pure cold water, internally and externally, with an occasional dash of soap, sleep in freely ventilated rooms, retire early and rise early, be happy and cheerful, employ their physicians to tell them "they require no physic;"—by so doing health and happiness will increase, bottled molasses and water be at a discount, and its famous discoverers be consigned to their legitimate stations.

The Hydro-Electric chains are now for the first time offered to the people of Nashua, as being a better, quicker, and safer mode of curing all nervous diseases, than any other method or means hitherto discovered. They can be used by either a grown person or a child, are always ready for use, and with little care will last for years.

CAUTION.

Ladies who are enciente, are requested not to wear them, for by long use, miscarriage is apt to be produced.

Price of Chains, $3 to $5, and can be sent by mail to any part of the country, together with a pamphlet of 36 pages, containing the modes of use, certificates of cure, &c. J. STEINERT, General Agent,

IMMENSE DAILY ARRIVALS!

Cash System Triumphant!

GOODS CHEAPER THAN EVER BEFORE KNOWN.

JACKMAN, PARKER & CO. Are now receiving at their Store, corner of Main and Milwaukee streets, the most extensive assortment of Merchandise ever before received at any establishment in the State, consisting in part of a very general assortment of

STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS, READY MADE CLOTHING, HATS AND CAPS, BONNETS, BOOTS AND SHOES, GROCERIES, CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE, DRIED FRUIT, SALT, WATER LIME, GRIND STONES, &c.,

and every thing in the shape of Merchandise that is wanted in any town or city. In the

DRY GOODS

Department our stock is at present the largest, richest and most magnificent ever before offered in Janesville. Among our DRESS GOODS may be found the most magnificent stock of Plain Black and Watered Grode Rhine Silks, and Plain, Plaid and Striped Fancy Silks, ever offered for sale in Janesville.

The attention of the ladies is particularly directed to our very extensive assortment of

PLAIN BLACK SILKS.

We have some better Goods than can be found at any other store in the city, and our prices are as low as you will have to pay for an inferior article at other stores; also a very extensive assortment of All Wool and Silk and Wool, Plain and Figured Bareges, Barege Delaines, &c.

Among our stock of low priced Dress Goods may be found

3,000 yds. Fine French Lawns at 5¼ c., sold at other stores at 1s. per yard.
4,000 do. 9c., sold at other stores 1s. 3d. per yard.
1,000 do. 1s. sold at other stores 1s. 6d. do.
2,000 do. Barege Delaines 1s., sold at other stores 2s. per yard.
10,000 do. Madder Prints, 6¼ c., sold at other stores 10c per yard.

SHAWLS!

In this department we have a very extensive assortment of White Crape, Square and long, Plain and Figured Cashmere, Black and Colored Silk, Barege, and everything in the Shawl line, from the lowest price to the best article in the market.

EMBROIDERY GOODS.

We probably have a better assortment of these Goods than all the rest of the stores in Janesville put together, consisting of Flowing Sleeves, Habits, Chemisetts, Collars &c., of the most fashionable goods in market, which will be sold at LOWER PRICES than ever before sold in this State. The attention of the Ladies is particularly directed to these Goods.

PARASOLS.

We have now on sale 1600 Parasols. Our immense stock in these goods compels us to say that we will undersell any establishment in this City, at least 25 per cent.

4000 Yards

Fine, Fast Colored French Ginghams this day received, that we are selling at 1s. per yard. They cannot be much had in town less than 1s. 6d. Call soon if you want to save 50 per cent in Ginghams, as they are going fast.

BONNET AND BONNET RIBBONS, Cheaper than the Cheapest.

READY-MADE CLOTHING.

Our Clothing Rooms are well stocked with the best made and most fashionable clothing in the market.—We have the most extensive assortment of all kinds of clothing in Rock county, and we shall keep up the reputation we have already gained, of underselling any of our neighbors. Among our stock may be found 1,000 Linen Coats, warranted linen, at 75 cents each.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

We have now in store over 20,000 pairs of BOOTS AND SHOES, of all descriptions, which the people are requested to take a look at. When they examine the goods and hear the prices, we know they will purchase.

CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE.

In these goods we have a very extensive stock of the best ware in the market. Persons wanting full sets of crockery, will do well to give us a call, as they will save at least 25 per cent, and get the very best of ware.

GROCERIES.

As usual our stock of these goods is very large and complete, and the choicest kind of goods. We have a few more chests of that splendid YOUNG HYSON TEA, that we have been selling so much of. Good Sugar for 4½c.

In conclusion, we would say that we find the Cash System the only one that will win. We buy our goods wholly for cash, and shall sell them for the same, and no other way; and consequently those that buy and sell on a credit of a year, eighteen months or two years, as the case may be, cannot sell goods at our prices.—THAT'S SO! For the proof of our assertion, call and examine our goods and prices.

EMPIRE CASH STORE!

The Cheapest Store in the County.

THE LARGEST, Most General and Best Selected Stock of MERCHANDISE ever introduced to the people of Rock and the adjoining counties is now received at the EMPIRE CASH STORE. A Stock larger than any Two Stores in Janesville to be Sold for CASH, at prices that all can see are at least 25 per cent lower than the PRETENDED CASH STORES SELL FOR.

We mean what we say exactly: We can sell you

MORE GOODS FOR THE Least amount of Money

Than any other Store in the county. For this reason we sell more Goods than any two Stores in Janesville, and this year we intend to sell more than any three, consequently, we can sell just one-third cheaper, as our expenses are no more by selling so much than they would be did we not sell any more than our neighbors.

Reduce The Price and Increase the Speed

Is the order of the day; and in order to do so, we have purchased this spring larger than ever, and intend to sell at prices to astonish everybody.

We buy Goods to SELL, and intend everybody shall understand this by our prices. We have purchased every thing by the Cord in the way of Merchandise. Our Stock embraces every thing in the Goods line, kept in such a store as ours only, commencing with

DRY GOODS, GROCERIES,

CROCKERY, HARDWARE in connection with a general STOVE TRADE.

READY-MADE CLOTHING,

BOOTS and SHOES, HATS, BONNETS, RIBBONS and CAPS, &c. &c.

To enumerate which would be impossible, (any one seeing our stock will be satisfied of that).

All we have to say is we have JUST WHAT YOU WANT, AT PRICES TO SUIT YOU, a fact which all can see by calling at the EMPIRE CASH STORE.
